PRICES AND INCOMES

The Temporary Restrictions on Pay Increases (No. 3)
Order 1966

Made - - - -	30th December 1966
Laid before Parliament	30th December 1966
Coming into Operation	31st December 1966

The Secretary of State, in exercise of the powers conferred on him by section 28 of the Prices and Incomes Act 1966(a), and by section 25(7) and (8) of that Act, hereby makes the following Order:—

Citation, commencement and interpretation

1.—(1) This Order, which may be cited as the Temporary Restrictions on Pay Increases (No. 3) Order 1966, shall come into operation on 31st December 1966.

(2) The Interpretation Act 1889(b) shall apply for the interpretation of this Order as it applies for the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Restrictions on certain pay increases

2. Section 28 of the Prices and Incomes Act 1966 (which imposes restrictions on increases in remuneration to which that section is applied) shall apply to remuneration under contracts of employment for work of the description specified in the Schedule to this Order.

Relevant period for comparing rates of remuneration

3. In comparing the rate of any remuneration with earlier remuneration paid before the date of coming into operation of this Order, so far as required for the purpose of giving effect to this Order, account shall only be taken of such earlier remuneration as fell within the period of three months ending immediately before that date.

Comparison between rates of remuneration where there are normal working hours

4.—(1) The following provisions of this Article shall apply in cases where there are normal working hours for the work and any of the remuneration to be considered consists of or includes remuneration for work outside those normal working hours.

(2) In a case where the normal working hours for the work are such as to fall within the meaning of "normal working hours" given by sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 1 of Schedule 2 to the Contracts of Employment Act 1963(c) (that is to say, where the contract of employment provides for a fixed number of hours without overtime) remuneration for work in the normal working hours, and for work outside those hours, shall be considered separately, except that if the number of normal working hours at the later time is less, the rate of remuneration for work outside those hours at the later time for a period equal to the difference shall be compared with the rate of remuneration for work in the normal working hours at the earlier time.

(3) In a case where the normal working hours for the work are such as to fall within the meaning of "normal working hours" given by sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 1 of Schedule 2 to the said Act of 1963 (that is to say, where the contract of employment provides for a fixed number or minimum number of hours which exceeds the number of hours without overtime) remuneration for work in the number of hours without overtime, and for work in the number of hours with overtime, shall be considered separately, except that if the number of hours without overtime at the later time is less, the rate of remuneration for work in the number of hours with overtime at the later time for a period equal to the difference shall be compared with the rate of remuneration for work in the number of hours without overtime at the earlier time.

Dated 30th December 1966.

Austen Albu,
Minister of State,
Department of Economic Affairs.

SCHEDULE (see Article 2)

DESCRIPTION OF REMUNERATION FOR WORK

Remuneration for work performed under any contract of employment the terms of which include, expressly or by implication, all or any of the terms of—

- (a) the agreement, expressed to be effective from 1st July 1965, relating to hours, conditions of work grades and wages made between The Society of British Printing Ink Manufacturers and The Society of Graphical and Allied Trades—Division 1; or
- (b) the addenda, dated December 1965, expressed to be addenda to the existing agreement between British Printing Ink Co. #### EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order applies section 28 of the Prices and Incomes Act 1966 (which imposes restrictions on increases in remuneration to which that section is applied) to the remuneration specified in the Schedule to the Order. In that connection the Order provides that for the purpose of comparing rates of remuneration with rates paid at an earlier time account shall only be taken of such earlier remuneration as fell within a period of three months ending immediately before the date of coming into operation of the Order and, in cases where there are normal working hours, provides for the manner in which the comparison is to be made.

Copies of the agreement and the addenda referred to in the Schedule to this Order are available for inspection between 10 a.m. and 12 noon and between 2 p.m. and 5 p.m. on any weekday (excluding Saturdays) at the offices of the Ministry of Labour at 8 St. James's Square, London, S.W.1.
