

Public Health (Scotland) Act 1897

1897 CHAPTER 38

PART II

SANITARY PROVISIONS.

Offensive Trades.

35 and make byelaws as to pigstyes.

The local authority may make byelaws regulating the construction of pigstyes, the places in which they may be erected, and the mode of cleansing them at proper intervals so as to prevent them from becoming a nuisance or dangerous to public health.