1969 No. 1787

The Police Federation Regulations 1969

PART II

ORGANISATION

Proceedings of central committees

13.—(1) Each central committee may hold—

- (a) an ordinary meeting once in two months, each meeting lasting not more than three days;
- (b) an ordinary meeting once a year with the corresponding central committee of the Scottish Police Federation, lasting not more than two days, and
- (c) additional meetings called with the consent of the Secretary of State.

(2) The three or any two of the central committees may, by agreement, sit together as a joint committee either for all purposes of common interest or for any special purpose.

(3) The three central committees shall, at the request of the Secretary of State, sit together as a joint committee for the purpose of considering any question referred to them by him.

(4) The three central committees sitting together shall be known as the joint central committee of the Federation.

(5) A central committee, the joint central committee or a joint committee of any two central committees may make written representations to the Secretary of State and, in matters of importance, a deputation may be appointed to make oral representations to him.

(6) Schedule 2 shall have effect in relation to the proceedings of each central committee, the joint central committee and a joint committee of any two central committees.
