- (a) any requirements of the regulations (including any subsequent regulations amending or substituted for those regulations) relating to matters specified in paragraph (a) or paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of section one of this Act (in this Schedule referred to as " the construction requirements ") shall—
 - (i) in the case of a fishing boat to which corresponding requirements under the law in force immediately before that date were applicable, be deemed to be complied with if those requirements are complied with ;

3 In determining for the purposes of the last preceding paragraph what steps for securing compliance with the construction requirements of any regulations are reasonable and practicable, the Minister shall have regard to the age of the fishing boat, to the purpose for which she is or is intended to be used and to the nature of any alterations or repairs which are carried out, or to the extent to which the construction of the fishing boat had been completed before the date on which the regulations came into force, as the case may be.

4 Where any such certificate is issued by the Minister as aforesaid, then, subject to compliance with such conditions, if any, as may be specified in the certificate—

Provided that on the occurrence of any such event as is mentioned in the said paragraph 1, the provisions of this paragraph shall cease to have effect in relation to the fishing boat, but without prejudice to the issue of a further certificate under paragraph 2 of this Schedule.

Inspection of crew accommodation (s. 3 of 1948 Act)

5 Whenever a fishing boat to which regulations made under section one of this Act apply is registered or re-registered in the United Kingdom under Part I or Part IV of the principal Act and whenever a complaint in respect of crew accommodation in any such fishing boat is duly made in accordance with the regulations, and on such other occasions as may be prescribed by the regulations, a surveyor of ships shall inspect the crew accommodation.

6 If, upon any such inspection, the surveyor is satisfied that the crew accommodation complies with the regulations, he shall (except where the inspection is made in consequence of a complaint) give to the registrar of British ships a certificate specifying as space deductible under section seventy-nine of the principal Act the whole of the space comprised in that accommodation, except any part thereof required by the regulations to be disregarded in estimating the space so to be deducted.

7 If, upon any such inspection, it appears to the surveyor that the accommodation does not comply in all respects with the regulations, he may give to the registrar a certificate specifying as space deductible as aforesaid such part of the space comprised in the accommodation as he considers appropriate having regard to the extent to which it complies with the regulations, but if he does not give such a certificate he shall report to the registrar that no space is deductible as aforesaid:

Provided that the surveyor shall not be required to make such a report as aforesaid—

12 In relation to a fishing boat of any foreign country, being a fishing boat to which regulations made under section one of this Act would apply if she were a British fishing boat and were registered in the United Kingdom under Part I or Part IV of the principal Act, subsection (1) of section eighty-four of the principal Act (which as amended by section fifty-five of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1906, provides for the ascertainment of the tonnage of certain foreign ships) shall have effect subject to the following modifications, that is to say:—

(a) for the words "shall be deemed to have been certified under this Act and to comply with the provisions of this Act which apply to such a space in the case of British ships" there shall be substituted the words "shall be deemed to have been specified in a certificate issued under the Merchant Shipping Act, 1950, and to comply with regulations made under section one of that Act";

(b) for the words "the standard required under this Act in the case of a British ship" there shall be substituted the words "the standard which would be required under or for the purposes of those regulations if she were a British fishing boat registered in the United Kingdom under Part I or Part IV of this Act".

13 Section two hundred and ten of the principal Act and the Sixth Schedule to that Act shall not apply to any fishing boat to which regulations made under section one of this Act apply (but without prejudice to the provisions of paragraph 1 of this Schedule):

Provided that any certificate given in relation to any such fishing boat as aforesaid, under paragraph (3) of the said Sixth Schedule before the date on which the regulations apply thereto shall have effect for the purposes of this Act and of the principal Act as if it had been given under paragraph 6 of this Schedule.
