

ANNO SECUNDO & TERTIO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

Cap. 33.

An Act for altering and amending certain Acts relating to the Churches of Saint Mark, Saint Luke, and Saint Michael, in the Borough of Liverpool. [4th July 1839.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Fifty-sixth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for establishing a new Church called the Church of Saint Mark, situate in the Town and Parish of Liverpool in the County Palatine of Lancaster, a new Church or Chapel theretofore erected and built within the Limits of the Parish of Liverpool, at the Expence of several Persons, Inhabitants of the Town of Liverpool, on a Site then lately consecrated, and called or known by the Name of "The Church of Saint Mark," was duly established as a Church, and Marriages were permitted to be solemnized therein, and certain Rules and Regulations were made respecting the Pews and Seats therein, and for the better Management of the Affairs thereof; and it was by the said Act enacted, that Richard Blacow Clerk, Master of Arts, should be the first Minister of the same Church or Chapel, and that upon the Death, Resignation, and Deprivation or Avoidance of the said Richard Blacow, or upon his ceasing to be Minister of the said Church

Church or Chapel, the Two next Presentations should be vested in the Commissioners and Trustees appointed and acting under the same Act, to be exercised and enjoyed by them in the Manner therein mentioned, and that from and after the Time when such Right of Nomination of a Minister by the said Commissioners and Trustees should have expired, then the Right of Presentation or Nomination of the Minister or Ministers should be vested in the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common Council of Liverpool aforesaid, and their Successors; and it was further enacted, that the said Richard Blacow, and each succeeding Minister during the Continuance of such First Three Turns, should appoint and keep a Curate or Second Minister to officiate in the said Church or Chapel, to whom should be given an annual Stipend of not less than One hundred Pounds, and that after the Expiration of the said Three Turns it should be lawful for the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common Council of Liverpool aforesaid to nominate and present, under their Common Seal, Two proper Persons to be the Ministers of the said Church, and also in like Manner to nominate and appoint a Minister on every subsequent Vacancy, with such proportionate Stipends as the said Common Council should think proper, provided the same did not together exceed Three hundred and fifty Pounds per Annum (including One hundred Pounds as the annual Value of the Pews set apart for the Minister as therein mentioned), to be raised or provided out of the Rents of Pews or Seats as therein-after directed: And whereas the said Richard Blacow continues to be the Minister of the said Church: And whereas, after Presentation shall have been made by the Commissioners and Trustees on the Two next Vacancies, the subsequent Right of Presentation or Nomination will belong to the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Liverpool: And whereas by an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act for erecting and endowing a Church in the Town of Liverpool in the County Palatine of Lancaster, to be called "Saint Luke's Church;" and for reviving and amending an Act of the Twenty-first Year of King George the Second, so far as relates to Saint Thomas's Church, another Church or Chapel then erecting and building within the Parish of Liverpool, at the proper Charge of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the said Town, on Land belonging to them, and since called or known by the Name of "St. Luke's Church," was duly established as a Church, and Marriages were permitted to be solemnized therein, and certain Rules and Regulations were made respecting the Pews and Seats therein, and for the better Management of the Affairs thereof; and it was by the said Act enacted that there should be regularly a Minister and also a Chaplain to officiate together at the said Church, and that the Right of Presentation and the Perpetual Advowson and Patronage of, in, and to the said Church should be vested in the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the said Town of Liverpool, and that the yearly Salary of the said Minister and Chaplain respectively should be not less than Two hundred and fifty Pounds, payable by the said Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses: And whereas the Reverend James Aspinall is the present Minister of the said Church, and the Reverend Charles Washington Lawrence is the present Chaplain of the said Church: And whereas under and by virtue of the Provisions of an Act passed in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to provide for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales, the Right of Presentation to the said Church of Saint Luke has been sold by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Liverpool to Joshua Walmsley of Liverpool aforesaid, Esquire, but the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses remain chargeable with Payment of the said Two several Stipends of Two hundred and fifty Pounds to the said Minister and Chaplain respectively: And whereas by virtue and in pursuance of an Act, passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His said Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to repeal an Act passed in the Fifty-fourth Year of His late Majesty, for building a new Church within the Town and Parish of Liverpool in the County Palatine of Lancaster; to vest the said Church and the Ground thereunto belonging in the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Town of Liverpool; to authorize the Purchase of Land in the said Town to be appropriated to the Use of public Cemeteries; and to restrict the Burial of Corpses in the present Cemeteries of the Parish Church and Parochial Chapel there, another Church or Chapel, theretofore partly erected within the said Parish of Liverpool, by certain Commissioners appointed under a former Act thereby repealed, out of Monies raised and levied as therein mentioned, was completed by the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the said Town of Liverpool, at their own proper Charge, which said Church is called or known by the Name of "The Church of Saint Michael"; and by the said Act the said Church was duly established as a Church, and Marriages were permitted to be solemnized therein, and certain Rules and Regulations were made respecting the Pews and Seats therein, and the Management of the Affairs thereof; and it was by the said Act enacted, that there should be regularly a Minister and also a Chaplain to officiate together at the said Church, and that the Right of Presentation and the Perpetual Advowson and Patronage of, in, and to the said Church should be vested in the said Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses, and their Successors, and that the yearly Salary of the said Minister and Chaplain respectively should be not less than Two hundred and fifty Pounds, payable by the said Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses, and their Successors: And whereas under and by virtue of the Provisions of the said recited Act to provide for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations in England and Wales the Right of Presentation to the said Church hath been sold by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Liverpool to James Lawrence of Liverpool aforesaid, Esquire, but the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses remain chargeable with the Two several Stipends of Two hundred and fifty Pounds to the Minister and Chaplain respectively: And whereas the Reverend Henry Carpenter is the present Minister of the said Church, and the Reverend Cyrus Morrall is the present Chaplain of the said Church: And whereas the Lord Bishop of Chester is the Ordinary of the Diocese in which the said Parish of Liverpool is situated: And whereas it is desirable that the present Arrangement of having One Minister only to the Church of Saint Mark, with a Curate under him, should be continued after the Expiration of the said Three Turns, when the Right of Presentation or Nomination will become vested in the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of Liverpool: And whereas it

When the Presentation to St. Mark's becomes vested in the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, One Minister only to be nominated.

it is also desirable that the several Offices of Minister and Chaplain of the said Churches of Saint Luke, and Saint Michael should be united, and that there should be for the future One Minister only of each of the said several Churches of Saint Luke and Saint Michael, with a Curate under him, to be appointed by such Minister, and that some Provision should be made for the better Apportionment of the Salaries, Stipends, or other Allowances now payable to the Minister and Chaplain of the said Churches respectively between the future sole Minister and his Curate, and for the quarterly Payment thereof: And whereas the beneficial Purposes aforesaid cannot be effected without the Aid and Authority of Parliament: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the first Avoidance of the said Church of Saint Mark which shall happen next after the Expiration of the said Three Turns to which the Commissioners and Trustees acting in the Execution of the recited Act of the Fifty-sixth Year of King George the Third are, under or by virtue of the Provisions of the said Act, entitled, and thenceforth for ever, there shall be but One Minister only of the said Church or Chapel, and not Two Ministers, as intended by the same Act, and such sole Minister and his Successors, Ministers of the said Church, shall and may have, exercise, and enjoy all and such and the same Powers and Authorities, and perform such and the same Duties, as are now vested in or directed to be performed by the present Minister of the said Church or Chapel, or by the Ministers who may be appointed thereto by the said Commissioners and Trustees; and the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, and their Assigns, shall, from and immediately after the first Avoidance of the said Church or Chapel which shall happen next after the Expiration of the said Three Turns, and for ever thereafter, be entitled to nominate and appoint the [sole Minister of the said Church, in the same Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as they would have been entitled to nominate and appoint both the Ministers to the said Church in case this Act had not been passed.

Provision for such sole Minister.

II. And be it enacted, That the Minister of the said Church of Saint Mark, to be nominated and appointed by the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, or their Assigns, after such Avoidance as aforesaid, and every succeeding Minister, shall be entitled to receive, and there shall be paid to him by the Churchwardens of the said Church, out of the yearly Rents of the Pews or Seats particularly numbered and set down in the Third List or Schedule thereof annexed to the said recited Act of the Fifty-sixth Year of King George the Third, the yearly Sum of Two hundred and fifty Pounds, over and above and in addition to the Rents and Profits of the Pews by the same Act exclusively appropriated to the Incumbent Minister of the said Church or Chapel for the Time being, and his other Endowments, and he shall also be entitled to receive the whole of the Surplice Fees and other Ecclesiastical Emoluments which have heretofore been accustomed to be paid to and received by the Minister of the said Church, and in like Manner shall bear, pay, and discharge all Dues,
Fees,

Fees, Payments of every Description, and Sums of Money which have heretofore been usually paid by the said Minister.

III. And be it enacted, That the Minister of the said Church of Saint Mark, to be nominated and appointed by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, or their Assigns, after such Avoidance as aforesaid, and every succeeding Minister, shall appoint and always keep a Curate to assist him in the Performance of the Duties of the said Church, such Curate being from Time to Time approved by the Bishop for the Time being of the Diocese; and that such Curate shall be entitled to receive, yearly and every Year, together with a proportionate Part up to the Day of his Death, Resignation, or Removal, a yearly Salary or Stipend of One hundred Pounds; and such Stipend shall be paid to him by the Minister of the said Church out of his said Stipend of Two hundred and fifty Pounds.

Appointment of and Provision for a Curate of St. Mark.

IV. And whereas Doubts have arisen as to the Estate and Interest which the Subscribers to and Proprietors of the said Church of Saint Mark took in the Pews and Seats set forth in the Third List or Schedule of the said recited Act; be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the Fee Simple and Inheritance of and in the said Pews and Seats set forth in the Third List or Schedule to the said Act annexed shall be vested in the said Subscribers to the said Church of Saint Mark, or the Proprietors for the Time being of the same Pews and Seats, their Heirs and Assigns for ever, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to sell, dispose of, and convey all or any of the same Seats or Pews, together with the Fee Simple and Inheritance of the same respectively, to any Person or Persons willing to become Purchasers thereof, any thing in the said recited Act relating to the said Church of Saint Mark to the contrary thereof notwithstanding.

The Fee Simple in the Seats and Pews of St. Mark vested in the Subscribers to the Church, or the Proprietors for the Time being.

V. And be it enacted, That from and immediately after the Decease, Resignation, or Removal of the Reverend Charles Washington Lawrence, the present Chaplain of the said Church of Saint Luke, there shall be no longer a Minister and Chaplain of the said Church, but One Minister only; and the Sum of Two hundred and fifty Pounds, heretofore paid by the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of Liverpool, to such Chaplain, shall thereupon cease and determine, and be no longer payable; and the then Minister of the said Church shall ipso facto be and become, and until his Death, Resignation, or Removal shall continue, the sole Minister of the said Church; and he and his Successors, Ministers of the said Church, shall and may have, exercise, and enjoy all and each and the same Powers and Authorities, and perform such and the same Duties, as are now vested in or directed to be performed by the Minister and Chaplain of the said Church jointly, or in either of them separately; and the said Joshua Walmsley, his Heirs and Assigns, Patrons of the said Church, shall for ever thereafter be entitled to nominate and appoint the Minister of the said Church, in the same Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as he or they would have been entitled to nominate and appoint the Minister and Chaplain to the said Church in case this Act had not been passed.

After Death, &c., of the present Chaplain of Saint Luke, the Minister to be sole Minister, and the Patron, &c. to appoint, as heretofore.

The sole Minister to have whole of Fees, and a Stipend of 400*l.* per Annum.

VI. And be it enacted, That from and immediately after the Decease, Resignation, or Removal of the present Chaplain of the said Church of Saint Luke, the then Minister of the said Church and every succeeding Minister shall be entitled to the Share of the Chaplain of the Surplice Fees and other Ecclesiastical Emoluments of the said Church, over and above his own Share thereof; and every such Minister shall be paid by the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, out of the Borough Fund of the said Borough, a yearly Salary or Stipend of Four hundred Pounds, to commence from the Day of the Decease, Resignation, or Removal of such Chaplain; which yearly Salary or Stipend of Four hundred Pounds shall be accepted and taken by such Minister, and the same is hereby declared to be, in lieu and instead of the yearly Stipend or Salary of Two hundred and fifty Pounds payable under Authority of the said recited Act of the Third Year of King George the Fourth, which shall thereupon cease and determine.

Appointment of and Provision for a Curate of Saint Luke after Death, &c. of present Minister.

VII. And be it enacted, That, immediately upon the Death, Resignation, or Removal of the present Chaplain of the said Church of Saint Luke, the then Minister of the said Church shall appoint, and such Minister and every succeeding Minister shall always keep, a Curate to assist him in the Performance of the Duties of the said Church; and such Curate shall be entitled to receive yearly and every Year, together with a proportionate Part up to the Day of his Death, Resignation, or Removal, a Salary or Stipend of One hundred Pounds per Annum; and such Salary or Stipend shall be paid to him by the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses out of the Borough Fund of the said Borough.

Power for the present Chaplain of Saint Luke to exchange.

VIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if the said Charles Washington Lawrence, the present Chaplain of the said Church of Saint Luke, shall be desirous of effecting an Exchange with any other Minister of the Church of England (not being a younger Life than his own), it shall be lawful for the said Joshua Walmsley, or other the Person for the Time being entitled to the Right of Nomination, (if they or he shall think proper so to do, but not otherwise,) to give Effect to such Exchange by nominating the Person with whom the same may have been agreed to be made to the Office of Chaplain of the said Church in the Place of the said Charles Washington Lawrence, and then and in such Case all the Provisions herein-before contained with respect to the Abolition of the Office of Chaplain of the said Church shall be postponed and shall not take effect until after the Death, Resignation, or Removal of the Person so nominated as aforesaid; and such Person shall in the meantime have and be entitled to the same Stipend of Two hundred and fifty Pounds and other Emoluments as the said Charles Washington Lawrence would have been entitled had he continued Chaplain thereof.

After Death, &c. of the present Chaplain of Saint Michael, the

IX. And be it further enacted, That from and immediately after the Decease, Resignation, or Removal of the Reverend Cyrus Morrall, the present Chaplain of the said Church of Saint Michael, there shall be no longer a Minister and a Chaplain of the said Church, but One Minister only; and the Sum of Two hundred and fifty Pounds, heretofore fore paid by the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of Liverpool, to such Chaplain, shall thereupon cease and determine, and be no longer payable; and the then Minister of the said Church shall ipso facto be and become, and, until his Death, Resignation, or Removal, shall continue, the sole Minister of the said Church, and he and his Successors, Ministers of the said Church, shall and may have, exercise, and enjoy all and such and the same Powers and Authorities, and perform such and the same Duties, as are now vested in or directed to be performed by the Minister and Chaplain of the said Church jointly, or in either of them separately; and the said James Lawrence, his Heirs and Assigns, Patrons of the said Church, shall for ever thereafter be entitled to nominate and appoint the Minister of the said Church in the same Manner, to all Intents and Purposes, as he or they would have been entitled to nominate and appoint both the Minister and Chaplain to the said Church in case this Act had not been passed.

Minister to be sole Minister, and the Patron, &c. to appoint as heretofore.

X. And be it enacted, That from and immediately after the Decease, Resignation, or Removal of the present Chaplain of the said Church of Saint Michael, the then sole Minister of the said Church and every succeeding Minister shall be entitled to the Share of the Chaplain of the Surplice Fees and other Ecclesiastical Emoluments of the said Church, over and above his own Share thereof; and every such Minister shall be paid by the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, out of the Borough Fund of the said Borough, a yearly Salary or Stipend of Four hundred Pounds, to commence from the Day of the Decease, Resignation, or Removal of such Chaplain; which yearly Salary or Stipend of Four hundred Pounds shall be accepted and taken by such Minister, and the same is hereby declared to be, in lieu and instead of the yearly Salary or Stipend of Two hundred and fifty Pounds payable under the Authority of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, which shall thereupon cease and determine.

The sole Minister to have whole of Fees, &c. and a Stipend of 400*l.* per Annum.

XI. And be it enacted, That, immediately upon the Death, Resignation, or Removal of the present Chaplain of the said Church of Saint Michael, the then Minister of the said Church shall appoint, and such Minister and every succeeding Minister shall always keep, a Curate to assist him in the Performance of the Duties of the said Church; and such Curate shall be entitled to receive yearly and every Year, together with a proportionable Part up to the Day of his Death, Resignation, or Removal, a Salary or Stipend of One hundred Pounds per Annum; and such Salary or Stipend shall be paid to him by the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses out of the Borough Fund of the said Borough.

Appointment of and Provision for a Curate of Saint Michael, after Death, &c. of present Chaplain.

XII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if the said Cyrus Morrall, the present Chaplain of the said Church of Saint Michael, shall be desirous of effecting an Exchange with any other Minister of the Church of England (not being a younger Life than his own), it shall be lawful for the said James Lawrence, or other the Person for the Time being entitled to the Right of Nomination, (if he or they shall think proper so to do, but not otherwise,) to give effect to such Exchange Power for the Chaplain of Saint Michael to exchange.

Exchange by nominating the Person with whom the same may have been agreed to be made to the Office of Chaplain of the said Church in the Place of the said Cyrus Morrall, and then and in such Case all the Provisions herein-before contained with respect to the Abolition of the Office of Chaplain of the said Church shall be postponed and shall not take effect until after the Death, Resignation, or Removal of the Person so nominated as aforesaid; and such Person shall in the meantime have and be entitled to the same Stipend of Two hundred and fifty Pounds and other Emoluments as the said Cyrus Morrall would have been entitled to had he continued Chaplain thereof.

All the said Stipends to be paid quarterly, &c.

XIII. And whereas it would be a Matter of general Convenience, as well to the said Churchwardens, and the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, as to the said Ministers, Chaplains, and Curates, if all the Stipends now payable or by this Act authorized, or by any of the said recited Acts remaining to be paid or received by them respectively, were appointed to be paid by equal Payments on certain fixed quarterly Days; be it therefore enacted, That all the said Stipends now payable, or henceforth or at any Time hereafter to take effect and become payable, whether under this Act or any of the said recited Acts, and not herein-before comprised, and which are now payable or are hereafter to be paid by the said Churchwardens, or the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, or by the Minister of the Church of Saint Mark, to the Curate of the said Church to be appointed under this Act, shall be paid by equal quarterly Payments on every the First Day of October, First Day of January, First Day of April, and First Day of July in each Year, the first Payment to be made on the first of the said quarterly Days which shall happen next after the passing of this Act, or after the Stipends respectively shall take effect and become payable; provided that as to all Stipends which are now payable the first Payment hereby directed shall be reckoned as if the same were to be paid from such one of the said quarterly Days as shall next precede the passing of this Act: Provided nevertheless, that by Payment, or by Deduction from future Payments, (as the Case may require,) of a proportionable Part of each such Stipend due or growing due prior to the passing of this Act, the Payment of the same shall be adjusted between the said Churchwardens, and Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses respectively, and the said several Ministers, Chaplains, and Curates respectively, so as that the same shall by such Payment or Deduction stand in effect paid up to the said quarterly Day next preceding the passing of this Act; provided that as to any Stipend which shall take effect and become payable at any Time or Event hereafter, and not upon the passing of this Act, a proportionate Deduction shall be made from the first quarterly Payment in respect to any Part of the Quarter of the Year next preceding the first quarterly Day for Payment during which such Stipend shall not have taken effect or become payable.

For Recovery of the Payments to be made by the

XIV. And be it enacted, That if the several Payments herein-before directed to be made quarterly as aforesaid by the Churchwardens of the said Church of Saint Mark to the Minister of the said Church,

Church, or by the Minister of the said Church to the Curate of the said Church to be appointed under this Act, or any of such Payments, shall at any Time be in arrear for the Space of Twenty-one Days after the Day on which the same ought to be paid, it shall be lawful for the Party or Parties to whom such Payment or Payments shall be so due or in arrear, his or their respective Executors or Administrators, to sue for and recover the same, with full Costs of Suit, against the Churchwardens or Churchwarden or Minister respectively for the Time being of the said Church, by Action of Debt or upon the Case, or for so much Money had and received for the Use of such Party or Parties respectively, his Executors or Administrators, or for Work or Labour done, to be brought in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster.

Churchwardens, if in arrear.

XV. And be it enacted, That if the several Stipends, Allowances, or yearly Sums herein-before directed to be paid quarterly out of the Borough Fund of the said Borough, or any or either of such Stipends, Allowances, or yearly Sums, or any quarterly or other Payment thereof, shall at any Time be in arrear for the Space of Twenty-one Days after the Day on which the same ought to be paid, it shall be lawful for the Party or Parties to whom such Payment or Payments shall be so due or in arrear, his or their respective Executors or Administrators, to sue for and recover the same, with full Costs of Suit, against the Treasurer for the Time being of the said Borough, or the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the said Borough, by Action of Debt or on the Case, or for so much Money had and received for the Use of such Party or Parties respectively, or for Work or Labour done, to be brought in any of Her Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster.

For Recovery of the Stipends to be paid out of the Borough Fund, if in arrear.

XVI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That each of the several Stipends and Allowances by this Act directed to be paid quarterly to Ministers and Curates shall only be paid to each Minister and Curate so long as he shall reside within the Parish of Liverpool aforesaid, or within One Mile of his Church, and so long as he shall personally perform his official Duties in and pertaining to the Church in respect whereof such yearly Stipend or Allowance is directed to be paid (except in Cases of Sickness or some other Cause to be approved by the Ordinary for the Time being within whose Diocese Liverpool shall be).

Conditions of Residence.

XVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be deemed or construed to extend to interfere with, prejudice, alter, or affect the Provisions contained in the said recited Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, respecting the Sale and Disposition of Advowsons and Rights of Nomination and Presentation to Benefices and Ecclesiastical Preferences vested in Bodies Corporate, but the Advowson or Right of Presentation to the said Church of Saint Mark, and the Right or Title to nominate the Minister of the said Church, after the Expiration of the said Three Terms, subject to the Provisions of this Act, shall and may be sold, under the Authority of and in the Manner directed by the said

This Act not to interfere with the Provisions of 5 & 6 W. 4. c. 76.
