

Camps Act 1939

1939 CHAPTER 22 2 and 3 Geo 6

†An Act to promote and facilitate the construction, maintenance and management of camps of a permanent character. [25th May 1939]

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C1 †Act repealed (E.W.) by Statute Law \(Repeals\) Act 1973 \(c. 39\), Sch. 1 Pt. XIII

1 Power to make payments for promoting camps.

- (1) With a view to promoting the construction, maintenance and management of camps of a permanent character, payments may, with the consent of the Treasury, be made out of moneys provided by Parliament to each of two companies recognised for the purposes of this section, one for England and Wales and one for Scotland, being companies not trading for profit the objects of which include the construction, maintenance and management of such camps; and the companies so recognised are hereinafter referred to as recognised companies.
- (2) The said companies shall be recognised, and such payments as aforesaid shall be made to them, by the appropriate Minister.
- (3) Payments made under this section may be by way of grant or loan and shall be made upon such terms and conditions as may be determined by the appropriate Minister with the consent of the Treasury:
Provided that the sum of the grants made under this section and of the amounts outstanding in respect of the principal of any loans made thereunder shall not at any time exceed in the aggregate one million two hundred thousand pounds.
- (4) In this section the expression “the appropriate Minister”, . . . ^{F1}, in relation to the company recognised for Scotland and payments made to that company, means the [^{F2}Secretary of State].
- (5) All sums received in repayment of the principal of any loan made under this section or in respect of any interest on any such loan shall be paid into the Exchequer.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991.
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Camps Act 1939. (See end of Document for details)

5 Annual reports to be made by a recognised company.

A recognised company shall each year prepare and submit to the appropriate Minister an annual report on their operations in that year; and the Minister, upon receiving any report submitted to him under this section, shall lay copies of the report before Parliament.

6 Interpretation.

In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them, that is to say,—

“company” has the meaning assigned to it by section ^{F11}four hundred and fifty five of the ^{M4}Companies Act 1948];

“construction,” in relation to a camp or building, includes the making of any alterations and additions to any building to adapt it for use in connection with a camp;

“enactment” includes any private or local Act;

“land” includes any interest in land and any ^{F12}servitude] or right in, to or over land;

“management,” in relation to a camp, includes the arrangement and supervision of all matters connected with the use of the camp, and the provision of facilities for recreation for the persons using it;

“road” has the same meaning as it has in the ^{M5}Restriction of Ribbon Development Act 1935.
