The Savings Certificates (Yearly Plan) Regulations 1984

MISCELLANEOUS

Obligation of secrecy

31.—(1) A person employed in connection with business arising under these Regulations shall not disclose to any person, other than the Director of Savings or a person employed in carrying these Regulations into execution, the name of any person to whom the terms of an agreement apply or the holder of any certificate, the number of certificates held by any person, or agreements entered into by or on behalf of any person, or the amount repaid under any agreement or in respect of any certificate.

(2) The last foregoing paragraph shall not prevent the disclosure by a person authorised for the purpose by the Director of Savings of information to any person in connection with an offence committed with reference to any agreement or certificate or for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not an offence has been so committed.
