WAGES COUNCILS

The Wages Regulation (Coffin Furniture and Cerement-making)
Order 1973Made* - - - 29th August 1973*Coming into Operation* 24th September 1973

Whereas the Secretary of State has received from the Coffin Furniture and Cerement-making Wages Council (Great Britain) the wages regulation proposals set out in Schedules 1 and 2 hereto;

Now, therefore, the Secretary of State in exercise of powers conferred by section 11 of the Wages Councils Act 1959(a), as modified by Article 2 of the Counter-Inflation (Modification of Wages Councils Act 1959) Order 1973(b), and now vested in him (c), and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following Order:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Wages Regulation (Coffin Furniture and Cerement-making) Order 1973.

2.—(1) In this Order the expression “the specified date” means the 24th September 1973, provided that where, as respects any worker who is paid wages at intervals not exceeding seven days, that date does not correspond with the beginning of the period for which the wages are paid, the expression “the specified date” means, as respects that worker, the beginning of the next such period following that date.

(2) The Interpretation Act 1889(d) shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament and as if this Order and the Order hereby revoked were Acts of Parliament.

3. The wages regulation proposals set out in Schedules 1 and 2 hereto shall have effect as from the specified date and as from that date the Wages Regulation (Coffin Furniture and Cerement-making) Order 1971(e) shall cease to have effect.

Signed by order of the Secretary of State.
29th August 1973.

W. H. Marsh,
Assistant Secretary,
Department of Employment.

FEMALE WORKERS

7. The piece work basis time rate applicable to a female worker employed on piece work in the cerement-making section is a rate equal to the general minimum time rate which would be payable if the worker were a time worker, increased by 15 per cent.

PART IV
OVERTIME AND WAITING TIME IN BOTH SECTIONS OF THE TRADE
MINIMUM OVERTIME RATES

8. Subject to the provisions of this Part of this Schedule, minimum overtime rates are payable to any worker as follows:—

- (1) On any day in the week other than a Saturday, Sunday or customary holiday—
 - (a) for the first 2 hours worked in excess of 8 hours... time-and-a-quarter
 - (b) for the next 2 hours so worked time-and-a-half
 - (c) thereafter double time
- (2) On a Saturday, not being a customary holiday—

for the first 2 hours worked	time-and-a-quarter
for the next 2 hours	time-and-a-half
thereafter	double time
- (3) On a Sunday or a customary holiday—

for all time worked	double time
---------------------	--------	-------------

Provided that where the employer normally requires the worker's attendance on Sunday and not on Saturday (except where in the case of a woman or young person such attendance on Sunday is unlawful), for the purposes of this Part of this Schedule Saturday shall be treated as a Sunday and Sunday as a Saturday.

9. In this Part of this Schedule—

(1) The expression “customary holiday” means—

(a) (i) In England and Wales—

Christmas Day; 26th December if it be not a Sunday; 27th December in a year when 25th or 26th December is a Sunday; Good Friday; Easter Monday; the last Monday in May and the last Monday in August; or where a day is substituted for any of the above days by national proclamation, that day;

(ii) In Scotland—

New Year's Day if it be not a Sunday or, if it be a Sunday, 2nd January;

the local Spring holiday;

the local Autumn holiday; and three other days (being days on which the worker normally works) in the course of a calendar year, to be fixed by the employer and notified to the worker not less than three weeks before the holiday; or

(b) in the case of each of the said days (other than a day fixed by the employer and notified to the worker as aforesaid) a day substituted therefor, being either a day recognised by local custom as a day of holiday in substitution for the said day or a day fixed by agreement between the employer and the worker or his representative.

(2) The expressions “time-and-a-quarter”, “time-and-a-half”, and “double time” mean respectively—

(a) in the case of a time worker, one and a quarter times, one and a half times and twice the general minimum time rate otherwise payable to the worker;

(b) in the case of a worker employed on piece work—

(i) a time rate equal respectively to one quarter, one half and the whole of the general minimum time rate which would be payable to the worker if he were a time worker, and a minimum overtime rate did not apply, and, in addition thereto,

(ii) the piece rates otherwise applicable to the worker under paragraph 1(1)(b).

WAITING TIME

10.—(1) A worker is entitled to payment of the minimum remuneration specified in this Schedule for all time during which he is present on the premises of the employer, unless he is present thereon in any of the following circumstances, that is to say:—

(a) without the employer's consent, express or implied;

(b) for some purpose unconnected with his work and other than that of waiting for work to be given to him to perform;

(c) by reason only of the fact that he is resident thereon; or

(d) during normal meal times in a room or place in which no work is being done, and he is not waiting for work to be given to him to perform.

(2) The minimum remuneration payable under sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph to a piece worker when not engaged on piece work is that which would be payable if he were a time worker.

PART V

GUARANTEED WEEKLY REMUNERATION

11.—(1) This paragraph applies to a worker who ordinarily works for the employer for at least 34 hours weekly on work to which statutory minimum remuneration applies under the provisions of this Schedule.

(2) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Schedule, where in any week

(a) no remuneration is payable to the worker under the foregoing provisions of this Schedule, or by way of holiday remuneration under any wages regulation order made by the Secretary of State to give effect to the proposals of the Council, or

(b) the total amount of any such remuneration is less than the guaranteed weekly remuneration provided for by this Part of this Schedule, the minimum remuneration payable to that worker for that week, in lieu of any amount aforesaid, shall, subject to the provisions of this paragraph, be the guaranteed weekly remuneration.

(3) The amount of the guaranteed weekly remuneration is 34 hours' pay calculated at the general minimum time rate ordinarily payable to the worker.

(4) Payment of the guaranteed weekly remuneration in any week is subject to the condition that the worker throughout the period of his ordinary employment in that week, excluding any day allowed to him as a holiday, is—

(a) capable of and available for work; and

(b) willing to perform such duties outside his normal occupation as the employer may reasonably require if his normal work is not available to him in the establishment in which he is employed.

(5) The guaranteed weekly remuneration shall not be payable to a worker

(a) in any week in which work is not available to him by reason of a strike or lock-out; or

(b) in any week in which the worker has been dismissed on the grounds of serious misconduct; or

(c) if at any time in the week the worker is absent from work by reason of sickness; or

(d) if at any time in the week or during the preceding four weeks the worker has been otherwise absent from work without the leave of the employer.

(6) The amount of the guaranteed weekly remuneration applicable to a piece worker shall be the sum to which he would be entitled if he were a time worker.

PART VI

(2) For the purposes of paragraph 4:—

(a) “a heavy hand press worker” is a worker employed on hand press work on any blank of which the largest diameter is 7 inches or over and the thickness of the material 48/1000ths of an inch or over;

(b) “a light hand press worker” is a worker employed on any other hand press work.

(3) For the purposes of paragraphs 3 and 4:—

- (a) “plater” means a worker employed in a plating shop who works with plating solutions;
- (b) “plater’s assistant” means a worker employed in a plating or spraying department who is normally employed in wiring up or jigging and who does not work with plating solutions.

APPLICABILITY OF STATUTORY MINIMUM REMUNERATION

13. This Schedule does not apply to any worker employed in engraving or in assisting a worker so employed or to a male worker employed in the cerement-making section of the trade, but, save as aforesaid, this Schedule applies to workers in relation to whom the Coffin Furniture and Cerement-making Wages Council (Great Britain) operates, that is to say, workers employed in Great Britain in the Coffin Furniture and Cerement-making trade specified in the Regulations with respect to the Constitution and Proceedings of the Trade Board for the Coffin Furniture and Cerement-making Trade (Great Britain) made by the Minister of Labour and dated 16th December 1919(a), that is to say:—

- (a) the manufacture wherever carried on of Coffin Furniture from any metal by any process;
- (b) the manufacture of Cerements, including shrouds, face curtains, face cloths, sidecloths, winding sheets, pillow covers, coffin pads, sleeves or frilling;

including:

- (c) the operations of folding, packing, warehousing, despatching or other operations incidental to or appertaining to the manufacture of any of the above-mentioned articles.

SCHEDULE 2

Article 3

HOLIDAYS AND HOLIDAY REMUNERATION

The Wages Regulation (Coffin Furniture and Cerement-making) (Holidays) Order 1971(b) (Order U. (81)) shall have effect as if in the Schedule thereto for sub-paragraph (2) of paragraph 2, which relates to customary holidays, there were substituted the following:—

“(2) The said customary holidays are:—

- (a) (i) In England and Wales—
Christmas Day; 26th December if it be not a Sunday; 27th December in a year when 25th or 26th December is a Sunday; Good Friday; Easter Monday; the last Monday in May and the last Monday in August; or where a day is substituted for any of the above days by national proclamation, that day;
- (ii) in Scotland—
New Year’s Day if it be not a Sunday or, if it be a Sunday, 2nd January; the local Spring holiday; and the local Autumn holiday; and three other days (being days on which the worker normally works for the employer) in the course of a calendar year to be fixed by the employer and notified to the worker not less than three weeks before the holiday; or
- (b) in the case of each of the said days (other than a day fixed by the employer and notified to the worker as aforesaid) a day substituted therefor, being either a day recognised by local custom as a day of holiday in substitution for the said day, or a day agreed between the employer and the worker or his representative.”
