EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations.)

These Regulations amend the Industrial Tribunals (Labour Relations) (Scotland) Regulations 1974 mainly as a result of the Employment Protection Act 1975. The principal changes made include:—

- (a) a wider provision enabling the Secretary of State to appear in proceedings which may involve payments out of the Redundancy Fund;
- (b) an extension of the time limit in regard to applications for review to enable them to be made at any time from the date of the hearing until 14 days after the promulgation of the original decision;
- (c) power for the tribunal to award expenses against an employer whose failure, without a special reason, to adduce reasonable evidence in reinstatement or re-engagement cases causes an adjournment; and
- (d) a requirement that the Secretary of the Tribunals should send copies to the Equal Opportunities Commission of all tribunal decisions under the Equal Pay Act 1970 or the Sex Discrimination Act 1975.
