EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order makes provision for modification of the Social Security Act 1975, and that part of the Child Benefit Act 1975 which relates to child benefit, so as to give effect in England, Wales and Scotland to the provisions contained in the Protocol (set out in the Schedule) amending the Convention on social security signed at London on 29th April 1957 between the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and the Government of Israel.

The amendments take account of changes in the legislations of the Contracting Parties and provide for the aggregation of insurance periods in determining entitlement to some long-term benefits, for the continuation of insurance for a maximum of 5 years from an insured person's transfer from one country to the other, for the waiving of residence conditions in relation to guardian's allowance and for the prevention of simultaneous entitlement to child benefit under the legislations of both Contracting Parties.
