

Defence Act 1842

1842 CHAPTER 94

II All other Acts touching the Defence of the Realm and the Ordnance Department repealed.

And be it enacted, That all other Acts heretofore passed relating to Lands, Hereditaments, or other Property purchased, taken, held, used, or occupied for the Defence and Security of the Realm, or relating to the Barrack, or the Ordnance Department throughout the United Kingdom, so far as the same are inconsistent with or repugnant to the Powers and Provisions of this Act, but not further or otherwise, shall be and the same are hereby repealed.