

Game (Scotland) Act 1832 (repealed)

CHAPTER 68

GAME (SCOTLAND) ACT 1832 (REPEALED)

- [1.] Penalty on persons trespassing in the day-time upon lands in search of game. Proviso.
- 2 Such trespassers may be required to quit the land, and to give their names and abodes; and in case of refusal may be arrested. Penalty. Party arrested must be discharged, unless brought before a justice within 12 hours.
- 3 What to be deemed day-time.
- 4 The provisions as to trespassers not to apply to persons hunting, &c.
- 5 Game may be taken from trespassers not delivering up the same when demanded.
- 6 Penalty on Aggressors for assaulting any one executing this Act.
- 7 Application of penalties.
- 8 Justices to fix the time for payment of penalties. Imprisonment for non-payment.
- 9 .....
- 10 .....
- 11 As to Prosecutions for Offences.
- 12 Prosecutor not required to prove a negative.
- 13—15 .....
- 16 This Act not to preclude actions for trespass; but no double proceedings shall be had for the same trespass.
- 17 Venue. Notice of Action. Tender of Amends.
- 18 Limits of Act.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Game (Scotland) Act 1832 (repealed).