

Life Assurance Companies (Payment Into Court) Act 1896

1896 CHAPTER 8 59 and 60 Vict

2 Interpretation.

In this Act—

The expression “life assurance company” means any corporation, company, or society carrying on the business of life assurance, not being a society registered under the Acts relating to friendly societies;

The expression “life policy” includes any policy not foreign to the business of life assurance.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Life Assurance Companies (Payment Into Court) Act 1896, Section 2.