ANNUAL HOLIDAY

19. An employer shall, between the date on which the provisions of this Schedule become effective and 31st December 1974, and in each succeeding year between 1st January and 31st December (hereinafter referred to as the "holiday season"), allow an annual holiday to every worker to whom this Schedule applies (other than a worker who is a Club Steward, a Club Stewardess or the wife of a Club Steward, and who ordinarily works for the employer for less than 18 hours a week). The dates between which the annual holiday is to be allowed shall be agreed between the employer and the worker, or if no agreement is reached, it shall be allowed so as to terminate not later than 31st December.

20. The duration of the annual holiday shall be determined by reference to the worker's period of employment during the 12 months immediately preceding the commencing of the holiday season (hereinafter referred to as "the qualifying period") in the following manner:—

Period of Employment						Duration of annual holiday for workers with a normal working week of—

" "	11 "	...	...	...	...	16 "	14 "	11 "	8 "
" "	12 "	...	...	...	...	18 "	15 "	12 "	9 "

Provided that—

- (1) the number of days of annual holiday to which a worker is entitled in any year shall not exceed three times the number of days constituting the worker's normal working week;
- (2) the number of days of annual holiday which an employer is required to allow to a worker during the year 1974 under the provisions of this Schedule shall be reduced by the number of any days of paid annual holiday allowed to the worker under the provisions of Order L.N.R. (92) as amended during 1974 prior to the date on which this Schedule becomes effective.

21. An annual holiday shall be allowed on consecutive working days, being days upon which the worker is normally called upon to work, and days of holiday shall be treated as consecutive notwithstanding the intervention of a public holiday or a day of holiday in lieu of a public holiday:

Provided that where a worker is entitled to more days of annual holiday than the number of days constituting his normal working week, his annual holiday may be allowed in two or more separate periods of which one shall consist of at least the number of days constituting his normal working week.

REMUNERATION FOR ANNUAL HOLIDAY

22. Subject to the provisions of this paragraph and of paragraph 23, a worker qualified to be allowed an annual holiday under this Schedule shall be paid by his employer in respect thereof, on the last pay day preceding the holiday, one day's holiday pay (as defined in paragraph 26) in respect of each day thereof:

Provided that where under the provisions of paragraph 21 an annual holiday is allowed in more than one period the holiday remuneration shall be apportioned accordingly.

23. Where under the provisions of this Schedule or of Order L.N.R. (92) as amended any accrued holiday remuneration has been paid by the employer to a worker prior to the allowance of an annual holiday in accordance with the provisions of this Schedule, the amount of holiday remuneration payable by the employer in respect of the said annual holiday under the provisions of paragraph 22 shall be reduced by the amount of any previous payment of accrued holiday remuneration in so far as it is attributable to any part of the period of employment in respect of which the said holiday has been allowed.

ACCRUED HOLIDAY REMUNERATION PAYABLE ON TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

24. Subject to the provisions of this paragraph, where a worker (other than a worker who is a Club Steward, a Club Stewardess or the wife of a Club Steward, and who ordinarily works for the employer for less than 18 hours a week) ceases to be employed by an employer after the provisions of this Schedule become effective, the employer shall immediately on the termination of the employment (hereinafter referred to as "the termination date") pay to the worker as accrued holiday remuneration:—

- (1) in respect of employment in the 12 months up to the commencing date of the current holiday season, a sum equal to the holiday remuneration to which he would be entitled under paragraph 22, calculated on the basis that he is a worker who is not provided by the employer, for the duration of the holiday, with full board, for any days of annual holiday for which he has qualified, except days of annual holiday which he has been allowed or has become entitled to be allowed before leaving the employment; and
- (2) in respect of any employment since the commencing date of the current holiday season a sum equal to the holiday remuneration to which he would be entitled under paragraph 22, calculated on the basis that he is a worker who is not provided by the employer, for the duration of the holiday, with full board, and which would have been payable to him if he could have been allowed an annual holiday in respect of that employment at the time of leaving it:

Provided that—

- (a) no worker shall be entitled to the payment by his employer of accrued holiday remuneration if—
  - (1) he is dismissed on any of the following grounds, that is to say—
    - (i) dishonesty, or
    - (ii) misconduct involving contravention of the licensing laws, or
    - (iii) gross industrial misconduct, and in each case is so informed by the employer at the time of dismissal; or
  - (2) he leaves his employment without having notified his employer, not less than one week before terminating his employment, of his intention to do so;
- (b) the amount of any accrued holiday remuneration payable at the termination date shall be reduced by the amount of any sum paid by the employer to the worker—
  - (i) as accrued holiday remuneration under the provisions of this Schedule or of Order L.N.R. (92) as amended in so far as such sum is attributable to the period or periods for which the accrued holiday remuneration is payable;
  - (ii) in respect of any day or days of holiday for which the worker had not qualified under the provisions of this Schedule or of Order L.N.R. (92) as amended and allowed during the period or periods in respect of which the accrued holiday remuneration is payable.

CALCULATION OF EMPLOYMENT

25. For the purposes of calculating any period of employment qualifying a worker for an annual holiday or for any accrued holiday remuneration under this Schedule a worker shall be treated as having been employed:—
