

Intestates' Estates Act 1952

CHAPTER 64

INTESTATES' ESTATES ACT 1952

PART I

AMENDMENTS OF LAW OF INTESTATE SUCCESSION

- 1 Succession to estate of intestate leaving a surviving spouse.
- 2 Right of surviving spouse to have life interest redeemed.
- 3 Partial intestacies.
- 4 Reproduction of enactments in Administration of Estate Act, 1925, as amended.
- 5 Rights of surviving spouse or civil partner as respects the matrimonial home.
- 6 Interpretation and construction.

PART II

AMENDMENTS OF INHERITANCE (FAMILY PROVISION) ACT, 1938

- 7
- 8

PART III

GENERAL

- 9 Short title and commencement.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Intestates' Estates Act 1952. (See end of Document for details)

SCHEDULES

FIRST SCHEDULE — Sections 46 to 49 of Administration of Estates Act, 1925, as Amended by Part I of this Act as respects Persons Dying after the Commencement of this Act

- 46 Succession to real and personal estate on intestacy.
- 47 Statutory trusts in favour of issue and other classes of relatives of intestate.
- 47A Right of surviving spouse to have own life interest redeemed.
- 48 Powers of personal representative in respect of interests of surviving spouse.
- 49 Application to cases of partial intestacy.

SECOND — Rights of Surviving Spouse or civil partner as respects the SCHEDULE Matrimonial or civil partnership Home

- 1 (1) Subject to the provisions of this Schedule, where the...
- 2 Where— (a) the dwelling-house forms part of a building and...
- 3 (1) The right conferred by paragraph 1 of this Schedule—...
- 4 (1) During the period of twelve months mentioned in paragraph...
- 5 (1) Where the surviving husband or wifespouse or civil partner...
- 6 (1) Where the surviving spouse or civil partner lacks capacity...
- 7 (1) Except where the context otherwise requires, references in this...

THIRD SCHEDULE —

.....

FOURTH SCHEDULE —

.....

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Intestates' Estates Act 1952.