(b) in respect of his attendance at any full-time course of initial training as a teacher of one academic year's duration, or a comparable part-time course, not within sub-paragraph (a) above, unless he has for more than three years held a statutory award in respect of his attendance at a full-time course of advanced further education or a comparable course outside England and Wales.

- and, after consulting the academic authority concerned, an authority may refuse the transfer of an award as aforesaid if they are satisfied that when the student applied for it he did not intend to complete the course to which his application related.
- (3) An award shall not be transferred in pursuance of paragraph (1)(d) or (f) so as to be held in respect of his attendance at a course which would not ordinarily be completed within the following period of the beginning of the course in respect of which the award was originally bestowed, namely—

- (4) For the purposes of the duty of an authority to transfer an award in pursuance of paragraph (1)(c), (d), (e) or (f) it shall be immaterial whether or not the two courses are provided by the same establishment.

Termination of awards

15.—(1) An award shall terminate on the expiry of the period ordinarily required for the completion of the course:

Provided that—

 - (b) shown himself by his conduct to be unfitted to hold the award.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), paragraph (4) shall apply in the case of a student who—

(a) has previously attended a course of advanced further education being—

(i) a course of up to two academic years' duration, in the case of one designated by or under Regulation 10(1), or

- (5) In this Regulation any reference—

- (a) to the ordinary duration of a course is a reference to the period ordinarily required for its completion by a student who is not excused part of the course on account of his having attended a previous course (ignoring, in the case of a sandwich course, periods of experience);

PART 2

PARENTAL CONTRIBUTION

Definitions and construction of Part 2

2.—(1) In this Part of this Schedule—

“child” includes a person adopted in pursuance of adoption proceedings and a step-child but, except in paragraph 4, does not include a child who holds a statutory award; and, except as otherwise provided by paragraph 5, “parent” shall be construed accordingly;

“gross income” has the meaning assigned to it by paragraph 5;

“income of the student's parent” means the total income of the parent from all sources computed as for income tax purposes, except as otherwise provided by paragraph 5 and except that no deduction shall be made which is in respect of personal reliefs under Chapter II of Part I of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1970(c) or which is otherwise of a kind for which provision is made by paragraph 6;

“residual income” means, subject to sub-paragraph (2), the balance of gross income remaining in any year after the deductions specified in paragraph 6 have been made.

(2) Where, in a case not falling within paragraph 5(3) or (4), the authority are satisfied that the income of the parent in any financial year is as a result of some event beyond his control likely to be, and to continue after that year to be, not more than 85% of his income in the financial year preceding that year, they may, for the purpose of enabling the student to attend the course without hardship, ascertain the parental contribution for the year of his course in which that event occurred by taking as the residual income the average of the residual income for each of the financial years in which that year falls.

(3) Where the student's parent satisfies the authority that his income is wholly or mainly derived from the profits of a business or profession carried on by him, then, if the authority and the parent so agree, any reference in this Part of this Schedule to a financial year shall be construed as a reference to a year ending with such date as appears to the authority expedient having regard to the accounts kept in respect of that business or profession and the periods covered thereby.

(a) 1975 c. 14, amended by section 22 of the Social Security Pensions Act 1975 (c. 60).

(b) 1972 c. 47.

(c) 1970 c. 10.

SCHEDULE 3 (contd.)

Application of Part 2

3. A parental contribution ascertained in accordance with this Part shall be applicable in the case of every student except—

- (a) an independent student;
- (b) a student who has no parent living or in respect of whom the authority are satisfied either—
 - (i) that his parents cannot be found, or
 - (ii) that it is not reasonably practicable to get in touch with them;
- (c) a student who has been in the care of a local authority or in care of a voluntary organisation within the meaning of section 88 of the Children Act 1975(a) throughout the three years immediately preceding—
 - (i) the first year of his course, or
 - (ii) without prejudice to sub-paragraph (i), his attaining the age of 18 years where he had attained that age before the first year of his course, and has not, at any time in the said period, been allowed by the local authority to be under the charge and control of his parents or, in the case of a student who has been in the care of a voluntary organisation, has not, at any such time, in fact been under such charge and control.

Parental contribution

4.—(1) Subject to sub-paragraph (2), the parental contribution shall be—

- (a) in any case in which the residual income is £6,600 or more but less than £8,300, £20 with the addition of £1 for every complete £7 by which it exceeds £6,600;
- (b) in any case in which the residual income is £8,300 or more but less than £13,200, £262 with the addition of £1 for every complete £8 by which it exceeds £8,300; and
- (c) in any case in which the residual income is £13,200 or more, £874 with the addition of £1 for every complete £13 by which it exceeds £13,200;

(2) For any year in which a statutory award is held by—

- (a) more than one child of the parent;
- (b) the parent; or
- (c) the student's step-parent—

the parental contribution for the student shall be such proportion of any contribution ascertained in accordance with this Part as the authority (after consultation with any other authority concerned) consider just.

Gross income

5.—(1) For the purposes of this paragraph “preceding financial year” means the financial year preceding the year in respect of which the resources of the student fall to be assessed and “current financial year” means the financial year which includes the first day of that year:

Provided that where references to a financial year fall to be construed in accordance with paragraph 2(3) as references to a year ending less than five months before the beginning of a year of the student's course, “preceding financial year” shall mean the year last ending five or more months before the year in respect of which the resources of the student fall to be assessed and “current financial year” shall mean the year ending within those five months.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this paragraph, "gross income" means the income of the student's parent in the preceding financial year or, for the purpose of calculating residual income under paragraph 2(2), in a financial year there mentioned.

(3) Where the authority are satisfied that the income of the parent in the current financial year is likely to be not more than 85% of his income for the preceding financial year, they may for the purpose of calculating the parental contribution ascertain the gross income by reference to the current financial year; and, in such case, paragraph (2) shall have effect, in relation to the year in respect of which the student's resources fall to be assessed and, if the authority so determine, any subsequent year, as if the reference therein to the preceding financial year were a reference to the current financial year.

(4) Where one of the student's parents has died in either the preceding or the current financial year and the authority are satisfied that the income of the surviving parent in the current financial year, when aggregated with that of the deceased parent where he died in that year, is likely to be less than their aggregated income in the preceding financial year, they may for the purpose of calculating the parental contribution ascertain the gross income by reference to the current financial year; and, in such case, paragraph (2) shall have effect, in relation to the year in which the student's resources fall to be assessed as if the reference therein to the preceding financial year were a reference to the current financial year and, if the deceased parent died in that year, the reference to the student's parent included a reference to his deceased parent.

(5) Where, in pursuance of any trust deed or other instrument or by virtue of section 31(1) of the Trustee Act 1925(a) or any other enactment, any income is applied by any person for or towards the maintenance, education or other benefit of the student or of any person dependent on the student's parent, or payments made to his parent are required to be so applied, that income, or those payments, shall be treated as part of the gross income of the parent.

(6) Any dividends or interest paid or credited to the parent by a building society which has entered into arrangements with the Commissioners of Inland Revenue under section 343(1) of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1970 shall be deemed to have been received by him after deduction of income tax at the reduced rate determined under those arrangements for the year of assessment in which the dividends or interest are paid or credited; and the amount deemed to have been so deducted shall be treated as part of his gross income.

(7) Where any such benefit as is mentioned in paragraph 1(b)(i) of Part 1 of this Schedule is provided, by reason of the parent's employment, for any member of his family or household who holds a statutory award (whether the student or some other such member) then, notwithstanding the provisions of section 61 of the Finance Act 1976(b), that benefit shall not be treated as part of the gross income of the parent.

(8) There shall be treated as part of the gross income all income arising from an office or employment which by virtue of any enactment is, as such exempt from tax.

(9) Where the parents do not ordinarily live together the parental contribution shall be ascertained by reference to the income of whichever parent the authority consider the more appropriate in the circumstances.

(10) Where one of the student's parents is his step-parent, the parental contribution shall be ascertained by reference only to the income of the other parent.

Deductions

6.—(1) For the purpose of determining a parent's residual income there shall be deducted from his gross income—

- (a) in respect of any person, other than a spouse, child or holder of a statutory award, dependent on the parent during the year for which the contribution falls to be ascertained, the amount by which ~~£845~~ exceeds the income of that person in that year;

(b) 1976 c. 40.

SCHEDULE 3 (contd.)

 - (c) the gross amount of any contributions to a dependant's pension scheme (being contributions in respect of which relief is given under the Income Tax Acts);
 - (d) the aggregate gross amount of any other contributions to a pension or superannuation fund or scheme and of any premiums on a policy of life assurance (being contributions or premiums in respect of which relief is given under the Income Tax Acts) or so much of that amount as does not exceed 15% of the parent's gross income;
 - (e) where the parents ordinarily live together and one of them is incapacitated, so much of the cost in wages of domestic assistance as does not exceed £675;

 - (g) in respect of additional expenditure incurred by reason of the fact that the parent lives in a place where the cost of living is higher than that cost in the United Kingdom, such sum (if any) as the authority consider reasonable in all the circumstances;
 - (h) in the case of a parent who holds a statutory award, the amount by which the aggregate of his requirements for his ordinary maintenance (ascertained in accordance with Part 1 of Schedule 2) and £345 exceeds the sum payable in respect of maintenance in pursuance of that award.
- (2) Where the student holds an award bestowed in respect of his attendance at a course beginning before September 1975, for the purpose aforesaid there shall also be deducted from the parent's gross income so much of any expenditure in respect of a child or payments under covenant as—
- (a) would have been deductible by virtue of sub-paragraph (10), (11) or (12) of paragraph 6 of Schedule 2 to the Awards (First Degree etc. Courses) Regulations 1971 (or provisions to the like effect contained in arrangements made under section 2(3) of the Education Act 1962); and

(2) The spouse's contribution shall be—

(3) If the student marries during any year for which the contribution falls to be ascertained the contribution for that year shall be the fraction of the sum ascertained in accordance with the provisions of sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) of which the denominator is 52 and the numerator is the number of complete weeks between the date of the marriage and whichever is the earlier of the end of that year and the end of the course.

(4) If the student's marriage terminates during any year for which the contribution falls to be ascertained the contribution for that year shall be the fraction of the sum ascertained in accordance with the provisions of sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) of which the denominator is 52 and the numerator is the number of complete weeks between the beginning of that year and the termination of the marriage.

(2) In the case of a student studying modern languages whose course includes periods of residence in a country whose language is a main language of that course, “periods of experience” means such periods of residence for which he is in gainful employment.

(3) For the purposes of determining the prescribed proportion or the modified proportion where the number of weeks in question is not a whole number, a day shall be reckoned as a seventh of a week.

The Education (Mandatory Awards) (Amendment) (No. 2) Regulations 1980	S.I. 1980/1247
The Education (Mandatory Awards) (Amendment) (No. 3) Regulations 1980	S.I. 1980/1352

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations.)

These Regulations, which come into operation on 1st September 1981, consolidate, with amendments, the Education (Mandatory Awards) Regulations 1980 and the Regulations amending those Regulations. Changes (other than minor drafting and consequential changes) are indicated by the use of heavy type; the principal changes are described below.

The present Regulations increase awards and relax the means test applicable to the maintenance element thereof; changed sums are specified in Regulations 17, 21 and 22 and in Schedules 1 to 4.

Regulation 11(2)(c) relaxes the provisions relating to the time by which applications for awards are to be made in the case of refugee students.

Regulation 12, unlike the corresponding provision of the Regulations of 1980, permits of an award to a student under the age of 25 years who has previously attended a course of non-advanced further education of two years' or longer duration. Regulation 13, similarly, does not make an award in respect of a course comparable to a first degree course conditional upon the student having a specified qualification (Schedule 5 to the Regulations of 1980, which specified qualifications, is not reproduced).
