

Treason Felony Act 1847

CHAPTER 12

TREASON FELONY ACT 1847

After passing of this Act, Provisions of 36 G. 3. c. 7. and 57 G. 3. c. 6. repealed, except as to Offences against the Person of the Sovereign.

- II So much of 36 G.3 c.7, made perpetual by 57 G.3 c.6, as is not repealed, extended to Ireland.
- III Offences declared Felonies by this Act to be punishable by Transportation or Imprisonment.
- IV Time within which Prosecution shall be commenced, Warrant issued, &c.
- V In Indictments more than One overt Act may be charged.
- VI Nothing herein to affect Provisions of 25 Edw.3 c.2.
- VII Indictments for Felony under this Act valid, though the Facts may amount to Treason.
- VIII As to the Punishment of Accessories before and after the Fact.
- IX Felonies under this Act in Scotland not bailable, except as provided by 5 & 6 W.4 c.73. Trial to take place in Terms of Act of Scottish Parliament of 1701.
- X No Costs allowed in Prosecutions under this Act.
- XI Act may be amended, &c.