NOTICE THAT A BUILDING HAS BECOME LISTEDIMPORTANT—THIS COMMUNICATION AFFECTS YOUR PROPERTYTOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1971BUILDINGS OF SPECIAL ARCHITECTURAL OR HISTORIC INTEREST

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

To:

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the building known as _____ situated in _____ has been included in a list of buildings of special architectural or historic interest compiled by the [Secretary of State for the Environment] [Secretary of State for Wales] under section 54 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971 on _____ 19 _____.

Date _____ 19 _____ [Town Clerk]
[Clerk of the Council]
[Chief Executive]

Note

Listing of Buildings of Special Architectural or Historic Interest

The above notice is addressed to you as owner or occupier of the building named, which has been included in one of the lists of buildings of special architectural or historic interest under section 54 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971 by the [Secretary of State for the Environment] [Secretary of State for Wales]. The lists are compiled by the Secretary of State as a statutory duty after consultation with [the Historic Buildings and Monuments Commission for England and with such other]* persons or bodies as appear to him appropriate as having special knowledge of, or interest in, buildings of architectural or historic interest.

This notice does not call for any action on your part unless you propose at any time to demolish the building or to do any works (either to the exterior or the interior) which would affect its character. In that event you will need to seek "listed building consent", that is to say, the consent of the local planning authority (the _____ Council) to the work you wish to do.

You should however note that it is an offence to carry out any of these works without obtaining listed building consent. A conviction for this offence could result in a fine or even imprisonment. Nevertheless where works which were urgently necessary in the interests of safety or of health or for the preservation of the building were carried out without consent it is a defence to prove that—

- (a) it was not practicable to secure safety or health or the preservation of the building by works of repair or works for affording temporary support or shelter;
- (b) the works carried out were limited to the minimum measures immediately necessary; and
- (c) notice in writing justifying in detail the carrying out of the works was given to the local planning authority as soon as reasonably practicable.

Certain buildings are exempt from the requirement to obtain listed building consent, notably ecclesiastical buildings which are for the time being used for ecclesiastical purposes (but it should also be noted that this exemption does not apply to a building used or available for use as a residence by a minister of religion and that the exemption may be restricted or excluded by an order of the Secretary of State under section 58AA of the 1971 Act).

Although there is no statutory right of appeal as such against the listing of a building, you are not precluded at any time from writing to the Secretary of State claiming that the building should cease to be listed, on the ground that it is not in fact of special architectural or historic interest; and any such claim, with the evidence supporting it, will be carefully considered by the Secretary of State in consultation with his statutory advisers. A guidance note on the procedure is available from the Secretary of State. In addition, where listed building consent is refused by a local planning authority or is granted subject to conditions, there is a right of appeal to the [Secretary of State for the Environment] [Secretary of State for Wales]; and one of the grounds for an appeal may be that the building is not of special architectural or historic interest.

If at any time you propose to take any action which may affect the character of your building, you would be well advised to refer to the provisions of the Town and Country Planning Act 1971, Part IV and Schedule 11, and of the Town and Country Planning (Listed Buildings and Buildings in Conservation Areas) Regulations 1987 (S.I. 1987/349). Further details can be obtained from your local planning authority.

* Inapplicable where building is situated in Wales.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations make procedural provision for applications for listed building consent, for consent to demolish certain buildings in conservation areas (in the regulations referred to as “conservation area consent”), for the variation or discharge of conditions attached to listed building consents or conservation area consents, and for appeals in respect of these matters.

The Regulations also provide for notices and for other procedural provisions in relation to listed buildings and buildings in conservation areas, and for the application and modification of legislation in relation to enforcement notices and conservation areas.

The Regulations revoke and re-enact, with amendments, the Town and Country Planning (Listed Buildings and Buildings in Conservation Areas) Regulations 1977, as amended by the Town and Country Planning (Local Government Reorganisation) (Miscellaneous Amendments) Regulations

1986 and take account of the provisions of the Housing and Planning Act 1986. The principal amendments are as follows—

- (a) provision is made, in consequence of the 1986 Act, for applications and appeals in respect of the variation or discharge of conditions attached to a listed building consent or a conservation area consent (regulations 4 and 8); and
- (b) the application to buildings in conservation areas of various listed building enactments has been extended as a result of the 1986 Act (regulation 12).

A number of minor drafting amendments have been made.
