Remainder		1st April 1965

The Minister of Housing and Local Government, in exercise of the powers conferred on him by section 84 of the London Government Act 1963 and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following order:—

Title and commencement

1.—(1) This order may be cited as the London Government (Town and Country Planning) Order 1965.

(2) Articles 2, 5 and 16 of this Order shall come into operation on 20th March 1965 and the remaining articles shall come into operation on 1st April 1965.

Interpretation

2.—(1) The Interpretation Act 1889a lies to the interpretation of this order as it a lies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

(2) In this order—

“the Act” means the London Government Act 1963;

“the Act of 1962” means the Town and Country Planning Act 1962

“the a ropriate London authority” means, in relation to any a lication under Part III of the Act of 1962, or any instrument made by, action of, any authority, person or body, the authority in Greater London which, by virtue of section 24 of the Act or of regulations made by the Minister under that section, is on 1st April 1965 the local planning authority in relation to the area of Greater London and the class of development to which that a location, instrument or action relates;

“the Common Council” means the Common Council of the City of London;

“development plan” means, in respect of any area outside Greater London, a development plan as defined in section 4 of the Act of 1962;

“existing” means existing immediately before 1st April 1965;

“existing authority”, in relation to any land in Greater London, means the council of the county, county borough, metropolitan borough or county district, as the case may be, within which the land was situate immediately before 1st April 1965, or the Common Council;

“the initial development plan” means the initial development plan for Greater London as defined in section 25(2) of the Act;

“land” has the same meaning as in the Act of 1962;

“the Minister” means the Minister of Housing and Local Government;

“the regulations of 1960” means the Town and Country Planning (Control of Advertisements) Regulations 1960⁽¹⁾

(3) In this order, any reference to an order, direction or agreement made or given by an existing authority before 1st April 1965 shall be construed as a reference to an order, direction or agreement to which the common seal of that authority has been affixed before that date.

(4) In this order, any reference to an order made by an existing authority shall be construed as including a reference to any notice or decision given thereunder.

(5) In this order, unless the context otherwise requires, references to any enactment shall be construed as references to that enactment as amended, extended or a lied by or under any other enactment or by this order.

Transitional provisions for Greater London

3. In the initial development plan any designation, as land subject to compulsory acquisition by an existing authority, of land allocated by the plan for the purposes of any of their functions shall have effect with the substitution of a reference to the authority or authorities (as the case may be) to whom that function of the existing authority is transferred on 1st April 1965.

4. Any proposals under section 6 of the Act of 1962 for the amendment of an existing development plan relating to land in Greater London which have been submitted to the Minister before 1st April 1965 by an existing local planning authority and in respect of which no amendment of the relevant development plan has become operative before that date shall have effect as if they were proposals for the amendment of the initial development plan submitted by the Greater London Council.

5. As from the coming into operation of this article the Greater London Council, the Common Council or a London borough council shall be entitled at all reasonable times to inspect and take copies of all plans or documents relating to any land in their area which are in the possession or under the control of an existing authority for the purposes of or in connection with the Act of 1962 or the regulations of 1960 and the existing authority shall su ly such information and afford such assistance for the purposes of or in connection with the Act of 1962 or the regulations of 1960 as the council may reasonably require.

(1) (1960 III, p. 3253).

6.—(1) Where an existing authority outside the county of Hertfordshire (not being a county council) is abolished by the Act on 1st April 1965, so much of any register as relates to land in the area of that authority shall be delivered on that date—

- (a) in the case of an area specified in column (1) of the following table, to the clerk of the council of the London borough specified in respect of that area in column (2) of the said table;
- (b) in any other case, to the clerk of the council of the London borough in which the land is situate, and, subject to the provisions of this paragraph, such part shall in each case form part of the register for such London borough.

Where the clerk of the council of a London borough specified in column (2) of the following table has received part of a register as provided by this paragraph, he shall within one month after 1st April 1965 send to the clerk of the council of the London borough specified, in respect of the first mentioned London borough, in column (3) of the said table such part of the register as relates to land in the said London borough specified in column (3) (or, if that is not practicable, copies of all the entries therein), and within one month after receipt of such part of the register or such copies the appropriate entry shall be made in the register kept by the council of the last mentioned London borough.
