- (2) for some purpose unconnected with his work, and other than that of waiting for work to be given to him to perform ;
- (3) by reason only of the fact that he is resident thereon ; or
- (4) during normal meal times in a room or place in which no work is being done, and he is not waiting for work to be given to him to perform.

WORKERS WHO ARE NOT REQUIRED TO WORK ON A CUSTOMARY HOLIDAY

8.—(1) Subject to the provisions of sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph, where a worker is not required to work on a customary holiday he shall be paid for the customary holiday not less than the amount to which he would have been entitled under the provisions of this Schedule had the day not been a customary holiday and had he worked the number of hours ordinarily worked by him on that day of the week.

(2) Where the customary holiday is a day which has been allowed to a worker and taken by him as a day of annual holiday under the provisions of Part II of this Schedule or where the customary holiday falls upon his weekly rest day—

(a) the worker shall be allowed within 28 days of the customary holiday, except in the case where (b) of this sub-paragraph applies, a day of holiday in lieu thereof fixed—

(i) by agreement between the employer and the worker ; or

(ii) failing such agreement, by the employer with a minimum of seven clear days' notice to the worker ;

and the worker shall be paid for the holiday so allowed in lieu of the customary holiday not less than the amount to which he would have been entitled had he worked for the number of hours ordinarily worked by him on that day of the week ; or

(b) if there is an agreement between the employer and the worker that no day of holiday in lieu of the customary holiday be so allowed, the worker shall be paid for the customary holiday not less than the amount to which he would have been entitled under the provisions of this Schedule had the day not been a customary holiday and had he worked the number of hours ordinarily worked by him on that day of the week :

Provided that where the customary holiday is a day which has been allowed to and taken by the worker as a day of annual holiday, such payment shall be in addition to the remuneration to which he is entitled in respect of that day as a day of annual holiday under Part II of this Schedule.

WORKERS WHO WORK ON A CUSTOMARY HOLIDAY
AND WHO ARE GIVEN A DAY OFF IN LIEU

9. Where a worker works on a customary holiday his employer shall, except as provided in paragraph 10, allow him within 28 days of the customary holiday a day of holiday in lieu thereof on a day other than the weekly rest day or weekly half-day fixed (a) by agreement between the employer and the worker, or (b) failing such agreement, by the employer with a minimum of 7 clear days' notice to the worker, and the worker shall be paid at the rate payable to him under the provisions of this Schedule other than paragraph 10 for all time worked on the customary holiday and for the day given in lieu of the customary holiday not less than the amount to which he would have been entitled under the provisions of this Schedule had he worked the number of hours ordinarily worked by him on that day of the week.

WORKERS WHO WORK ON A CUSTOMARY HOLIDAY AND WHO ARE NOT GIVEN A DAY OFF IN LIEU

10. Where a worker works on a customary holiday and there is an agreement between the employer and the worker that no day of holiday in lieu of the customary holiday shall be allowed to the worker, he shall be paid for all time worked on the customary holiday:—

- (1) where the time worked does not exceed 3 hours .. double time for 3 hours
- (2) where the time worked exceeds 3 hours double time for all time worked

Provided that where a customary holiday falls upon the worker's weekly rest day the worker shall be paid in addition to the amount payable under this paragraph the amount to which he would be entitled for work performed on a weekly rest day under paragraph 5 (1) (b).

GUARANTEED WEEKLY REMUNERATION PAYABLE TO A FULL-TIME WORKER

11.—(1) Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Schedule, where in any week the total remuneration (including holiday remuneration) payable to a full-time worker under those other provisions is less than the guaranteed weekly remuneration provided under this paragraph, the minimum remuneration payable to that worker for that week shall be that guaranteed weekly remuneration.

(2) The guaranteed weekly remuneration is the remuneration to which he would be entitled under paragraph 3 or 4 for 42 hours' work in his normal occupation:

Provided that—

- (a) where the worker normally works for the employer on work to which this Schedule applies for less than 42 hours in the week by reason only of the fact that he does not hold himself out as normally available for work for more than the number of hours he normally works in the week, and the worker has informed his employer in writing that he does not so hold himself out, the guaranteed weekly remuneration shall be the remuneration to which the worker would be entitled (calculated as in paragraph 2) for the number of hours in the week normally worked by the worker for the employer on work to which this Schedule applies;
 - (b) where in any week a worker at his request and with the consent of his employer is absent from work during any part of his normal working hours on any day (other than a holiday allowed under Part II of this Schedule or a customary holiday or a holiday allowed to all persons in the undertaking or branch of an undertaking in which the worker is employed), the guaranteed weekly remuneration payable in respect of that week, shall be reduced in respect of each day on which he is absent as aforesaid by one-sixth where the worker's normal working week is six days or by one-fifth where his normal working week is five days.
- (3) Guaranteed weekly remuneration is not payable in respect of any week unless the worker throughout his normal working hours in that week (excluding any time allowed to him as a holiday) is
- (a) capable of and available for work; and
 - (b) willing to perform such duties outside his normal occupation as the employer may reasonably require if his normal work is not available in the establishment in which he is employed.

(4) Guaranteed weekly remuneration is not payable in respect of any week if the worker's employment is terminated before the end of that week.

(5) If the employer is unable to provide the worker with work by reason of a strike or other circumstances beyond his control and gives the worker four clear days' notice to that effect, guaranteed weekly remuneration shall not be payable after the expiry of such notice in respect of any week during which or during part of which the employer continues to be unable to provide work as aforesaid:

Provided that in respect of the week in which the said notice expires there shall be paid to the worker, in addition to any remuneration payable in respect of time worked in that week, any remuneration that would have been payable if the worker had worked his normal hours of work on every day in the week prior to the expiry of the notice.

PART II

ANNUAL HOLIDAY AND HOLIDAY REMUNERATION

ANNUAL HOLIDAY

12.—(1) Subject to the provisions of sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph an employer shall, between 1st April 1973 and 31st October 1973, and in each succeeding year between 1st April and 31st October, allow a holiday (in this Schedule referred to as an "annual holiday") to every worker in his employment to whom this Schedule applies who was employed by him during the 12 months immediately preceding the commencement of the holiday season for any one of the periods of employment (calculated in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 18) set out in the first column of the table below and the duration of the annual holiday shall in the case of each such worker be related to that period as follows:—

Period of employment										Duration of Annual Holiday
12 months										12 days
Not less than 11 months but less than 12 months										11 "
" " " 10 " " " "										10 "
" " " 9 " " " "										9 "
" " " 8 " " " "										8 "
" " " 7 " " " "										7 "
" " " 6 " " " "										6 "
" " " 5 " " " "										5 "
" " " 4 " " " "										4 "
" " " 3 " " " "										3 "
" " " 2 " " " "										2 "
" " " 1 month " " "										1 day

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of the last foregoing sub-paragraph:—

- (a) the number of days of annual holiday which an employer is required to allow to a worker in any holiday season shall not exceed in the aggregate twice the number of days constituting the worker's normal working week;
- (b) where a worker does not wish to take his annual holiday or part thereof during the holiday season in any year and, before the expiration of such holiday season, enters into an agreement in writing with his employer that the annual holiday or part thereof shall be allowed, at a date or dates to be specified in that agreement, after the expiration of the holiday season but before the commencement of the next following holiday season, then any day or days of annual holiday so allowed shall be treated as having been allowed during the holiday season.

(3) (a) In this Schedule the expression "holiday season" means in relation to the year 1973 the period commencing on 1st April 1973, and ending on 31st October 1973 and, in each succeeding year, the period commencing on 1st April and ending on 31st October of the same year.

(b) The revocation of Order R.N.T.S. (38) shall not affect the right of a worker to be allowed days of annual holiday pursuant to an agreement entered into under the provisions of paragraph 12(2)(b) of the Schedule to Order R.N.T.S. (38) in relation to the holiday season ended on 31st October 1972.

13.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this paragraph, an annual holiday shall be allowed on consecutive working days, being days on which the worker is normally called upon to work for the employer.

(2) Where the number of days of annual holiday for which a worker has qualified exceeds the number of days constituting his normal working week, the holiday may be allowed in two periods of consecutive working days; so, however, that when a holiday is so allowed, one of the periods shall consist of a number of such days not less than the number of days constituting the worker's normal working week.

(3) Where a customary holiday on which the worker is not required to work for the employer immediately precedes a period of annual holiday or occurs during such a period and the total number of days of annual holiday required to be allowed in the period under the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, together with any customary holiday, exceeds the number of days constituting the worker's normal working week, then, notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, the duration of that period of annual holiday may be reduced by one day and in such a case one day of annual holiday may be allowed on a day on which the worker normally works for the employer (not being the worker's weekly short day) in the holiday season (or after the holiday season in the circumstances specified in sub-paragraph (2)(b) of paragraph 12).

(4) A day of annual holiday under this Schedule may be allowed on a day on which the worker is entitled to a day of holiday or to a half-holiday under any enactment other than the Wages Councils Act 1959:

Provided that where the total number of days of annual holiday allowed to a worker under this Schedule is less than the number of days in his normal working week, the annual holiday allowed shall be in addition to the said day of holiday or the said half-holiday.

14. An employer shall give to a worker reasonable notice of the commencing date or dates and of the duration of his annual holiday. Such notice may be given individually to the worker or by the posting of a notice in the place where the worker is employed.

REMUNERATION FOR ANNUAL HOLIDAY

15.—(1) Subject to the provisions of paragraph 16, a worker qualified to be allowed an annual holiday under this Schedule shall be paid by his employer, on the last pay-day preceding such holiday, one day's holiday pay in respect of each day thereof.

(2) Where an annual holiday is taken in more than one period the holiday remuneration shall be apportioned accordingly.

16. Where any accrued holiday remuneration has been paid by the employer to the worker (in accordance with paragraph 17 of this Schedule or with Order R.N.T.S. (38), in respect of employment during either or both of the periods referred to in paragraph 17, the amount of holiday remuneration payable by the employer in respect of any annual holiday for which the worker has qualified by reason of employment during the said period or periods shall be reduced by the amount of the said accrued holiday remuneration, unless that remuneration has been deducted from a previous payment of holiday remuneration made under the provisions of this Schedule or of Order R.N.T.S. (38).

ACCRUED HOLIDAY REMUNERATION PAYABLE ON TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

17. Where a worker ceases to be employed after the provisions of this Schedule become effective, the employer shall, immediately on the termination of the employment (hereinafter referred to as the "termination date"), pay to the worker as accrued holiday remuneration:—

- (1) in respect of employment occurring in the 12 months up to 1st April immediately preceding the termination date, a sum equal to the holiday remuneration for any days of annual holiday for which he has qualified except days of annual holiday which he has been allowed or has become entitled to be allowed before leaving the employment; and
- (2) in respect of any employment since 1st April immediately preceding the termination date, a sum equal to the holiday remuneration which would have been payable to him if he could have been allowed an annual holiday in respect of that employment at the time of leaving it:

Provided that no worker shall be entitled to the payment by his employer of accrued holiday remuneration if he is dismissed on the grounds of misconduct and is so informed by the employer at the time of dismissal.

CALCULATION OF EMPLOYMENT

18. For the purposes of calculating any period of employment qualifying a worker for an annual holiday or for any accrued holiday remuneration under this Schedule, the worker shall be treated:—

- (1) as if he were employed for a month in respect of any month throughout which he has been in the employment of the employer and in which—
 - (a) he has worked for the employer for not less than 72 hours and has performed some work for which statutory minimum remuneration is payable; or
 - (b) he has worked for the employer for less than 72 hours, or has performed no work, solely by reason of the proved illness of or accident to the worker (provided that the number of months which may be treated as months of employment for such reasons shall not exceed two in any such period as aforesaid);
- (2) as if he were employed on any day of annual holiday allowed under the provisions of this Schedule or of Order R.N.T.S. (38) and, for the purpose of the provisions of (1) of this paragraph, a worker who is absent on such a holiday shall be treated as having worked thereon for the employer for the number of hours ordinarily worked by him on that day of the week on work for which statutory minimum remuneration is payable.
