

Inclosure Act 1849

1849 CHAPTER 83 12 and 13 Vict

7 Exchange and partition of rights, &c.

All the provisions of the said recited Acts applicable to the powers of exchange ^{F1} . . . under the said recited Acts shall extend and be applicable to the exchange of all rights of common, rights of fishing, manorial and other rights, and all easements over any land, and all quit rents, chief rents, heriots, tithes, and rent-charges, for any other of the said rights, easements, and things, whether of the same or a like or different nature, or for land ^{F1} . . . ; and when two or more persons shall be interested jointly, severally, as a class, or in common, in any rights or property proposed to be exchanged ^{F1} . . . under this or the said recited Acts, the application of two thirds in value of the persons so interested jointly, severally, as a class, or in common, as aforesaid, shall be deemed the application of all persons interested or having any estate therein.

Textual Amendments

F1 Words in s. 7 repealed (19.11.1998) by 1998 c. 43, s. 1(1), Sch. 1 Pt.VI

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Inclosure Act 1849, Section 7.