The Medicines (Bal Jivan Chamcho Prohibition) Order 1976

Made - - - - 8th November 1976

Laid before Parliament 9th November 1976

Coming into Operation 10th November 1976

The Secretaries of State respectively concerned with health in England, in Wales and in Scotland and the Department of Health and Social Services for Northern Ireland, acting jointly, in exercise of powers conferred by section 62(1)(a), (3), (4) and (7) of the Medicines Act 1968(a) and now vested in them(b) and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, it appearing to them to be necessary in the interests of safety to make the following order and to make the said order with immediate effect to avoid serious danger to the health of human beings, hereby make the following order:—

Citation, commencement and interpretation

1.—(1) This order which may be cited as the Medicines (Bal Jivan Chamcho Prohibition) Order 1976 shall come into operation on 10th November 1976 and, having been made in circumstances in which neither the appropriate committee nor the Medicines Commission have considered the proposals to make this order, shall cease to have effect after the end of the period of 3 months from that date.

(2) In this order, unless the context otherwise requires, “the Act” means the Medicines Act 1968 and other expressions have the same meanings as in the Act.

(3) The rules for the construction of Acts of Parliament contained in the Interpretation Act 1889(c) shall apply for the purposes of the interpretation of this order as they apply for the purposes of the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Prohibition of sale, supply and importation of Bal Jivan Chamcho

2.—(1) The medicinal products specified in paragraph (2) below are hereby designated for the purposes of section 62(1)(a) of the Act and, subject to paragraph (3) below, their sale, supply and importation is hereby prohibited.

(2) The medicinal products referred to in paragraph (1) above are those products that are presented for sale or supply as a baby tonic under the name of BAL JIVAN CHAMCHO consisting of a dark brown aromatic solid substance
