PENSIONS AND OTHER BENEFITS FOR THE FEDERAL PUBLIC SERVICE

PART III

TERMINAL BENEFITS FOR PERSONS IN THE EMPLOYMENT OF THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT WHO ARE NOT TRANSFERRED TO THE SERVICE OF THE GOVERNMENT OF A TERRITORY

Provisions as to what constitutes rejection of offers of employment

- 21.—(1) For the purposes of paragraphs 6 and 8—
- (a) an established officer or established Prison officer shall be deemed not to have rejected an offer of employment on pensionable conditions of service made by the Government of Southern Rhodesia unless—
    - (i) he has rejected both an offer of permanent transfer and an offer of provisional transfer; or
    - (ii) he has accepted an offer of permanent or provisional transfer and before being transferred he terminates his secondment or refuses to be transferred;
  - (b) subject to the provisions of sub-paragraph (a) of this sub-paragraph, an established officer or established Prison officer shall be deemed to have rejected an offer of employment on pensionable conditions of service by the Government of his home Territory if—
    - (i) he does not accept such an offer within a reasonable time of its being made to him; or
    - (ii) he accepts an offer of employment on pensionable conditions of service by the Government of a Territory other than his home Territory or an offer of employment on contract by the Government of Nyasaland and before being transferred or commencing such employment, as the case may be, he terminates his secondment or refuses to be transferred or to commence such employment, as the case may be.
- (2) For the purposes of paragraph 10 a member shall be deemed to have rejected an offer of employment on pensionable conditions of service by the Government of his home Territory if—
- (a) he does not accept such an offer within a reasonable time of its being made to him; or
  - (b) he accepts an offer of employment on pensionable conditions of service by the Government of a Territory other than his home Territory or an offer of employment on contract by the Government of Nyasaland and before being transferred or commencing such employment, as the case may be, he terminates his secondment or refuses to be transferred or to commence such employment, as the case may be.
