[<sup>F1</sup> Power to order certain provisions to be made for public safety.

- (1) The Board of Trade may from time to time order a railway company to do, within a time limited by the order, and subject to any exceptions or modifications allowed by the order, any of the following things:—
- (a) To adopt the block system on all or any of their railways open for the public conveyance of passengers;
  - (b) To provide for the interlocking of points and signals on or in connexion with all or any of such railways;
  - (c) To provide for and use on all their trains carrying passengers continuous brakes complying with the following requirements, namely:—
    - (i) The brake must be instantaneous in action, and capable of being applied by the engine-driver and guards;
    - (ii) The brake must be self-applying in the event of any failure in the continuity of its action;
    - (iii) The brake must be capable of being applied to every vehicle of the train, whether carrying passengers or not;
    - (iv) The brake must be in regular use in daily working;
    - (v) The materials of the brake must be of a durable character, and easily maintained and kept in order.

In making any order under this section the Board of Trade shall have regard to the nature and extent of the traffic on the railway, and shall, before making any such order, hear any company or person whom the Board of Trade may consider entitled to be heard.]

is paid, or pay his fare from the place whence he started, or give the officer or servant his name and address; and in case of default shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding [<sup>F4</sup>level 2 on the standard scale].

(2) If a passenger having failed either to produce, or if requested to deliver up, a ticket showing that his fare is paid, or to pay his fare, refuses [<sup>F5</sup>or fails] on request by an officer or servant of a railway company, to give his name and address, any officer of the company <sup>F6</sup>... may detain him until he can be conveniently brought before some justice or otherwise discharged by due course of law.

(3) If any person—

- (a) Travels or attempts to travel on a railway without having previously paid his fare, and with intent to avoid payment thereof; or
- (b) Having paid his fare for a certain distance, knowingly and wilfully proceeds by train beyond that distance without previously paying the additional fare for the additional distance, and with intent to avoid payment thereof; or
- (c) Having failed to pay his fare, gives in reply to a request by an officer of a railway company a false name or address, he shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding [<sup>F7</sup>level 3 on the standard scale], or, in the case of a second or subsequent offence, either to a fine not exceeding [<sup>F7</sup>level 3 on the standard scale], or in the discretion of the court to imprisonment for a term not exceeding [<sup>F8</sup>three months].

(4) The liability of an offender to punishment under this section shall not prejudice the recovery of any fare payable by him.

- (a) “railway company” includes an operator of a train, and
- (b) “operator”, in relation to a train, means the person having the management of that train for the time being.]
