

Companies Clauses Consolidation Act 1845

1845 CHAPTER 16 8 and 9 Vict

Access to special Act

And with respect to the provision to be made for affording access to the special Act by all parties interested, be it enacted as follows:

161 Copies of special Act to be kept and deposited, and allowed to be inspected.

The company shall, at all times after the expiration of six months after the passing of the special Act, keep in their principal office of business a copy of the special Act, printed by the printers to her Majesty, or some of them; and where the undertaking shall be a railway, canal, or other like undertaking, the works of which shall not be confined to one town or place shall also, within the space of such six months, [^{F1}deposit in the office of each of the clerks of the peace of the several counties into which the works shall extend][^{F1}deposit in the office of the chief clerk], and in the office of the town clerk of every burgh or city into which or within one mile of which the works shall extend, a copy of such special Act, so printed as aforesaid; and the said clerks of the peace and town clerks shall receive, and they and the company respectively shall retain, the said copies of the special Act, and shall permit all persons interested to inspect the same, and make extracts or copies therefrom, in the like manner and upon the like terms and under the like penalty for default as is provided in the case of certain plans and sections by the ^{M1}[^{F2}Local Government Act 1972].
