7 In conveyances of burgage property certain clauses may be inserted in the forms given in Schedule (B.) No. 2.

It shall not be necessary to insert in any conveyance of lands in Scotland held by burgage tenure a clause of obligation to infest, or a procuratory or clause of resignation; and every conveyance of such lands shall imply that the lands thereby conveyed are to be holden of Her Majesty in free burgage, for service of burgh used and wont; and in any conveyance of such lands in which all or any of the following clauses are necessarily or usually inserted, (videlicet,) a clause declaring the term of entry, a clause of obligation to free and relieve of ground annual, cess, annuity, and other public burdens, a clause of assignation of rents, a clause of assignation of writs and evidents, a clause of warrandice, and a clause of registration for preservation and execution, it shall be lawful and competent to insert all or any of such clauses in the form or as nearly as may be in the form No. 2. of schedule (B.) hereto annexed; and all or any of such clauses, if so inserted in any such conveyance, or in any similar conveyance dated after the thirtieth day of September one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, shall have the meaning and effect assigned to them in the eighth section of this Act, and shall be as valid, effectual, and operative to all intents and purposes as if they had been expressed in the fuller mode or form generally in use prior to the said thirtieth day of September one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven.

8 Import of clauses in schedule (B.) Nos. 1 & 2.

.....^{F8} the clause of assignation of writs and evidents in forms Nos. 1 and 2 of schedule (B.) hereto annexed shall, unless specially qualified, be held to import an absolute and unconditional assignation to such writs and evidents, and to all open procuratories, clauses, and precepts, if any, and as the case may be, therein contained, and to all unrecorded conveyances to which the disponent has right; and the clause of assignation of rents in these forms shall, unless specially qualified, be held to import an assignation to the rents to become due for the possession following the term of entry, according to the legal and not the conventional terms, unless in the case of forehand rents, in which case it shall be held to import an assignation to the rents payable at the conventional terms subsequent to the date of entry; and the clause of warrandice in these forms shall, unless specially qualified, be held to imply absolute warrandice as regards the lands and writs and evidents, and warrandice from fact and deed as regards the rents; and the clause of obligation to free and relieve from feu duties, casualties, and public burdens, in form No. 1 of schedule (B.) hereto annexed, shall, unless specially qualified, be held to import an obligation to relieve of all feu duties or other duties and services or casualties payable or prestable to the superior, and of all public, parochial, and local burdens due from or on account of the lands conveyed prior to the date of entry; and the clause of obligation to free and relieve from ground annuals, cess, annuity, and other public burdens, in form No. 2 of schedule (B.) hereto annexed, shall, unless specially qualified, be held to import an obligation to relieve of all ground annuals, cess, annuity, and other public, parochial, and local burdens, due from or on account of the lands conveyed prior to the date of entry; and the clause of consent to registration in these two forms shall, unless specially qualified, have the meaning and import and effect assigned to them in the one hundred and thirty-eighth section of this Act.

9 Conditions of entail may, in conveyances of entailed lands, be inserted by reference merely.

It shall not be necessary, in any conveyance or deed of or relating to lands held under a deed of entail, or of or relating to lands obtained by excambion in exchange for lands held under any deed of entail, or of or relating to lands purchased or acquired for the purpose of being added to any estate held under any deed of entail, or entailed on the heirs and under the conditions specified in any deed of entail, to insert the destination of heirs, or the conditions, provisions, and prohibitory, irritant, and resolute clauses, or clause authorizing registration in the register of tailzies, contained in any such deed of entail, provided the same shall in such conveyance or deed be specially referred to, as set forth at full length in such deed of entail recorded in the register of tailzies, if the same shall have been so recorded, or as set forth at full length in any conveyance or deed recorded in the appropriate register of sasines and forming part of the progress of title deeds of the said lands held under such deed of entail, such reference being made, as nearly as may be, in the terms set forth in schedule (C.) hereto annexed; and the reference to such destination, or to such conditions, provisions, and prohibitory, irritant, and resolute clauses, or clause authorizing registration in the register of tailzies, if so made in any such conveyance or deed, whether dated prior or subsequent to the commencement of this Act, shall be equivalent to the full insertion thereof, and shall, to all intents and in all questions whatever, whether inter haeredes or with third parties, have the same legal effect as if the same had been inserted exactly as they are expressed in the recorded deed of entail, conveyance, or deed referred to, notwithstanding any law or practice to the contrary, or any injunction to the contrary contained in such deed of entail, or any enactments or provisions to the contrary contained in the Entail Act 1685, or in any other Act or Acts of the Parliament of Scotland or Great Britain, or of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, now in force.

10 Real burdens may be referred to as already in the register of sasines.

Where lands are or shall hereafter be held under any real burdens or conditions or provisions or limitations whatsoever appointed to be fully inserted in the investitures of such lands, it shall, notwithstanding such appointment, and notwithstanding any law or practice to the contrary, not be necessary in any conveyance or deed of or relating to such lands to insert such real burdens or conditions or provisions or limitations, provided the same shall in such conveyance or deed be specially referred to as set forth at full length in the conveyance or deed of or relating to such lands recorded in the appropriate register of sasines wherein the same were first inserted, or in any such conveyance or deed of subsequent date recorded as aforesaid, and forming part of the progress of titles of the said lands, such reference being made in the terms or as nearly as may be in the terms set forth in schedule (D.) hereto annexed; and the reference to such real burdens or conditions or provisions or limitations if so made in any such conveyance or deed, whether dated prior or subsequent to the commencement of this Act, shall be held to be equivalent to the full insertion thereof, and shall, to all intents and in all questions whatever, whether with the disponent or superior or third parties, have the same legal effect as if the same had been inserted exactly as they are expressed in the recorded conveyance or deed referred to, notwithstanding any law or practice or Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary.

12 Clause directing part of conveyance to be recorded.

Immediately before the testing clause of any conveyance of lands, it shall be competent to insert a clause of direction, in or as nearly as may be in the form No. 1 of schedule (F.) hereto annexed, specifying the part or parts of the conveyance which the grantor thereof desires to be recorded in the register of sasines; and when such clause is so inserted in any conveyance, whether dated before or after the commencement of this Act, and with a warrant of registration thereon, in which express reference is made to such clause of direction (such warrant being in the form as nearly as may be of No. 2 of schedule (F.) hereto annexed), is presented to the keeper of the appropriate register of sasines for registration, such keeper shall record such part or parts only, together with the clause of direction and the testing clause and warrant of registration; and in the absence of such express reference in the warrant of registration as aforesaid, such conveyance shall be engrossed in the register as if it had contained no clause of direction; and the recording of such part or parts of the conveyance, together with the clause of direction, and the testing clause, and the warrant of registration, as before provided, shall have the same legal effect as if, at the date of such recording, a notarial instrument containing such part or parts of the conveyance had been duly expedite and recorded in the appropriate register of sasines in favour of the person on whose behalf the conveyance is presented: Provided that, notwithstanding such clause of direction, it shall be competent for the person entitled to present the conveyance for registration to record the whole conveyance, or to expedite and record a notarial instrument thereon, as after provided, in the same manner as if the conveyance had contained no such clause of direction; and where such notarial instrument shall be expedite no part or parts of the conveyance directed to be recorded shall be omitted from such instrument.

13 Several lands conveyed by the same deed may be comprehended under one general name.

Where several lands are comprehended in one conveyance in favour of the same person or persons, it shall be competent to insert a clause in the conveyance, declaring that the whole lands conveyed and therein particularly described shall be designed and known in future by one general name to be therein specified; and on the conveyance containing such clause, whether dated before or after the commencement of this Act, or on an instrument following thereon, whether dated before or after the commencement of this Act, and containing such particular description and clause, being duly recorded in the appropriate register of sasines, it shall be competent in all subsequent conveyances and deeds and discharges, of or relating to such several lands, to use the general name specified in such clause as the name of the several 14 Certain clauses in entails no longer necessary.

Where a deed of entail contains an express clause authorizing registration of the deed in the register of tailzies, it shall not be necessary to insert clauses of prohibition against alienation, contracting debt, and altering the order of succession, and irritant and resolutive clauses, or any of them; and such clause of registration contained in any deed of entail of lands not held by burgage tenure dated on or after the first day of October one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, or of lands held by burgage tenure dated on or after the tenth day of October one thousand eight hundred and sixty, shall have in every respect the same operation and effect as if such clauses of prohibition, and such irritant and resolutive clauses, had been inserted in such deed of entail, any law or practice to the contrary notwithstanding.

15 Instrument of sasine no longer necessary, but conveyance may be recorded instead.

It shall not be necessary towards obtaining infeftment in land to expedite and record in the case of lands not held by burgage tenure an instrument of sasine, or, in the case of lands held by burgage tenure, an instrument of resignation and sasine, on any conveyance or deed of or relating to such lands, but it shall be competent and sufficient for the person or persons in whose favour the conveyance or deed has been or shall be granted or conceived, instead of expediting and recording such instrument of sasine or of resignation and sasine, to record the conveyance or deed itself in the appropriate register of sasines; and the conveyance or deed being presented for registration in such register, with a warrant of registration thereon, in or as nearly as may be in the form No. 1. of schedule (H.) hereto annexed, and being so recorded along with such warrant, shall have the same legal force and effect in all respects as if the conveyance or deed so recorded had been followed by an instrument of sasine in the case of lands not held by burgage tenure, or, in the case of lands held by burgage tenure, by an instrument of resignation and sasine expedite in favour of the person on whose behalf the conveyance or deed is presented for registration, and recorded in the appropriate register of sasines at the date of recording the said conveyance or deed; and where it is desired to give investiture propriis manibus, it shall be competent for the person in 18 Instrument of resignation ad remanentiam unnecessary, but in place thereof conveyance in favour of superior may be recorded.

It shall not be necessary to expedite and record an instrument of resignation ad remanentiam on any procuratory of resignation ad remanentiam, or on any conveyance containing an express clause of resignation ad remanentiam, but it shall be competent and sufficient for the superior in whose favour the resignation under such procuratory or conveyance is authorized to be made to record in the appropriate register of sasines such procuratory or conveyance, with a warrant of registration thereon in the form, or as nearly as may be in the form No. 1 of schedule (H.) hereto annexed, or to expedite and record a notarial instrument as nearly as may be in the form of schedule (J.) hereto annexed; and such procuratory or conveyance and warrant or such notarial instrument, being so recorded, shall have the same effect as if, at the date of such recording, an instrument of resignation ad remanentiam in favour of the party on whose behalf the same is so recorded had been expedite on such procuratory or conveyance, and had been recorded in the appropriate register of sasines: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall prevent an instrument of resignation ad remanentiam being expedite and recorded on a conveyance granted prior to the first day of October one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, and containing a clause of resignation in the form authorized by the Act of the tenth and eleventh Victoria, chapter forty-eight; and that all instruments of resignation ad remanentiam may be in or as nearly as may be in the form of schedule (K.) hereto annexed; and when in such form, whether expedite before or after the commencement of this Act, the same may, with warrant of registration thereon, be recorded in the appropriate register of sasines at any time during the life of the party in whose favour the resignation is made, and the date of presentment and entry set forth on any instrument of resignation in such form by the keeper of the register shall be the date of the resignation and of the instrument.

[^{F11}19 Notarial instruments in favour of general disponees.

Where a person shall have granted or shall grant a general disposition of his lands, whether by conveyance mortis causa or inter vivos, or by a testamentary deed or writing within the sense and meaning of the twentieth and twenty-first sections of this Act, and whether such general disposition shall extend to the whole lands belonging to the grantor, or be limited to particular lands belonging to him, with or without full description of such lands, and whether such general disposition shall contain or shall not contain a procuratory or clause of resignation, or a precept of sasine, or an obligation to infeft, or a clause expressing the manner of holding, it shall be competent to the grantee under such general disposition to expedite and record in the appropriate register of sasines a notarial instrument, in or as nearly as may be in the form of schedule (L.) hereto annexed; and on such notarial instrument or any similar notarial instrument expedite in virtue of any Act of Parliament hereby repealed being so recorded, such grantee shall be in all respects in the same position as if a conveyance of the lands contained in such notarial instrument had been executed in his favour by the grantor of the general disposition . . . ^{F12}, and as if such conveyance had been followed, . . . ^{F12} by an instrument of sasine of the said lands in favour of such grantee, . . . ^{F12} expedite and recorded in the appropriate register of sasines at the date of recording such notarial instrument: Provided always, that where such notarial instrument shall be expedite by a person other than the original grantee under such general disposition, it shall set forth the title or series of titles by which the person in whose favour it is expedite acquired right to such general disposition, and the nature of his right.]

64 Crown writs to be obtained by lodging a draft thereof and note along with the title deeds.

Any person seeking to obtain a Crown writ shall lodge or cause to be lodged in the office of the presenter of signatures a draft of the proposed writ, as prepared by his agent, being a writer to the signet, whose signature shall be endorsed thereon, together with a short note, in the form, or as nearly as may be in the form, of schedule (S.) hereto annexed, praying for a Crown writ in terms of the said draft; and the date of lodging such note shall be marked thereon by the presenter of signatures or his clerk; and along with such note and draft there shall be lodged the last Crown writ and retour or decree of service of the lands, and all the title deeds of the lands subsequent thereto, together with evidence of the valued rent when necessary, and an inventory and brief of the titles, according to the practice heretofore in use.

65 Draft Crown writ to be revised.

The draft Crown writ so lodged shall be forthwith revised by the presenter of signatures, who shall require the attendance of the agent of the person applying for the writ for the purpose of receiving his explanations; and the presenter of signatures shall thereafter proceed with the revision of the said draft, making such alterations and corrections as are necessary; and he shall, after his final revisal of such draft, authenticate each page thereof, and the several alterations and corrections thereon, if any, with his initials, and shall mark on such draft that the same has been revised by him, and also the date when such revisal was completed; and the fees on signatures payable prior to the first day of October one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven to the presenter of signatures shall be chargeable on the draft writ to be lodged and revised as aforesaid, and all other fees payable prior to that date to the officers of Exchequer on signature shall cease and determine.

66 Rectification of mistakes in former titles.

If it shall appear that any mistake has occurred in the terms of the last Crown writ or retour or decree of service, to the prejudice of the Crown, the person applying for the writ shall further, on requisition made to him or his agent to that effect, by order of the presenter of signatures, lodge the prior title deeds of the said lands, and any other title deeds of and concerning the same, in so far as such title deeds may be in his possession or at his command, and in so far as the same may be necessary for the due revisal of the said draft on behalf of the Crown, and for the rectification of such mistake, which may be rectified accordingly; and, on the other hand, if the vassal shall allege any mistake to have occurred in the terms of the last Crown writ or retour or decree of service to his prejudice, the person applying for the writ shall be entitled, without such requisition, to lodge a note explaining the alleged mistake, and produce the prior titles of the said lands, and any other title deeds or other deeds of and concerning the same, in so far as these may be necessary for the due revisal of the said draft and the rectification of such mistake, which may be rectified accordingly; but no such rectification shall in either case be allowed, nor the draft be held as finally revised or authenticated as such, until the same shall have been reported by the presenter of signatures to and approved of by the Lord Ordinary in Exchequer causes appointed in terms of the ^{M10}Exchequer Court (Scotland) Act 1856.

74 Objections, if any, to draft Crown writ to be by a note.

It shall be lawful for the person applying for the Crown writ, if dissatisfied with the draft revised as aforesaid, to state objections thereto or against the amount of duties and composition thereon marked as payable; and such objections shall be set forth in a short written note of objections, without argument, to be lodged in the office of the presenter of signatures, subscribed by the agent of such person; and the date of lodging such note of objections shall be marked thereon by the presenter of signatures or his clerk.

75 Objections, how to be disposed of.

Where any note of objections shall be so lodged, such note shall, together with the whole other proceedings, be laid before the said Lord Ordinary in Exchequer causes, and the said Lord Ordinary shall hear the person so objecting, by himself, his counsel or his agent, being a writer to the signet, and shall also hear any report or statement by the presenter of signatures; and wherever it shall appear to the said Lord Ordinary that the said objections should to any extent receive effect he shall cause such alterations and corrections as shall appear to him proper, either with reference to the terms of the said draft, or to the amount of duties or other payments marked thereon as payable, to be made on such draft, or to be expressed in a separate paper marked as relative thereto, and shall authenticate such draft and relative paper with his signature; and the said Lord Ordinary shall at the same time pronounce a judgment or deliverance, to be written on the note of objections, appointing the writ as so altered and corrected, to be prepared and executed; and the judgment or deliverance so pronounced shall form a valid and sufficient warrant for the preparation in Chancery of the writ, as altered and corrected.

105 Owner may in such case apply to Lord Ordinary on Bills to authorize application for an entry by the Crown or mediate over superior as in vice of the recusant superior.

If in the case aforesaid the annual reddendo shall exceed in value or amount the sum of five pounds sterling, or, in the option of the said heir, disponee, adjudger, or other party, whether the said annual reddendo shall exceed the said sum of five pounds sterling or not, it shall be lawful for such heir, disponee, adjudger, or other party to present a petition to the Lord Ordinary on the Bills, in the form or as nearly as may be in the form of No. 1. of schedule (Y.) hereto annexed, praying for warrant and decree as there set forth, and the Lord Ordinary shall pronounce an order for service, in the terms or as nearly as may be in the terms of the interlocutor given in No. 2. of schedule (Y.) hereto annexed; and if after such service and expiration of the days mentioned in such order of service such person shall not comply with the demand of the petition by completing his title and granting entry to such petitioner as aforesaid, or shall not show reasonable cause to the Lord Ordinary why he delays or refuses so to do, he shall, for himself and his heirs, whether of line, conquest, taillie, or provision, forfeit and amit all right to the dues and casualties payable on the entry of such petitioner, who shall also be entitled to retain his feu duties or other annual prestations until fully paid and indemnified for all the expenses of the petition and procedure thereon, and all the expenses of completing his title in terms of this Act; and the Lord Ordinary shall pronounce interim decree to that effect, and grant interim warrant for such petitioner applying for and obtaining an entry from the Crown, or, in the option of the petitioner, from the mediate over superior as acting in the vice of such superior, all in the form or as nearly as may be in the form of No. 3. of schedule (Y.) hereto annexed; and any petitioner who shall obtain such decree under this Act, or who shall have obtained a similar decree under a petition presented in virtue of any of the Acts of Parliament hereby repealed, shall be entitled forthwith to lodge, along with an extract of the said decree, in the office of the presenter of signatures, a draft of a proposed writ from the Crown, as in vice of such superior, with a short note in terms of this Act; and such writ, for which the said extract decree shall be a sufficient warrant may be in or as nearly as may be in one or other of the forms given in schedule (Z.) hereunto annexed, and shall be as effectual as if granted by the mediate superior of the feu duly infest in the superiority; and, when there is a mediate over superior duly infest, such extract decree shall, in the option of the petitioner, be directed against such mediate over superior, and shall be a sufficient warrant for letters of horning to charge such mediate over superior to enter the petitioner, by granting a valid writ as in vice of such superior; and after completion of his title the petitioner shall be entitled, if he thinks fit, to lodge, as part of the proceedings under his petition, an account of the expenses of that process, and of completing his title, and the Lord Ordinary shall, if required on the part of such petitioner, modify the amount thereof, and decern for retention as aforesaid, in the form of No. 4. of schedule (Y.) hereto annexed.

106 Lands to be held temporarily of the Crown or mediate superior.

The lands and others contained in such writ to be so obtained shall be holden of the Crown, or the mediate over superior, as in the vice of the unentered immediate superior, while and so long as he and his successors, the immediate superiors thereof, shall remain unentered, and thereafter until a new entry in favour of the vassal or his successors shall become requisite.

107 The party in right of the superiority may lodge a minute tendering relinquishment of his right, and if accepted by the petitioner the Lord Ordinary may interpose his authority.

When a petition shall be presented as aforesaid praying for warrant of service and for decree against any person so having a right to the superiority of any lands, and not having completed his feudal title thereto, whether the annual reddendo shall be above or below the value or amount of five pounds sterling, it shall be competent for him, at any time before expiration of the days of intimation, or before interim decree shall have been extracted as aforesaid, to lodge, as part of the proceedings under such petition, a minute, signed by himself or by his mandatory or agent duly authorized by him in writing, stating that he tenders relinquishment of the right of superiority which he holds on apparenancy in favour of the petitioner and his heirs and successors, and such minute shall be in the form or as nearly as may be in the form No. 1. of schedule (BB.) hereto annexed; and if the petitioner shall, by himself or his counsel or agent, subscribe or endorse upon such minute an acceptance of the same in the form or as nearly as may be in the form No. 2. of schedule (BB.) hereto annexed, the Lord Ordinary is hereby authorized and required, on the petitioner's motion, to interpose his authority to such minute and acceptance, and to decern and declare the right of superiority thus relinquished to be extinguished, to the effect of making the petitioner and his successors in the said lands hold the lands as vassals immediately of and under the superior of the relinquished superiority in permanency and by the tenure and for the reddendo by and for which such relinquished superiority was held, the decree so to be pronounced to be in the form or as nearly as may be in the form No. 3. of schedule (BB.) hereto annexed; and the said decree, when extracted, and recorded in the appropriate register of sasines, shall entitle the petitioner and his foresaids to apply for an entry to such superior accordingly as his immediate superior; and in the renewed investiture to be obtained by the petitioner under the authority of the said decree, the tenendas and reddendo contained in the title deeds of the relinquished superiority shall be inserted in room of those contained in the investiture of the petitioner's predecessor or author, and the lands shall be held by himself and his successors, according to the tenure of the relinquished superiority, in all time thereafter; and the writ in the petitioner's favour may be expressed in one or other of the forms given in schedule (AA.) hitherto annexed; but nothing herein contained shall be held as rendering it imperative on the petitioner to accept of the offered relinquishment, and to take the place of his immediate superior, it being hereby provided that if he prefers it he shall be entitled to refuse the same, and to complete his title by entry from the Crown, or the mediate over superior, as in the vice of his immediate superior.

108 Over superior's rights not to be extended or affected.

The investiture thus completed upon the forfeiture of such heir apparent, or upon the relinquishment of the superiority by such heir apparent, and acceptance by the petitioner, shall in all respects, and to all intents and purposes, be as effectual as if such apparent heir had completed his titles to the superiority, and thereafter conveyed the same to the petitioner, and the latter, after completing his titles under the over superior, had resigned ad remanentiam in his own hands: Provided always, that the title so completed shall not in any respect extend the interests of such over superior, and that he shall be entitled to no more than the casualties, whether taxed or untaxed, to which he would have been entitled if such apparent heir had remained his vassal.

109 Vassal obtaining or accepting forfeiture or relinquishment of superiority to be liable for its value, but forfeiture, &c. not to infer representation.

In the case of such forfeiture or relinquishment of superiority by any apparent heir in manner above mentioned, the vassal obtaining or accepting the same, and making up titles under the over superior, shall be liable, but subject always to retention of expenses as aforesaid, for the value of the said superiority to the said heir apparent, or any person in his right, or having interest, as accords of law; and such forfeiture or relinquishment by such heir apparent shall not infer a passive representation on his part, nor any liability for the debts of the person last infest therein, beyond the price, if any, which he may receive for such forfeiture or relinquishment; and the vassal, if he accepts thereof, shall not be accountable in any case for more than the value or price of the forfeited or relinquished right.

110 Mode of relinquishing superiorities.

In order to facilitate still further the extinguishing of mid-superiorities not defeasible by the vassal, it shall be competent to any subject superior, whether himself entered with his superior or not, and whatever the annual value of the reddendo may be, to relinquish his right of superiority in favour of his immediate vassal, by granting a deed of relinquishment in the form or as nearly as may be in the form of No. 1. of schedule (CC.) hereto annexed; and on the deed of relinquishment being accepted by the vassal, by an acceptance written on such deed in the form or as nearly as may be in the form No. 2. of schedule (CC.) hereto annexed, and being followed by a writ of investiture by the over superior as herein-after provided, also written upon the deed of relinquishment, and on such deed, with the acceptance and writ of investiture written thereon, whether dated prior or subsequent to the commencement of this Act, and warrant of registration on behalf of the vassal, also written thereon, being thereafter recorded in the appropriate register of sasines, the superiority so relinquished shall be held to be extinguished, and the vassal and his successors in the lands shall hold the same as immediate vassals of the over superior by the tenure and for the reddendo by and for which such relinquished superiority was held, and the vassal and his foresaids shall be entitled to apply for an entry to such over superior accordingly as his immediate superior; and such relinquishment by a superior who shall not have completed his title to the superiority relinquished shall not infer a passive representation on his part, nor any liability for the debts of the person last infest therein, beyond the price or consideration, if any, which he may receive for such relinquishment.

111 Investiture by over superior.

On the application of the vassal in the relinquished superiority, and on production by him of the deed of relinquishment, and acceptance thereof, whether dated prior or subsequent to the commencement of this Act, and on his paying or tendering such duties and casualties as may be exigible by the over superior, the over superior shall be bound to receive the vassal as his immediate vassal by writ of investiture in or as nearly as may be in the form of No. 3. of schedule (CC.), to be written on the deed of relinquishment, and the tenendas and reddendo contained in the title deeds of the relinquished superiority shall be inserted therein in room of those contained in the former investiture held under the relinquished superiority; and where the lands are held of the Crown, such writ of investiture shall be obtained from Chancery, in the same manner as is herein-before directed in regard to confirmations written on the deeds confirmed: Provided always, that the party applying for such writ of investiture shall lodge or cause to be lodged in the office of the presenter of signatures a draft of the proposed writ, in the same manner as when a Crown writ is applied for under the provisions of this Act; and the deed of relinquishment with the acceptance thereon shall be officially transmitted to the Director of Chancery, and the Crown writ of investiture engrossed thereon, and recorded in the same manner in which Crown writs are to be recorded, and shall thereafter be delivered to the vassal or his agent on payment of the same fees as are now payable for recording a writ or charter in Chancery; and the investiture completed upon such relinquishment of the superiority shall be as effectual as if the grantor of the deed of relinquishment had completed his title to the superiority, and had thereafter conveyed the same to the vassal, and the latter, after having completed his titles under the over superior, had resigned ad remanentiam in his own hands: Provided always, that the investiture so completed shall not in any respect extend the rights or interests of such over superior, and that he shall be entitled to no more than the duties and casualties, taxed or untaxed, to which he would have been entitled if the grantor of the deed of relinquishment had remained or entered as his vassal.

112 Applications of price of entailed superiorities.

Where the right of superiority, or the dues and casualties payable in respect thereof, forfeited or relinquished under the provisions of this Act, shall form part of an estate held under a deed of strict entail, such forfeiture or relinquishment shall not operate as a contravention of such entail, anything contained in the deed of entail or any Act of Parliament notwithstanding; and the price agreed to be paid for such superiority so forfeited or relinquished, if any, shall be consigned by the vassal in one of the chartered banks in Scotland, subject to the orders of the Court of Session, and shall be applicable and applied in such and the like manner and to such and the like purposes as purchase money or compensation coming to parties having limited interests is made applicable, under the ^{M13}Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act 1845, or any Act altering or amending the same, or under the ^{M14}Entail Amendment Act 1848 or under the ^{M15}Entail Amendment Act 1853; and for that purpose it shall be competent to the heir of entail in possession to present a summary petition to the Court of Session, praying to have the price so applied, and such petition shall set forth the names, designations, and places of abode of those heirs of entail whose consents would be required to the execution of an instrument of disentail; and on such petition being served on such parties, and being intimated in the minute book and on the walls in common form, it shall be competent for the Court to direct the price to be applied to such of the said purposes as may appear to them to be most expedient: Provided always, that where the sums agreed to be paid for all the superiorities which form part of an entailed estate shall not in all exceed the sum of two hundred pounds, such sum shall belong to the heir in possession, and the Court shall direct such sums to be paid to him: Provided also, that the price of such superiorities may be applied by the heir in possession to such purposes and in such manner as may be authorized by any private Act of Parliament authorizing the sale of the entailed estate or any portion thereof, and the application of the price thereof; and where the lands of which the superiority is so forfeited or relinquished shall be held by the vassal under a deed of strict entail, the vassal in such lands shall be entitled and he is hereby authorized to grant a bond and disposition in security over the entailed estate for the full amount of the price paid for the forfeited or relinquished superiority, together with all expenses incurred in the relative proceedings, including the estimated expense of such bond and disposition in security; and his granting such bond and disposition in security shall not operate as a contravention of such entail, anything contained in the deed of entail or any Act of Parliament notwithstanding: Provided always, that such bond and disposition in security shall be granted with the consent of those heirs of 120 Securities may be registered during lifetime of grantee, or title completed after his death.

Heritable securities, whether dated before or after the commencement of this Act, may be registered in the appropriate register of sasines at any time during the lifetime of the grantee, and shall in competition be preferred according to the date of the registration thereof: Provided always, that if an heritable security has not been so registered in the lifetime of the grantee, such heritable security shall be as full and sufficient warrant for completion of the title in favour of the party having right thereto as if it had been a bond and disposition in security, containing precept of sasine and other clauses, in the ordinary form in use prior to the thirtieth day of September one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, which title may be completed as after provided, or by service or notarial instrument, as the circumstances of the case may require.

121 Sale carried through in terms of this Act to be valid to the purchaser.

Any sale duly carried through in terms of the heritable security and of this Act, or partly in terms of any Act now in force and partly in terms of this Act if the proceedings shall have been begun before the commencement of this Act, shall be as valid and effectual to the purchaser as if made by the grantor of the security himself, and that whether the grantor shall have died before or after such sale, and without the necessity of confirmation by him or his successors, and notwithstanding that the party debtor in the security and in right of the lands at the time shall be in pupillarity or minority, or subject to any legal incapacity: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be held to affect or prejudice the obligation of the grantor and his successors to execute, or the right of the creditor or purchaser to require the grantor and his successors to execute, any deed or deeds which, independently of this enactment, would at common law be necessary for rendering the sale effectual, or otherwise completing in due form the titles of such purchaser.

156 Short form of letters of inhibition.

Letters of inhibition may be in the form as nearly as may be of the schedule (QQ.) to this Act annexed; and letters of inhibition in such form shall have all the like force and effect as letters of inhibition in the form in use at the passing of this Act.

157 No inhibition to have effect against acquirenda, unless in case of heir under entail or other indefeasible title.

No inhibition to be recorded from and after the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight shall have any force or effect as against any lands to be acquired by the person or persons against whom such inhibition is used after the date of recording such inhibition, or of recording the previous notice thereof prescribed by this Act, as the case may be: Provided always, that where such inhibition is used against a person or persons who shall thereafter succeed to any lands which, at the date of recording the inhibition or previous notice thereof, as the case may be, were destined to such person or persons by a deed of entail, or by a similar indefeasible title, then and in that case such inhibition shall affect the said person or persons in so far as regards the lands so destined, and to which he or they shall succeed as aforesaid, but no further.

158 Inhibitions on depending summons to be recalled on petition to Lord Ordinary.

It shall be competent to the Lord Ordinary in the Court of Session before whom any summons containing warrant for inhibition shall be enrolled as judge therein, or before whom any action on the dependence whereof letters of inhibition have been executed, has been or shall be enrolled as judge therein, and to the Lord Ordinary on the Bills in time of vacation, on the application of the defender or debtor by petition duly intimated to the creditor or pursuer, to which answers may be ordered, to recall or restrict such inhibition on caution, or without caution, and dispose of the question of expenses, as shall appear just: Provided that his judgment shall be subject to the review of the Court by a reclaiming note duly lodged within ten days from the date thereof.
