

Towns Improvement Clauses Act 1847

1847 CHAPTER 34 10 and 11 Vict

Lodging houses

And with respect to lodging houses, be it enacted as follows:

116 For the regulation and inspection of lodging houses.

It shall not be lawful to keep or use as a public lodging house within the limits of the special Act any house, not being a licensed victualling house, which shall be related to the relief of the poor on a less sum than ten pounds, nor in any case unless such house shall have been registered as a lodging house in a book to be kept by the commissioners for that purpose; and every house shall be deemed a public lodging house within the meaning of this Act in which persons are harboured or lodged for hire for a single night, or for less than a week at one time, or any part of which is let for any term less than a week.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C1 Reference to poor rate to be construed as reference to general rate: General Rate Act 1967 \(c. 9\), s. 116\(2\)

117 Commissioners to keep a register of lodging house keepers, and make rules for promoting cleanliness and ventilation.

The commissioners shall cause a register to be kept in which shall be entered the names of all such persons as apply to have the houses occupied by them registered as lodging houses, and the situations of such houses; and the commissioners shall from time to time fix the number of lodgers who may be received into each such lodging house, and make rules for promoting cleanliness and ventilation in such lodging house; and they shall order that a ticket containing the number of lodgers allowed to be received into the house, and a table of rules for promoting cleanliness and ventilation, shall be hung up or placed in a conspicuous part of each room into which lodgers are received; and the keepers of all such lodging houses shall at all times observe the said rules, and give access to such lodging houses, when required by any persons appointed by the
