

Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1887

1887 CHAPTER 35

30 Procurator of place of second diet may defend at both diets

In all cases a procurator who is entitled to conduct proceedings in the courts of the district of the second diet, shall be entitled to appear at the first diet, and to conduct the defence, although he may not be entitled to conduct other law business in the locality of the first diet.