[<sup>F6</sup>(1) When any such lease as aforesaid shall have been recorded as herein provided, it shall be lawful for the party in right of such lease, and whose right is recorded in terms of this Act, but in accordance always with the conditions and stipulations of such lease, and not otherwise, to assign the same, in whole or in part, by assignation, in the form as nearly as may be of the Schedule (A.) to this Act annexed; and the recording of such assignation shall fully and effectually vest the assignee with the right of the granter thereof in and to such lease to the extent assigned: Provided always, that such assignation shall be without prejudice to the right of hypothec, or other rights of the landlord.

(2) Notwithstanding—

- (a) any restriction imposed by subsection (1) above on the power under that subsection to assign such a lease; or
- (b) any rule of law to the contrary, it shall be, and shall be deemed always to have been, competent in an assignation under this section the conditions, or stipulations, shall take effect in accordance with such provision.]

- (c) under a heritable security.

(4) A provision in an assignation [<sup>F11</sup>, or as the case may be in a deed such as is mentioned in subsection (2A) above, ] which purports to make effectual against any successor of the assignee any obligation of periodic payment other than one specified in paragraphs (a) to (c) of subsection (3) above shall not render the deed void or unenforceable, but the assignation [<sup>F12</sup>, or as the case may be the deed,] shall have, and shall be deemed always to have had, effect only to the extent (if any) that it would have had effect if it had not imposed such obligation.
