

Improvement Of Land Act 1864

1864 CHAPTER 114 27 and 28 Vict

The Improvement of Land Act, 1864.

[29th July 1864]

Whereas an Act was passed in the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of her present Majesty, intituled The Private Money Drainage Act, 1849, and several companies have been incorporated by Act of Parliament, with special powers for promoting the improvement of land in Great Britain and Ireland by drainage and otherwise; and it is desirable to amend and consolidate the law relating to the improvement of land by owners of limited interests, and to enable such owners to charge their lands with money subscribed for the construction of railways and navigable canals which will permanently increase the value of such lands:

9 Interpretation of “improvement of land.”

By “the improvement of land” shall herein be meant all or any of the following matters:

- (1) The drainage of land, and the straitening, widening, deepening, or otherwise improving the drains, streams, and watercourses of any land:
- (2) The irrigation and warping of land:
- (3) The embanking and weiring of land from the sea or tidal waters, or from lakes, rivers, or streams, in a permanent manner:
- (4) The inclosing of lands, and the straitening of fences and redivision of fields:
- (5) The reclamation of land, including all operations necessary thereto:
- (6) The making of permanent farm roads and permanent tramways and railways and navigable canals for all purposes connected with the improvement of the estate:
- (7) The clearing of land:
- (8) The erection of labourers cottages, farmhouses, and other buildings required for farm purposes, and the improvement of and addition to labourers cottages, farmhouses, and other buildings for farm purposes already erected, so as such improvements or additions be of a permanent nature:
- (9) Planting for shelter:
- (10) The constructing or erecting of any engine-houses, waterwheels, saw and other mills, kilns, shafts, wells, ponds, tanks, reservoirs, dams, leads, pipes, conduits, watercourses, bridges, weirs, sluices, floodgates, or hatches, which will increase the value of any lands for agricultural purposes:
- (11) The construction or improvement of jetties or landing places on the sea coast, or on the banks of navigable rivers or lakes, for the transport of cattle, sheep, and other agricultural stock and produce, and of lime, manure, and other articles and things for agricultural purposes; provided that the Commissioners shall be satisfied that such works will add to the permanent value of the lands to be charged to an extent equal to the expense thereof:
- (12) The execution of all such works as in the judgment of the Commissioners may be necessary for carrying into effect any matter herein-before mentioned, or for deriving the full benefit thereof.

10 Interpretation of “person.”

The word “person” shall in this Act include companies and all other corporations.

Proceedings preliminary to sanction of improvements

And with regard to the proceedings preliminary to the sanction of any improvements, be it enacted as follows:

11 Application to Commissioners to sanction improvements.

When any landowner shall be desirous of borrowing or advancing money under this Act for the improvement of his land, he shall make an application to the Commissioners to sanction the proposed improvements in such manner and form and stating such particulars as the Commissioners shall from time to time direct; and until the proposed improvements shall have been sanctioned by the Commissioners in manner hereinafter mentioned the application may be withdrawn or altered, or consolidated with any other application, at the pleasure of the applicant, but without prejudice to his liability as herein-after mentioned for the expenses incurred by the Commissioners or their officers in consequence of his application.

12 Joint application by several landowners.

Any two or more landowners may, with the consent of the Commissioners, join in an application to them to sanction the improvement of the lands of such landowners respectively, but the sum to be charged in pursuance of any such joint application shall be apportioned so that a separate and distinct sum may become charged on the land of each landowner.

13 Commissioners may issue forms;

The Commissioners may from time to time frame and circulate, as they shall see occasion, forms indicating the particulars of the information to be furnished to them by landowners for the purposes of this Act, and such other forms as the Commissioners may deem expedient for facilitating any proceedings under this Act.

14 require security for expenses;

The Commissioners may require security to be given to them by the landowner, by bond, deposit, or otherwise, in such form as they may think fit, for the payment to them of the expenses which they or their officers shall incur in respect of the investigation on any application, and, if they shall issue such provisional or other sanctioning order as herein-after mentioned, of the expenses which they or their officers shall incur in inspecting and ascertaining the due execution of the works; but unless the Commissioners shall issue such absolute order as herein-mentioned, such payment shall not be a charge on the land to which such application relates, but shall be a debt due by the person making such application to the Commissioners, and shall be recoverable by them as in the nature of a Crown debt.

Status: Point in time view as at 25/09/1991.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Improvement Of Land Act 1864. (See end of Document for details)

15 cause application to be investigated;

If the Commissioners shall think fit to entertain the application so made to them, they may cause the land to be inspected and examined by an assistant commissioner, or an engineer or surveyor, who shall have regard to and examine the proposals and statements contained in such application, and shall report his opinion thereon, and who shall also report whether in his judgment the proposed improvements will effect a permanent increase of the yearly value of the land exceeding the yearly amount proposed to be charged thereon in respect of the improvements applied for; and the Commissioners may by themselves, or any assistant commissioner, engineer, or surveyor, make such other inquiries in relation to any such application as they shall think fit: Provided that the above requisition as to increased annual value shall not apply to any outlay proposed to be made upon or in respect of planting only.

16 and require proposed improvements to be modified.

The Commissioners shall have power to require such alterations as they shall think expedient to be made in the improvements proposed, or in the proposed mode of executing them.

[^{F6}17 Advertisements and notices preliminary to sanction.

Before the Commissioners shall sanction any improvements, notice shall be given of the application . . . ^{F7}by a notice in writing given, . . . ^{F8} . . . ^{F7}, to the nearest heir or heirs of entail, not exceeding three, and to the holders of every heritable security on such lands appearing upon the records; and in such . . . ^{F7}notices . . . ^{F7}shall be stated the maximum amount which it is proposed to charge in respect of the improvements, and the greatest and least terms over which it is proposed that the rentcharge should be spread; and the Commissioners shall not sanction the improvements until one month shall have elapsed from the . . . ^{F7}service of such notices . . . ^{F7}of which . . . ^{F7}service of all necessary notices as aforesaid, the landowner shall, if required by the Commissioners, satisfy them by one or more statutory declarations made by him or on his behalf.]

Sanction of improvements, and rights thereunder

And with regard to the sanction of any improvements, and the rights arising thereunder, be it enacted as follows:

25 Commissioners order sanctioning improvements.

If the Commissioners shall find that the proposed improvements or any part thereof, whether with or without any alternations by them required or sanctioned, would effect a permanent increase of the yearly value of the lands proposed to be improved, or of any part thereof, exceeding the yearly amount proposed to be charged thereon, they shall sanction such improvements, or such part thereof as they shall think expedient, if under the preceding sections it shall be lawful for them so to do, by an order under their hands and seal; and they shall by the same order fix the rate of interest to be allowed on the cost of the sanctioned improvements, having regard to the market value of money at the time, but such interest shall never exceed five per cent. per annum.

26 Forms of orders sanctioning improvements to be prepared by Commissioners; what they must contain.

The Commissioners shall from time to time prepare forms of orders for sanctioning improvements, and shall also, whenever required by the landowner so to do, frame and entitle their said orders under this Act in such manner that they may also be and operate as provisional, sanctioning, or other corresponding orders under the respective Acts applying to any company with which he may have contracted relating to the loan or improvements in question: Provided that every order operating under this Act to sanction any improvements shall name the landowner to whom it is issued; shall express the greatest sum to be charged in addition to any costs, charges, and expenses under the fiftieth section hereof, and the rate of interest and term of years for the repayment thereof, the former not exceeding five per centum per annum, and the latter not exceeding twenty-five years; shall specify the lands on which such repayment is to be charged; and shall either express or refer to some contract or other document expressing the general scheme of the improvements to be executed.

27 They may be called provisional orders, and may be assigned to parties agreeing to execute improvements.

Every order operating under this Act alone to sanction any improvement may be in the form set forth in schedule (A.) hereto, and shall be called a provisional order, and shall, subject to the following section hereof, create in favour of the landowner named therein the title to an absolute charge on the completion of the sanctioned improvements, which title such landowner may assign, either absolutely or by way of security, to any person; and such assignment may be made by endorsement on the provisional order.

28 Provision for death of landowner pending completion of improvements.

In case of the death of any landowner, or the determination of his interest, between the date of the provisional order and the completion of the improvements sanctioned thereby, the right to complete such improvements, and to assign the title to an absolute charge, shall pass to the succeeding landowner; but if the succeeding landowner shall not within three calendar months after his succession proceed with the works, so as to complete the same in conformity with the provisional order, the preceding landowner, or in case of his decease his executors or administrators, may complete such improvements, and shall become entitled to have the absolute charge executed to him or them. If the succeeding landowner shall complete the improvements there shall be distinct absolute charges executed to such landowner, and the the preceding landowner or his personal representatives, for the outlay made by the preceding and succeeding landowners respectively, and in case of difference the Commissioners shall determine the proportions; provided that the succeeding landowner may, with the sanction of the Inclosure Commissioners, and after notice to the parties to whom notice was originally given, or such of them as may be living, and such other persons, if any, as the Commissioners may direct, terminate the proceedings under the provisional order, on payment of the outlay and expenses made thereunder, and indemnifying the person to whom the title to the absolute charge may have been assigned. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, if the title to an absolute charge shall have been assigned by the preceding landowner, the assignee may complete the improvements if he shall proceed therewith within one calendar month from the time the preceding landowner ceased to be such landowner.

29 Provisional orders may be modified.

The Commissioners may from time to time, on application to be made by the landowner, and after such inquiry as they shall think fit, sanction any modifications or alterations either of the scheme of the improvements or of any other matter expressed or referred to in the provisional order: Provided that no such modification or alteration shall increase the sum to be charged in respect of the improvements, or extend or curtail the term of repayment, beyond the greatest amount which it was proposed so to charge, or the greatest or least term over which it was proposed that the rentcharge

Execution of improvements

And with regard to the execution of any improvements, be it enacted as follows:

30 Detailed specifications to be delivered in advance;

Before the commencement of any improvements sanctioned in manner aforesaid the landowner shall deliver to the Commissioners a detailed specification thereof, and in the case of buildings, and also in any other case where the same shall be required by the Commissioners, a detailed plan or drawing: Provided that when it is not intended to complete the improvements within one year from the date of the provisional or other sanctioning order, the specification and plan or drawing first delivered may comprise so much only as it is intended to complete within one year from the said date, so, however, that for the works of each successive year such specification and plan or drawing as aforesaid be always delivered in advance.

31 and approved before execution of works.

The specifications and plans or drawings aforesaid shall be examined, and, if necessary, the spot visited by an assistant commissioner, or an engineer or surveyor, who shall report whether in his judgment the improvements as proposed to be effected will be effected in a substantial and durable manner, and, in the case of farm buildings, whether the same, or the improvements thereof or additions thereto, will be suitable to the locality; and no improvement shall be commenced or proceeded with until the specifications and plans or drawings aforesaid shall have been approved by the Commissioners; but nothing herein contained shall render necessary the re-delivery, re-examination, or re-approval of any detailed specifications, plans, or drawings which may have been delivered in connexion with the application for the Commissioners sanction to the general scheme of the improvements, and may have been approved in connexion with that sanction.

32 Adjoining lands, or easements over them, may be sold for purpose of improvements, and conveniences over adjoining lands for the execution of improvements contracted for.

All persons interested in any lands adjoining or near to the land improved or proposed to be improved, and being, as to lands in England . . . ^{F21} or Ireland by the provisions of "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," and as to lands in Scotland by the 48 Commissioners may inspect works.

The Commissioners shall, if and as they see occasion, cause any improvements in progress under this Act to be inspected by a commissioner or assistant commissioner, or an engineer or surveyor, to ascertain the due execution thereof.

Charges for improvements

And with regard to charges for improvements under this Act, be it enacted as follows:

49 Commissioners to execute charge on completion of works, or of some part thereof.

When the Commissioners are satisfied that the improvements sanctioned by them, or some part thereof, have been properly executed, either according to the specifications and plans or drawings approved of by them, or with such deviations therefrom as in their judgment will not diminish the permanent benefit accruing from such improvements to the lands wherein they have been made, they shall execute a charge under their hands and seal upon the inheritance or fee of the lands comprised in the provisional or other sanctioning order, or some sufficient part thereof, for the sum by the same order expressed to be chargeable in respect of such improvements, if all the said improvements have been completed, or for a proportional part of such sum, if a part only of the said improvements has been executed, together, in either case, with the interest by the same order expressed, and with the amount (if any) which shall have been paid in respect of the purchase of adjoining lands, or of any easement, authority, or right in, through, over, or affecting adjoining lands, with interest thereon at the like rate.

50 Expenses of application and certain contracts, may be included in charge.

If the landowner is desirous that the inheritance or fee of the lands improved should be charged with the expenses of and incident to his application to the Commissioners, or his contract with any company or person relating to the execution of the improvements, or to the advance of money for their execution, the Commissioners may ascertain the amount of the costs, charges, and expenses properly incurred preparatory or in relation to and consequent on such contract, and the application to the Commissioners or either of them, and may include in the principal money charged on the inheritance or fee of such lands the amount of such costs, charges, and expenses, and of the settled or taxed costs, if any, which a court or judge shall have ordered as aforesaid to be deemed and taken to be part of the expenses of and incident to the application for improvements, or such part thereof as the Commissioners think fit; and the Commissioners may also include in such principal money interest at a rate not exceeding five pounds per centum per annum on all payments forming part of the same principal money from the respective dates of such payments to that of the absolute order, but so that no interest shall be allowed on any such payment for more than six years; provided that the total amount of the principal money to be charged on the lands improved under the provisions of this Act shall not in any case exceed that to which, in the opinion of the Commissioners, the inheritance or fee of the lands improved will be durably benefited by the improvements.

51 The charges to be by way of rentcharge created by absolute order;

Every charge under this Act shall be created by way of rentcharge, payable half-yearly, extending over the term of years fixed by the provisional or other sanctioning order, and the first payment thereof to be made six months after the time when the works in respect of which the same was granted were executed to the satisfaction of the Commissioners; and the payment for each half year shall be, and be expressed to be as to part thereof a repayment of a certain amount of principal money, and as to the remainder thereof a payment of interest: and the charge shall be duly stamped for denoting payment of the proper ad valorem stamp duty which would be payable on a mortgage for securing the like amount as the principal money thereby charged, and shall be called an absolute order; and a copy of every such absolute order shall be authenticated by the seal of the commissioners, and shall be kept by them; and such copy, and any copy thereof authenticated by their seal, shall be evidence of the contents and purport of the same absolute order.

52 according to form in Schedule (B).

Charges under this Act shall be made according to the form in the schedule (B.) hereto annexed, or as near thereto as the circumstances of the case will admit.

53 Expenditure made under this Act may be charged under Acts of improvement companies.

Whenever, by assignment under the twenty-sixth section hereof or otherwise, a company having power to execute or advance money for the improvement of land shall become entitled to the creation of any charge under either the forty-ninth or the seventy-eighth section hereof, the Commissioners shall, if required, but subject to the provisions herein-before contained, create such charge in the form of, and so that it may also operate as, an absolute or other corresponding order under the Act or Acts applying to such company.

67 Tenant may deduct rentcharge, unless he has agreed to pay it.

If any tenant or occupier at a rent join in the application for an improvement, or by writing under his hand signify to the Commissioners, or to an assistant commissioner or engineer, his consent to become charged with the charge, or an apportioned part thereof as herein-after mentioned, such tenant or occupier shall during his tenancy or occupation be liable to pay the charge, or an apportioned part thereof as herein-after mentioned; and in case the charge be made in respect of the improvement as well of other land as of the land included in such tenancy or occupation, the Commissioners may, upon such consent of the tenant or occupier, declare in the absolute order what portion of the whole charge payable in respect of the improvement shall be payable by such tenant or occupier during his tenancy or occupancy in respect of the probable improvement of the land included in his tenancy or occupation; but, except as aforesaid, every tenant or occupier who pays such charge shall be entitled to deduct the amount thereof from the rent payable by him to the landowner, and shall be allowed the same in account with him.

68 Rentcharges may be apportioned, or part of the land charged released therefrom. E+W

If at any time land charged under this Act, or under any other Act authorizing the creation of charges by the Commissioners, is occupied in separate farms or other holdings, or has become the property of separate owners, or the owner thereof is entitled thereto under separate titles or for distinct and separate interests, or is desirous to sell or dispose of part of such land, or part only of such land is subject to any mortgage or other incumbrance, or for any other reason it would be desirable that the charge should be apportioned or a part of the land charged released therefrom, the Commissioners may, with the consent of the landowner, or if the land has become the property of separate owners, or a part thereof is subject to any mortgage or incumbrance, then upon the application of any one of such owners, or of such mortgagee or incumbrancer, but in every case with due notice to the grantee or assignee of the charge, or the husband, guardian, tutor, curator, [^{F26}or receiver] of such grantee or assignee, if a married woman, infant [^{F26}or patient within the meaning of [^{F27}Part VII of the Mental Health Act 1983]] [^{F28}or person suffering from mental disorder within the meaning of the [^{F29}Mental Health (Scotland) Act 1984]] and to such other parties

Upholding improvements

And with regard to the upholding improvements under this Act, be it enacted as follows:

72 Improvements to be upheld and condition thereof certified if required.

So long as any land shall continue charged with any charge hereunder, the person for the time being bound to make the periodical payments of such charge shall uphold the improvements and works in respect of which such charge is made, and shall keep clear and open the outfalls and watercourses of all the drains (if any), and shall, if required either by the Commissioners or by any person who shall for the time being be interested in such charge under any assignment or mortgage thereof, once in every year certify to the Commissioners the state of such improvements and works, and of such outfalls and watercourses (if any); and if such person shall not so keep and uphold such improvements and works, and such outfalls and watercourses (if any), or shall fell, or cause or knowingly permit to be felled, except in proper thinning, any trees planted under the authority of this Act as an improvement, he shall be liable to an action on the case, in the nature of an action of waste, for the damage thereby occasioned, at the suit of any person entitled to any estate in remainder on reversion in such lands.

73 Power to enter on neighbouring lands for repair of works, making compensation.

Every person for the time being bound to make the periodical payments of any charge may from time to time, by himself, his engineers, surveyors, agents, servants, and workmen, enter upon any lands in, through, or upon which any of the works have been executed, to ascertain the condition of the works, and to maintain and repair the same, nevertheless paying to the person for the time being enabled by this Act to sell or grant any easement in such lands, in case the parties differ about the same, such compensation as shall be determined by two justices or the sheriff, as provided by the “^{M10}Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845,” or the “Lands Clauses^{M11} Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845,” for settlement by justices and sheriffs respectively of questions of disputed compensation: Provided, that as to any lands adjoining or near the land improved, to which the provisions of the^{M12}Land Drainage Act, 1847, and the^{M13}Land Drainage (Scotland) Act, 1847, and those of the third part of The^{M14}Land Drainage Act, 1861, are hereinbefore respectively made applicable, the powers of entry upon such lands for any of the purposes aforesaid shall be subject to and be regulated by the provisions of those Acts respectively.

75 Inclosure Commissioners may compel maintenance of improvements.

If it shall be represented to the Commissioners that the person for the time being bound to make periodical payments of any charge created under this or any other existing Act authorizing the advance of money for the improvement of land has neglected to uphold and maintain the improvements in respect of which the charge was executed, or any of them, the Commissioners may, upon security being given for such an amount as they may consider necessary to cover any expenses that may be incurred by them, cause an inspection of the works to be made by an assistant commissioner, engineer, or surveyor.

After such inspection, if the Commissioners are satisfied that the improvements have not been upheld and maintained, they shall cause notice to be given to the person bound to make the said periodical payments requiring him to execute the works necessary to uphold and maintain the same within three calendar months from the time of giving such notice.

If such works shall not be executed to the satisfaction of the Commissioners within such three months, they may cause such works as in their judgment shall be necessary to uphold and maintain such improvements to be executed by a person appointed by them.

The costs thereof, including the expenses of the assistant commissioner, engineer, or surveyor, shall be repaid by the person bound to make the said periodical payments to the person entitled to the charge, on request, and in default thereof the amount so certified may be recovered, with all expenses incidental to the recovery thereof, in the 76 Inclosure Commissioners may give relief from maintenance of improvements.

If it shall be represented to the Commissioners that it is not expedient or necessary that any works for the cost of which there shall be a subsisting charge, or any part of such works, should be upheld or maintained, the Commissioners may, on having deposited with them a sum, to be fixed by them, to cover all expenses, cause the said works to be inspected by an assistant commissioner, engineer, or surveyor.

If after such inspection and notice to the parties who were served with notice of the application to charge the land or their representatives, and such other persons, if any, as the Commissioners may direct, the Commissioners shall find and certify that it is not expedient or necessary that the works or any of them should be upheld or maintained, thereupon the person for the time being bound to make the said periodical payment shall be relieved from all liability in respect of the maintenance of the works referred to in the Commissioners certificate.

77 Admiralty may remove works abandoned or fallen into decay.

If any embankment or work constructed under the powers of this Act in, under, over, through, or across any tidal water or navigable river, or if any portion of any embankment or work which affects or may affect any such water or river, or the access thereto, shall be abandoned, or suffered to fall into disuse or decay, it shall be lawful for the Admiralty or the Board of Trade, as the case may require, to abate and remove the same, or such part or parts thereof as he or they may at any time or times deem fit and proper, and to restore the site thereof to its former condition, at the cost and charge of the landowner, the amount of which cost and charge shall be a debt due from the landowner to the Crown, and be recovered accordingly, with costs of suit.
