

Burial Act 1853

CHAPTER 134

BURIAL ACT 1853

- I On Representation of Secretary of State, Her Majesty in Council may restrain the opening of new Burial Grounds, and order Discontinuance of Burials in specified Places.
- II Order not to extend to Burial Grounds of Quakers or Jews, unless expressly included.
- III Burial not to take place after Order in Council for Discontinuance.
- IV Saving of certain Rights to bury in Vaults, &c.
- V Not to extend to Cemeteries established by Act of Parliament, or new Burial Grounds, &c.
- VI New Burial Grounds not to be opened contrary to Order in Council.
- VII Certain Provisions of Metropolitan Burial Act, 15 & 16 Vict. c.85, extended to Parishes, &c. not in the Metropolis. Any Burial Board building a Chapel for Burials according to the Rites of the Church of England also to build a Chapel for Persons not being Members of the Church of England.
- VIII Register of Burials to be kept in every Ground provided under 15 & 16 Vict. c.85 or under this Act. Entries to be Evidence.
- IX Act, except ss.7 and 8, not to extend to the Metropolis.
- X Extent of Act.