

Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1887

1887 CHAPTER 35

7 Guilty, actor or art and part, unnecessary

It shall not be necessary to state that a person accused is " guilty, actor or art and part," in any indictment according to the existing practice, but such charge shall be implied in all indictments.