

Court of Session Act 1850

1850 CHAPTER 36 13 and 14 Vict

28 Interim decrees to be extractible without special allowance.

Every act and warrant and decree granted or to be granted during the dependence of a process before the Court of Session, and which according to the present practice might be extracted ad interim, if special allowance to that effect were granted by the Lord Ordinary or the court, shall be extractible ad interim without the necessity of such special allowance, unless the Lord Ordinary or the court shall otherwise direct.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Court of Session Act 1850, Section 28.