- I1 Act wholly in force at Royal Assent

[^{F1}1] Enlargement of controlled schools.

- (1) If upon the application of a local education authority and the managers or governors of a controlled school maintained by the authority the Secretary of State is satisfied—
 - (a) that there should be a significant enlargement of the school premises; and
 - (b) either—
 - (i) that the enlargement is wholly or mainly required for the purpose of providing accommodation for pupils for whom accommodation would have been provided in some other voluntary school if that other school had not been discontinued or had not otherwise ceased to be available for the purpose; or
 - (ii) that the enlargement is desirable for the better provision of primary or secondary education at the premises to be enlarged or for securing

2 Division of a single school into two or more schools.

- (1) Where a county school, an aided school or a controlled school is organized in two or more separate departments, and proposals are submitted to the [F⁴Secretary of State for Education and Science]—
- (a) in the case of a county school by the local education authority; and
 - (b) in the case of an aided school or a controlled school, by the . . . F⁵governors of the school after consultation with the local education authority;
- that the school should be divided into two or more separate schools, the [F⁴Secretary of State for Education and Science] may by order direct—
- (i) if the school is a county school, that the school shall be divided into two or more separate county schools; and
 - (ii) if the school is an aided school or a controlled school, that the school shall be divided into two or more separate voluntary schools;
- and when any such order comes into operation it shall become the duty of the local education authority to maintain each of the separate schools constituted by the order as a county school or as a voluntary school, as the case may be.
- (2) The constitution of a separate school in pursuance of any such order shall not, for the purposes of [F⁶section 12 or 13 of the Education Act 1980], be deemed to amount to the establishment of a new school.
- (3) Where any such order is made upon proposals submitted by the . . . F⁷governors of a controlled school, the order shall direct that each of the schools constituted in pursuance of the order shall be a controlled school.
- (4) Where any such order is made upon proposals submitted by the . . . F⁷governors of an aided school, the order shall direct that each of the schools constituted in pursuance of the order shall be an aided school:
 Provided that if the . . . F⁷governors of the original school have requested the [F⁴Secretary of State for Education and Science] to direct that all or any of the schools constituted in pursuance of the order shall be controlled schools; the order shall direct accordingly.
- (5) Subsection (4) of section fifteen of the principal Act (which relates to the circumstances in which an order directing that a school is to be an aided school is to be revoked) shall have effect as if the references therein to an order by virtue of which

Section fourteen

For the proviso to subsection (1), there shall be substituted—

“Provided that, except by leave of the Minister, no such notice as aforesaid shall be served by the managers or governors of any voluntary school in respect of the premises of which expenditure has been incurred otherwise than in connection with repairs by the Minister or by any local education authority or former authority. If the Minister grants such leave, he may impose such requirements as he thinks just—

- (a) in regard to the repayment of the whole or any part of the amount of the expenditure so incurred by the Minister;
- (b) where the Minister is satisfied that the local education authority will require, for any purpose connected with education, any premises which are for the time being used for the purposes of the school in regard to the conveyance of those premises to the authority ;
- (c) in regard to the payment by the local education authority of such part of the value of any premises so conveyed as is just having regard to the extent to which those premises were provided otherwise than at the expense of the authority or a former authority ;
- (d) where any premises for the time being used for the purposes of the school are not to be so conveyed, in regard to the payment to the authority by the managers or governors of the school of such part of the value of those premises as is just having regard to the extent to which they were provided at
