22 Removal of prisoners for judicial and other purposes.

(1) Rules made under section forty–seven of this Act may provide in what manner an appellant within the meaning of Part I of the Criminal Appeal Act 1968 when in custody, is to be taken to, kept in custody at, and brought back from, any place at which he is entitled to be present for the purposes of that Act, or any place to which the Court of Criminal Appeal or any judge thereof may order him to be taken for the purpose of any proceedings of that court.

(2) The Secretary of State may—

(a) . . .

(b) if he is satisfied that a person so detained requires medical investigation or observation or medical or surgical treatment of any description, direct him to be taken to a hospital or other suitable place for the purpose of the investigation, observation or treatment; and where any person is directed under this subsection to be taken to any place he shall, unless the Secretary of State otherwise directs, be kept in custody while being so taken, while at that place, and while being taken back to the prison in which he is required in accordance with law to be detained.

[F80 40E Section 40D: meaning of “authorisation” and other interpretation

(1) In section 40D (and the following provisions of this section) “authorisation” means authorisation given for the purposes of that section—
(a) in relation to all prisons or prisons of a specified description, by prison rules or by the Secretary of State;
(b) in relation to a particular prison—
(i) by the Secretary of State;
(ii) by the governor or director of the prison;
(iii) by a person working at the prison who is authorised by the governor or director to grant authorisation on his behalf.

In paragraph (a) “specified” means specified in the authorisation.

(2) Authorisation may be given—
(a) to persons generally or to specified persons or persons of a specified description; and
(b) on such terms as may be specified.

In this subsection “specified” means specified in the authorisation.

(3) Authorisation given by or on behalf of the governor or director of a prison must be in writing.

(4) In section 40D “restricted document” means the whole (or any part of)—

(a) a photograph taken inside the prison;
(b) a sound-recording made inside the prison;
(c) a personal record (or a document containing information derived from a personal record);
(d) any other document which contains—

(i) information relating to an identified or identifiable relevant individual, if the disclosure of that information would or might prejudicially affect the interests of that individual; or
(ii) information relating to any matter connected with the prison or its operation, if the disclosure of that information would or might prejudicially affect the security or operation of the prison.

(5) In subsection (4)—

“personal record” means any record which is required by prison rules to be prepared and maintained in relation to any prisoner (and it is immaterial whether or not the individual concerned is still a prisoner at the time of any alleged offence);

“relevant individual” means an individual who is or has at any time been—

(a) a prisoner or a person working at the prison; or
(b) a member of such a person's family or household.

(6) In section 40D and this section—

“document” means anything in which information is recorded (by whatever means);

“electronic communications” has the same meaning as in the Electronic Communications Act 2000 (c. 7);

“photograph” means a recording on any medium on which an image is produced or from which an image (including a moving image) may by any means be produced; and “sound-recording” means a recording of sounds on any medium from which the sounds may by any means be reproduced.

42A Disposal of unauthorised or unattributable property

(1) The governor or director of a prison may destroy or otherwise dispose of, or arrange for the destruction or other disposal of—
(a) an article found in the possession of a prisoner who is not authorised to have it in his or her possession, or
(b) an article found inside the prison or in a prisoner escort vehicle, otherwise than in the possession of a prisoner, where—
   (i) the owner of the article is a prisoner who is not authorised to have it in his or her possession, or
   (ii) the owner of the article cannot be ascertained.

(2) An article which a prisoner is authorised to have in his or her possession is to be treated for the purposes of subsection (1) as not so authorised where the governor or director of the prison reasonably believes that the article is being, has been or may be used for any of the purposes mentioned in subsection (3).

(3) Those purposes are—
   (a) concealing an article which a prisoner is not authorised to have in his or her possession;
   (b) causing harm to the prisoner or others;
   (c) prejudicing the security or operation of the prison.

(4) Where a prisoner is authorised to have an article in his or her possession in a particular part of the prison, subsection (1)(a) or (b)(i) applies only where the property is found otherwise than in that part.

(5) In this section—
   (a) “authorised” means authorised in accordance with prison rules or by the governor or director of the prison;
   (b) “prisoner escort vehicle” means a vehicle used for taking a prisoner to or from a prison or other place while in custody;
   (c) references to disposing of an article include selling it.

(6) The power under subsection (1)—
   (a) may be exercised in relation to a relevant article found before the day on which this section comes into force if the article remains unclaimed at the end of six months beginning with that day;
   (b) may not otherwise be exercised in relation to an article found before that day.

(7) In subsection (6)(a) “relevant article” means an article specified in section 40A(3) (c) or (d) (cameras and sound-recording devices) or section 40D(3B) (devices capable of transmitting or receiving images, sounds or information by electronic communications, etc).
Places for the detention of young offenders etc

Amendments (Textual)
F88 S. 43 and cross-heading substituted (20.3.2015 for specified purposes) by Criminal Justice and Courts Act 2015 (c. 2), ss. 38(1), 95(1) (with s. 95(10)); S.I. 2015/778, art. 2(1)(a)(2)

F89 (1) The Secretary of State may provide—
(a) remand centres, that is to say places for the detention of persons not less than 14 but under 21 years of age who are remanded or committed in custody for trial or sentence;
(b) young offender institutions, that is to say places for the detention of offenders sentenced to detention in a young offender institution or to custody for life; other persons who may be lawfully detained there
(c) secure training centres, that is to say places in which offenders in respect of whom detention and training orders have been made under section 100 of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000 may be detained and given training and education and prepared for their release and in which children who have been remanded to youth detention accommodation under section 91(4) of the Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012 may be detained

(2) The Secretary of State may from time to time direct—
(a) that a woman aged 21 years or over who is serving a sentence of imprisonment or who has been committed to prison for default shall be detained in a remand centre or a youth custody centre instead of a prison;
(b) that a woman aged 21 years or over who is remanded in custody or committed in custody for trial or sentence shall be detained in a remand centre instead of a prison;
(c) that a person under 21 but not less than 17 years of age who is remanded in custody or committed in custody for trial or sentence shall be detained in a prison instead of a remand centre or a remand centre instead of a prison, notwithstanding anything in section 27 of the Criminal Justice Act 1948 or section 23(3) of the Children and Young Persons Act 1969.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1) above, any person required to be detained in an institution to which this Act applies may be detained in a remand centre for any temporary purpose and a person aged 18 years or over may be detained in such a centre for the purpose of providing maintenance and domestic services for that centre.

(4) Sections 5A, 6(2) and (3), 16, 22, 25 of this Act shall apply to remand centres, detention centres and youth custody centres and to persons detained in them as they apply to prisons and prisoners.

(4A) Sections 16, 22 of this Act shall apply to secure training centres and to persons detained in them as they apply to prisons and prisoners.
(5) The other provisions of this Act preceding this section, except [F102 section 28 above, shall apply to [F103 centres of the descriptions specified in subsection (4) above] and to persons detained in them as they apply to prisons and prisoners, but subject to such adaptation and modifications as may be specified in rules made by the Secretary of State.

F104 The other provisions of this Act preceding this section, except sections 5, 5A, 6(2) and (3), 12, 14, 19, 25 [F105 and 28] above, shall apply to secure training centres and to persons detained in them as they apply to prisons and prisoners, but subject to such adaptations and modifications as may be specified in rules made by the Secretary of State.

(6) References in the preceding provisions of this Act to imprisonment shall, so far as those provisions apply to institutions provided under this section, be construed as including references to detention in those institutions.

(7) Nothing in this section shall be taken to prejudice the operation of [F106 section 108(5) of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000].

F107 The application of this Act to a person on whom a custodial sentence (within the meaning of the Armed Forces Act 2006) has been passed in respect of a service offence (within the meaning of that Act) is not affected by the omission from subsection (1) of a reference to that sentence.

F88 The Secretary of State may provide the following places for the detention of young persons sentenced to detention for an offence or remanded to custody (or for the detention of a class of such persons)—

(a) young offender institutions,
(b) secure training centres, and
(c) secure colleges.

(2) In subsection (1), “young person” means a person who is aged under 18 or who was aged under 18 when convicted of the offence or remanded.

(3) Sections 1 to 42A and Schedule A1 (“the prisons provisions”) apply in relation to places listed in subsection (1) and to persons detained in them as they apply to prisons and prisoners, subject to subsections (4) to (7).

(4) The following provisions do not apply in relation to the following places—

<table>
<thead>
<tr>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>Secure training centres or secure colleges</td>
<td>Sections 5, 6(2) and (3), 12, 14, 19 [F109 and 28]</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

(5) In their application in relation to secure colleges, the prisons provisions apply as if references to the governor and deputy governor were references to the principal and deputy principal.

(6) In their application in relation to places listed in subsection (1), the prisons provisions apply—

(a) as if references to imprisonment included references to detention in those places, and
(b) subject to any other modifications specified in rules made by the Secretary of State (but see subsection (7)).

(7) The following provisions, as they apply in relation to the following places, may not be modified by rules made under this section—

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Place</th>
<th>Provisions</th>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>Secure training centres or secure colleges</td>
<td>Sections 5A, 16, 22, 36 and 42A and Schedule A1</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

(8) Rules made under this section may—

(a) make different provision for different cases;
(b) contain transitional, transitory or saving provision.

(9) The references in this section to a young person sentenced to detention—

(a) include a person sentenced to a detention and training order or an order under section 211 of the Armed Forces Act 2006;
(b) do not include a person sentenced to service detention within the meaning of the Armed Forces Act 2006.

(10) Subsections (11) to (13) have effect in relation to any time before the coming into force of section 61 of the Criminal Justice and Court Services Act 2000 (abolition of sentences of detention in a young offender institution).

(11) Subsection (2) of this section, as it applies for the purposes of the power under subsection (1) to provide young offender institutions, has effect as if for “18”, in each place, there were substituted “21”.

(12) The Secretary of State may from time to time direct that a woman aged 21 or over who is serving a sentence of imprisonment or who has been committed to prison for default is to be detained in a young offender institution.

(13) Nothing in this section prejudices the operation of section 108(5) of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000 (detention of persons aged at least 18 but under 21 for default or contempt).
Changes to legislation: Prison Act 1952 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 03 April 2019. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

Persons unlawfully at large.

(1) Any person who, having been sentenced to imprisonment or custody for life or ordered to be detained in youth detention accommodation or in a young offenders institution, or having been committed to a prison or remand centre, is unlawfully at large, may be arrested by a constable without warrant and taken to the place in which he is required in accordance with law to be detained.

(2) Where any person sentenced to imprisonment, or ordered to be detained in youth detention accommodation or in a young offenders institution is unlawfully at large at any time during the period for which he is liable to be detained in pursuance of the sentence or order, then, unless the Secretary of State otherwise directs, no account shall be taken, in calculating the period for which he is liable to be so detained, of any time during which he is absent from the place in which he is required in accordance with law to be detained:

Provided that—

(a) this subsection shall not apply to any period during which any such person as aforesaid is detained in pursuance of the sentence or order or in pursuance of any other sentence of any court in the United Kingdom in a prison or remand centre, in youth detention accommodation or in a young offenders institution;

(b)

(c)

(3) The provisions of the last preceding subsection shall apply to a person who is detained in custody in default of payment of any sum of money as if he were sentenced to imprisonment.
(3A) Where—

(a) a person is extradited to the United Kingdom from a category 1 territory for the purpose of serving a term of imprisonment or another form of detention mentioned in subsection (2) of this section, and

(b) the person was for any time kept in custody in that territory with a view to the extradition (and not also for any other reason), the Secretary of State shall exercise the power under that subsection to direct that account shall be taken of that time in calculating the period for which the person is liable to be detained.

(3B) In subsection (3A) of this section “category 1 territory” means a territory designated under the Extradition Act 2003 for the purposes of Part 1 of that Act.

(4) For the purposes of this section a person who, after being temporarily released in pursuance of rules made under subsection (5) of section forty-seven of this Act, is at large at any time during the period for which he is liable to be detained in pursuance of his sentence shall be deemed to be unlawfully at large if the period for which he was temporarily released has expired or if an order recalling him has been made by the Secretary of State in pursuance of the rules.

(5) In this section “youth detention accommodation” means—

(a) a young offender institution;

(b) a secure training centre;

(ba) a secure college; or

(c) any other accommodation that is youth detention accommodation within the meaning given by section 107(1) of the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000 (detention and training orders).

52 Exercise of power to make orders, rules and regulations.

(1) Any power of the Secretary of State to make rules or regulations under this Act and the power of the Secretary of State to make an order under section thirty-four or 40A of this Act or under Schedule A1 to this Act shall be exercisable by statutory instrument.

(2) Any statutory instrument containing regulations made under section sixteen shall be laid before Parliament.

(2A) A statutory instrument containing an order under section 40A(7) which relates to List A (whether or not it also relates to List B) shall not be made unless a draft of it has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.

(2B) A statutory instrument containing an order under section 40A(7) which relates only to List B is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

(3) The power of the Secretary of State to make an order under section six or section thirty-four of this Act or under Schedule A1 to this Act shall include power to revoke or vary such an order.

(4) A statutory instrument containing rules under section 47 or 47A is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament, subject to subsection (5).

(5) A statutory instrument containing rules under section 47 that (whether alone or with other provision)—

(a) authorise a secure college custody officer performing custodial duties at a secure college to use reasonable force, or

(b) otherwise make a substantive change to the circumstances in which such an officer is authorised to do so,

may not be made unless a draft of the instrument has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, each House of Parliament.

(6) In subsection (5), “secure college custody officer” has the same meaning as in Schedule 10 to the Criminal Justice and Courts Act 2015.

SCHEDULES

SCHEDULE A1

FURTHER PROVISION ABOUT HER MAJESTY'S CHIEF INSPECTOR OF PRISONS

Annotations:

Amendments (Textual)
F162 Sch. A1 inserted (1.4.2007) by Police and Justice Act 2006 (c. 48), ss. 28(2), 53(1); S.I. 2007/709, art. 3(m) (with art. 6)

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

Delegation of functions

1 (1) The Chief Inspector may delegate any of his functions (to such extent as he may determine) to another public authority.

(2) If the carrying out of an inspection is delegated under sub-paragraph (1) above it is nevertheless to be regarded for the purposes of section 5A of this Act and this Schedule as carried out by the Chief Inspector.

(3) In this Schedule “public authority” includes any person certain of whose functions are functions of a public nature.

Inspection programmes and inspection frameworks

2 (1) The Chief Inspector shall from time to time, or at such times as the Secretary of State may specify by order, prepare—
(a) a document setting out what inspections he proposes to carry out (an “inspection programme”);
(b) a document setting out the manner in which he proposes to carry out his functions of inspecting and reporting (an “inspection framework”).

(2) Before preparing an inspection programme or an inspection framework the Chief Inspector shall consult the Secretary of State and (subject to sub-paragraph (3) below) —
(a) Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Constabulary,
(b) Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of the Crown Prosecution Service,
(c) [F164Her Majesty’s Chief Inspector of Probation for England and Wales] ,

F164(d) . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . .
(e) Her Majesty's Chief Inspector of Education, Children's Services and Skills,
F165(f) . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . .
F166 (g) the Care Quality Commission,
F167(h) . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . .
(i) the Auditor General for Wales, and
(j) any other person or body specified by an order made by the Secretary of State, and he shall send to each of those persons or bodies a copy of each programme or framework once it is prepared.

(3) The requirement in sub-paragraph (2) above to consult, and to send copies to, a person or body listed in paragraphs (a) to (j) of that sub-paragraph is subject to any agreement made between the Chief Inspector and that person or body to waive the requirement in such cases or circumstances as may be specified in the agreement.

(4) The Secretary of State may by order specify the form that inspection programmes or inspection frameworks are to take.

(5) Nothing in any inspection programme or inspection framework is to be read as preventing the Chief Inspector from making visits without notice.

Inspections by other inspectors of organisations within Chief Inspector's remit

3 (1) If—

(a) a person or body within sub-paragraph (2) below is proposing to carry out an inspection that would involve inspecting a specified organisation, and

(b) the Chief Inspector considers that the proposed inspection would impose an unreasonable burden on that organisation, or would do so if carried out in a particular manner, the Chief Inspector shall, subject to sub-paragraph (7) below, give a notice to that person or body not to carry out the proposed inspection, or not to carry it out in that manner.

(2) The persons or bodies within this sub-paragraph are—

(a) [F168 ‘Her Majesty’s Inspectorate of Probation for England and Wales’];

(b) Her Majesty’s Chief Inspector of Education, Children’s Services and Skills;

F169 (c) . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . .
(3) The Secretary of State may by order amend sub-paragraph (2) above.

(4) In sub-paragraph (1)(a) above “specified organisation” means a person or body specified by an order made by the Secretary of State.

(5) A person or body may be specified under sub-paragraph (4) above only if it exercises functions in relation to any prison or other institution or matter falling within the scope of the Chief Inspector’s duties under section 5A of this Act.

(6) A person or body may be specified under sub-paragraph (4) above in relation to particular functions that it has.

In the case of a person or body so specified, sub-paragraph (1)(a) above is to be read as referring to an inspection that would involve inspecting the discharge of any of its functions in relation to which it is specified.

(7) The Secretary of State may by order specify cases or circumstances in which a notice need not, or may not, be given under this paragraph.

(8) Where a notice is given under this paragraph, the proposed inspection is not to be carried out, or (as the case may be) is not to be carried out in the manner mentioned in the notice.

This is subject to sub-paragraph (9) below.

(9) The Secretary of State, if satisfied that the proposed inspection—

(a) would not impose an unreasonable burden on the organisation in question, or
(b) would not do so if carried out in a particular manner, may give consent to the inspection being carried out, or being carried out in that manner.

(10) The Secretary of State may by order make provision supplementing that made by this paragraph, including in particular—

(a) provision about the form of notices;
(b) provision prescribing the period within which notices are to be given;
(c) provision prescribing circumstances in which notices are, or are not, to be made public;
(d) provision for revising or withdrawing notices;
(e) provision for setting aside notices not validly given.
