CUSTOMS AND EXCISE

The Anti-Dumping Duty (No. 2) Order 1977

Made - - - - -	22nd April 1977
Laid before the House of Commons	22nd April 1977
Coming into Operation - - -	22nd April 1977

Whereas by the Anti-Dumping (Provisional Charge to Duty) (No. 3) Order 1976(a), which came into operation on 25th October 1976, goods of the description set out in the Schedule hereto were made subject to a provisional charge in respect of an anti-dumping duty at the rate of 10 per cent.:

And whereas the said Order, as extended (b), remains in force:—

Now, therefore, the Secretary of State, in exercise of powers conferred by sections 1 and 8 of the Customs Duties (Dumping and Subsidies) Act 1969(c) and now vested in him(d), hereby makes the following Order:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Anti-Dumping Duty (No. 2) Order 1977 and shall come into operation on 22nd April 1977.

2. The Interpretation Act 1889(e) shall apply for the interpretation of this Order as it applies for the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3. There shall be charged on the importation into the United Kingdom of any goods of a description set out in the second column of the Schedule hereto (being goods classified in the Customs Tariff 1959(f) falling within the heading mentioned in the first column of that Schedule and being goods included within the description set out in the Schedule to the Anti-Dumping (Provisional Charge to Duty) (No. 3) Order 1976) a duty of customs at the rate set out in the third column thereof; and the said duty shall be chargeable on and after 25th October 1976: Provided that in the case of any goods of a description set out in the second column of the Schedule hereto imported into the United Kingdom up to and including 21st April 1977 the duty shall not exceed the amount of the provisional charge to duty imposed at the rate set out in column 3 of the Schedule to the Anti-Dumping (Provisional Charge to Duty) (No. 3) Order 1976.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order imposes an anti-dumping duty on imports of certain stainless steel as described in the Order originating in Spain at rates of 10%, 16% or 8% according to the metallurgical composition of the steel.

The duty is chargeable retrospectively as from 25th October 1976 (when such goods became subject to a provisional charge). In the case of goods imported up to and including 21st April 1977 the amount of duty shall not exceed the amount of the provisional charge to duty imposed under the Anti-Dumping (Provisional Charge to Duty) (No. 3) Order 1976.
