(3) The cost of any medical benefit provided under the legislation of one Party by virtue of paragraph (1) of this Article shall not be reimbursed out of any funds of the other Party.

(4) The social security authorities of the two Parties shall make such arrangements as may be necessary for giving effect to this Article.

Sickness, Maternity and Death Benefit

ARTICLE 9. A person who has completed an insurance period under the legislation of one Contracting Party shall be entitled, together with his dependants, to receive the benefit provided under the legislation of the other Party in respect of sickness, maternity, and death provided that—

- (a) he has begun an insurance period under the legislation of the latter Party since his last arrival in the territory of that Party;
- (b) he satisfies the conditions laid down by the legislation of the latter Party; and, for this purpose, any insurance period or equivalent period completed under the legislation of the former Party, shall be treated as if it had been completed under the legislation of the latter Party.

Where a person insured under the legislation of one Contracting Party would be entitled to receive sickness benefit under that legislation if he were in the territory of that Party, he shall be entitled, subject to the approval of the social security authority of that Party, to receive that benefit for any period during which he is temporarily in the territory of the other Party.

ARTICLE 11. Where a person is employed in the territory of one Contracting Party and the legislation of the other Party applies to his employment in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (2) of Article 4 or paragraph (2) of Article 6 he shall be treated, for the purpose of any claim to receive sickness benefit under that legislation, as if he were in the territory of the latter Party.

ARTICLE 12. Where a woman is insured under the legislation of one Contracting Party, or is the wife of a person so insured, and is in, or is confined in, the territory of the other Party, she shall, for the purpose of any claim to receive a maternity grant or maternity allowance under the legislation of the former Party, be treated as if she were in, or had been confined in, the territory of the former Party.

(2) Where a person who is in the territory of one Party claims benefit under the legislation of the other Party in respect of a death, he shall be treated as if he were in the territory of the latter Party.

Invalidity Pensions

ARTICLE 14.—(1) Where a person has completed insurance periods or equivalent periods under the legislation of both Contracting Parties, those periods shall be added together for the purpose of determining his right to receive an invalidity pension.

(2) Subject to the provisions of paragraphs (3) and (4) of this Article, any invalidity pension shall be paid in accordance with the provisions of the legislation under which the person was insured in respect of his employment at the time when the disablement was first medically certified, or was last so insured before that time, and the cost of the pension shall be borne by the social security authority which is responsible under that legislation.

(3) If, at the time when the disablement is first medically certified, less than one year has elapsed since the person's last arrival in the territory of the Party under whose legislation he is insured in respect of his employment or was last so insured, and the disablement is not due to an accident, then any invalidity pension shall be paid in accordance with the provisions of the legislation of the other Party, and the cost of the pension shall be borne by the social security authority which is responsible under that legislation.

(4) If, after suspension or discontinuance of an invalidity pension granted under the legislation of one (or the other) Party, the person again becomes an invalid within a period of three years, the social security authority which originally granted the pension shall be responsible for resuming, in accordance with the provisions of its own national legislation, the payment of that pension, provided that the invalidity is attributable to the disablement for which that pension was previously granted.

Industrial Accidents and Diseases

ARTICLE 15. Where a person is employed in the territory of one Contracting Party and the legislation of the other Party applies to his employment in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (2) of Article 4 or paragraph (2) of Article 6, he shall be treated, for the purpose of any claim to receive benefit under the legislation of the latter Party for an industrial accident occurring or an industrial disease contracted during his employment in the territory of the former Party, as if the accident had occurred or the disease had been contracted in the territory of the latter Party.

ARTICLE 16. Where a person has contracted an industrial disease and has been employed in the territories of both Contracting Parties in occupations involving the risk of that disease, he shall, subject to the provisions of Articles 15 and 18, be treated for the purpose of any claim to receive benefit for that disease under the legislation of the Party in whose territory he was last so employed as if he had been so employed only in that territory.

ARTICLE 17. In assessing, for the purpose of the legislation of one Contracting Party, the degree of disablement due to an industrial accident, any previous industrial accident for which benefit is payable under the legislation of the other Party shall be treated as if it were an industrial accident covered by the legislation of the former Party.

ARTICLE 18. Where a person, having received a benefit for an industrial disease under the legislation of one Party, submits a claim under the legislation of the other Party to receive a benefit for an industrial disease of the same kind, the social security authority of the latter Party shall be responsible for obtaining evidence as to the benefit previously paid in respect of the same disease, and shall treat that benefit as if it had been granted under its own legislation.

Old Age Pensions

ARTICLE 19.—(1) Subject to the provisions of Article 21, where a person submits a claim to receive an old age pension by virtue of insurance periods and equivalent periods completed under the legislation of both Contracting Parties, his claim shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the succeeding paragraphs of this Article.

(2) The appropriate social security authority of each Party shall determine, in accordance with its own national legislation, whether the person satisfies the conditions for receiving a pension under that legislation, and for this purpose, shall take into account all the insurance periods and equivalent periods completed by him under the legislation of the two Parties as if they had been completed under its own national legislation.

(3) Where the right to a pension is established in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (2) of this Article, the social security authority of each Party shall calculate—

- (a) the pension which would have been due to the person under its own national legislation if all the insurance periods and equivalent periods completed by him under the legislation of both Parties had been completed under its own national legislation; and
- (b) that part of such pension which bears the same relation to the whole as the total of all the insurance periods and equivalent periods completed by the person under its own national legislation bears to the total of all the insurance periods and equivalent periods completed by him under the legislation of both Parties.

The part thus calculated shall be the pension actually due to the person from the social security authority concerned.

(4) Where the total of all the insurance periods and equivalent periods completed by a person under the legislation of one Party is less than six months, the appropriate social security authority of the other Party shall take into account all those periods as if they had been completed under its own national legislation, not only for the purpose of determining whether the person satisfies the conditions for receiving an old age pension under that legislation, but also for the purpose of determining the amount of that pension; and no old age pension shall be paid under the legislation of the former Party.

(5) For the purpose of applying this Article, an insurance period or equivalent period completed by a person shall be deemed to include an insurance period or equivalent period completed by the husband of a person in those cases where the person concerned is a woman claiming an old age pension by virtue of her husband's insurance.

ARTICLE 20. Where a person does not simultaneously satisfy the conditions laid down by the legislation of both Parties, his right to receive a pension under the legislation of each Party shall be established and extended as and when he satisfies the conditions laid down by the legislation of that Party, account being taken of the provisions of Article 19.

ARTICLE 21.—(1) A person may, at the time when his right to receive a pension is established, choose not to take advantage of the provisions of Article 19. In that case the old age pension which he is entitled to receive under the legislation of each Contracting Party shall be determined separately by its social security authority without regard to insurance periods and equivalent periods completed by him under the legislation of the other Party.

(2) Such person shall be entitled to make a fresh choice between taking advantage of the provisions of Article 19 and those of this Article, if it is in his interest to do so, either when the legislation of either Party is amended, or when he goes from the territory of one Party to that of the other, or when, in accordance with the provisions of Article 20 or otherwise, his right to a pension is established or extended under the legislation of either Party.

Widow's Benefit and Benefit for Surviving Dependents

ARTICLE 22. The provisions relating to old age pensions contained in Articles 19, 20 and 21 shall apply to widow's benefit and benefit for the children of widows, subject to such modifications in each case as the differing nature of the benefit shall require.

Children's Allowances

ARTICLE 23.—(1) Where a person is employed in the territory of one Contracting Party and the legislation of the other Party applies to his employment in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (2) of Article 4 or paragraph (2) of Article 6, he shall be treated for the purpose of any claim to receive children's allowances under that legislation—

- (a) as if he were in the territory of the latter Party and employed in that territory; and
- (b) if his children are in the territory of the former Party, as if they were in the territory of the latter Party.

(2) Where a person is employed in, or ordinarily resident in, the territory of one Party and the provisions of paragraph (1) do not apply to him, he shall be treated, for the purpose of any claim to receive children's allowances under the legislation of that Party, as if—

- (a) he had been born in the territory of that Party, if he was born in the territory of the other Party;
- (b) he had been resident, present or employed in the territory of that Party during any period during which he was, respectively, resident, present or employed in the territory of the other Party.

Unemployment Benefit

ARTICLE 24.—(1) For the purpose of any claim to receive unemployment benefit under the legislation of one Contracting Party, a person who is in the territory of that Party shall be treated as if any insurance period or equivalent period completed under the legislation of the other Party were, respectively, an insurance period or equivalent period completed under the legislation of the former Party, provided that—

- (a) he has begun an insurance period under the legislation of the former Party since his last arrival in the territory of that Party; or
- (b) he is a national of the former Party or is ordinarily resident in the territory of that Party.

(2) For the purpose of any claim to receive unemployment benefit under the legislation of the United Kingdom, a person shall be treated as if he had been resident in the territory of the United Kingdom during any period during which he was resident in the territory of Yugoslavia.

Other Provisions about Benefit

ARTICLE 25.—(1) Where, under the legislation of one Contracting Party, a person would be entitled to receive benefit for an industrial accident or disease, an invalidity pension, an old age pension, widow's benefit or benefit for surviving dependants, if he were in or resident in the territory of that Party, he shall be entitled to receive that benefit while he is, respectively, in or resident in the territory of the other Party.

(2) In relation to Yugoslavia, the provisions of paragraph (1) of this Article shall apply, subject to the approval of the social security authority of Yugoslavia, to any national of Yugoslavia whose absence from the territory of Yugoslavia involves temporary suspension of the payment of social security benefits under the legislation of Yugoslavia.

ARTICLE 26.—(1) Where a person is entitled to receive a benefit under the legislation of one Contracting Party, and would be entitled to receive an increase of that benefit for a dependant if the dependant were in the territory of that Party, he shall be entitled to receive that increase while the dependant is in the territory of the other Party.

(2) Where a person would be entitled, under the legislation of the United Kingdom, to receive widow's benefit or benefit in respect of a death due to an industrial injury or disease if a child were in the territory of the United Kingdom or had been in that territory at the time when one of his parents died or at any other specified time, he shall be entitled to receive that benefit if the child, as the case may be, is in the territory of Yugoslavia or was in that territory at that time.

ARTICLE 27.—(1) In applying those provisions of the present Convention which concern the adding together of insurance periods and equivalent periods for the purpose of establishing the right to receive benefit, the social security authority of each Contracting Party, having regard to the relevant provisions of its own national legislation, shall add to any insurance periods and equivalent periods completed under that legislation any insurance periods and equivalent periods completed under the legislation of the other Party, except to the extent that the latter coincide with the former.

(2) The provisions of paragraph (1) of this Article shall be applied in accordance with the following rules:—

- (a) where a period of compulsory insurance, completed under the legislation of one Party, coincides with a period of voluntary insurance, completed under the legislation of the other, only the period of compulsory insurance shall be taken into account;
- (b) where an insurance period, completed under the legislation of one Party, coincides with an equivalent period, completed under the legislation of the other Party, only the insurance period shall be taken into account;

- (c) where an equivalent period completed under the legislation of one Party coincides with an equivalent period completed under the legislation of the other Party, account shall be taken only of the equivalent period completed under the legislation of the Party in whose territory the national concerned was last employed before the beginning of such period or, if he was not so employed, only of the equivalent period completed under the legislation of the Party in whose territory he is first employed after the end of such period.

ARTICLE 28. Where, under the legislation of either Contracting Party, the amount of any cash benefit is related to the average wage earned during insurance periods, the average wage to be taken into account for the calculation of the benefit due to be paid under that legislation shall be calculated on the basis of the wages earned during the insurance periods actually completed under that legislation.

ARTICLE 29. Where, under the provisions of this Part of the present Convention, any cash benefit is payable by the social security authority of one Contracting Party to a person who is resident in the territory of the other Party, the payment may, at the request of that authority, be made by the social security authority of the latter Party as agent for the authority of the former Party.

ARTICLE 30. Subject to the provisions of Articles 17 and 18, any person claiming a benefit under the legislation of either Contracting Party may choose to have his claim settled without regard to the provisions of this Part of the present Convention.
