Rhodes Boyson
Minister of State
Department of Health and Social Security

EXPLANATORY NOTE

These Regulations further amend Schedules 1 and 3 to the Social Security (Categorisation of Earners) Regulations 1978 by alterations to paragraphs 4 and 12 of Schedule 1, and to paragraph 6 of Schedule 3.

Paragraph 4 makes provision for persons employed to give instruction in an educational establishment to be treated as employed earners, if the conditions in paragraph 4 in Column (A) of Schedule 1 are satisfied. The amendment in regulation 2 excepts from such treatment persons who have agreed, prior to giving the instruction, to give it on not more than three days in three consecutive months, or persons giving instruction as public lectures. Regulation 4 makes an amendment consequent on the foregoing.

Paragraph 12 disregards for contribution purposes employment as a member of an international headquarters or defence organisation designated under section 1 of the International Headquarters and Defence Organisations Act 1964 (c. 5). The amendment contained in regulation 3 provides that in the case of a civilian, such employment is not disregarded where the civilian is not a member of a scheme established by the headquarters or organisation concerned, which provides a pension or gratuity on cessation of the employment.
