EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations.)

The Principal regulations dispensed with the need to deliver an account for the purposes of capital transfer tax where (subject to specified exceptions) the value of the deceased's estate did not exceed £25,000 (where the deceased died on or after 1st April 1981). These regulations increase that limit to £40,000 for deaths on or after 1st April 1983, and increase from £1,000 to £2,000 the value in respect of property situated outside the United Kingdom which may be included in the £40,000 limit.
