CUSTOMS AND EXCISE

The Anti-Dumping (Provisional Charge to Duty) Order 1975

Made - - - - 7th February 1975

Laid before the House of Commons - 10th February 1975

Coming into Operation 11th February 1975

The Secretary of State, in exercise of powers conferred by sections 1, 2, 8 and 9(3) of the Customs Duties (Dumping and Subsidies) Act 1969(a), and now vested in him (b), and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following Order:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Anti-Dumping (Provisional Charge to Duty) Order 1975 and shall come into operation on 11th February 1975.

2. Goods of the description set out in the Schedule hereto (being goods classified in the Customs Tariff 1959(c) under the heading mentioned in the first column of that Schedule) shall be subject to a provisional charge to duty in respect of a duty of customs at the rate set out in the third column of that Schedule.

3. Section 2 of the Customs Duties (Dumping and Subsidies) Act 1969 (which allows relief to be given where goods are shown not to have been dumped or where the margin of dumping is less than the provisional charge) shall apply to the provisional charge imposed by this Order.

Eric Deakins,
Parliamentary Under Secretary
of State for Trade,
Department of Trade.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order imposes a provisional charge in respect of an anti-dumping duty on imports of certain wood chipboard which originates in Romania, or which originates in Norway or Sweden and is produced by certain firms in those countries (named in the Schedule to the Order).

The making of the Order enables the Commissioners of Customs and Excise to require security for the payment of any anti-dumping duty which may be imposed retrospectively on such imports under section 8(1) of the Customs Duties (Dumping and Subsidies) Act 1969. If any duty is imposed retrospectively, it may only be so imposed on goods imported while the Order is in force, and its rate may not exceed the rate mentioned in the Schedule to the Order.

The Order expires automatically after three months unless previously revoked or extended (for not more than three months) by a further Order.

The Order applies section 2 of the 1969 Act to the charge, which enables relief to be granted where particular goods have not been dumped or the margin of dumping is less than the amount of the provisional charge.
