(2) Where the capital of a child or young person, if calculated in accordance with Chapter VI in like manner as for the claimant, except where otherwise provided, would exceed £3000, any income of that child or young person shall not be treated as income of the claimant.

Treatment of students

37. These Regulations shall have effect in relation to students and their partners subject to the following provisions of this Part.

CHAPTER II

Calculation of grant income

38.—(1) The amount of a student’s grant income to be taken into account shall, subject to paragraph (2), be the whole of his grant income.

(2) There shall be excluded from a student’s grant income any payment—

- (a) intended to meet tuition fees or examination fees;
- (b) intended to meet the cost of special equipment for a student on a course which began before 1st September 1986 in architecture, art and design, home economics, landscape architecture, medicine, music, ophthalmic optics, orthoptics, physical education, physiotherapy, radiography, occupational therapy, dental hygiene, dental therapy, remedial gymnastics, town and country planning and veterinary science or medicine;
- (c) in respect of the student’s disability;
- (d) intended to meet additional expenditure connected with term time residential study away from the student’s educational establishment;
- (e) on account of the student maintaining a home at a place other than that at which he resides during his course;
- (f) on account of any other person but only if that person is residing outside of the United Kingdom and there is no applicable amount in respect of him;
- (g) intended to meet the cost of books and equipment (other than special equipment) or, in the case of a full-time student, if not so intended an amount equal to £220 towards such costs;
- (h) intended to meet travel expenses incurred as a result of his attendance on the course.

(3) A student’s grant income shall be apportioned—

- (a) subject to paragraph (4), in a case where it is attributable to the period of study, equally between the weeks in that period;
- (b) in any other case, equally between the weeks in the period in respect of which it is payable.

(54) S.I. 1988/1360.

(4) In the case of a student on a sandwich course, any periods of experience within the period of study shall be excluded and the student's grant income shall be apportioned equally between the remaining weeks in that period.

Calculation of covenant income where a contribution is assessed

39.—(1) Where a student is in receipt of income by way of a grant during a period of study and a contribution has been assessed, the amount of his covenant income to be taken into account for that period and any summer vacation immediately following shall be the whole amount of the covenant income less, subject to paragraph (3), the amount of the contribution and the amount deducted by way of tax in respect of that income.

(2) The weekly amount of the student's covenant income shall be determined—

- (a) by dividing the amount of income which falls to be taken into account under paragraph (1) by 52 or 53, whichever is reasonable in the circumstances; and
- (b) by disregarding from the resulting amount, £5.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (1), the contribution shall be treated as increased by the amount (if any) by which the amount excluded under regulation 38(2)(h) (calculation of grant income) falls short of the amount included in the standard maintenance grant to meet travel expenses.

Covenant income where no grant income or no contribution is assessed

40.—(1) Where a student is not in receipt of income by way of a grant the amount of his covenant income shall be calculated as follows—

- (a) any sums intended for any expenditure specified in regulation 38(2)(a) to (f) (calculation of grant income) necessary as a result of his attendance on the course shall be disregarded;
- (b) any covenant income, up to the amount of the standard maintenance grant, which is not so disregarded, shall be apportioned equally between the weeks of the period of study;
- (c) there shall be disregarded from the amount so apportioned the amount which would have been disregarded under regulation 38(2)(g) and (h) (calculation of grant income) had the student been in receipt of the standard maintenance grant;
- (d) there shall be deducted from any amount in excess of the sums in sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) the amount deducted by way of tax in respect of the covenanted income; and
- (e) the balance, if any, shall be divided by 52 or 53 whichever is reasonable in the circumstances and treated as weekly income of which £5 shall be disregarded.

(2) Where a student is in receipt of income by way of a grant and no contribution has been assessed, the amount of his covenanted income shall be calculated in accordance with sub-paragraphs (a) to (e) of paragraph (1), except that—

- (a) the value of the standard maintenance grant shall be abated by the amount of such grant income less an amount equal to the amount of any sums disregarded under regulation 38(2)(a) to (f); and
- (b) the amount to be disregarded under paragraph (1)(c) shall be abated by an amount equal to the amount of any sums disregarded under regulation 38(2)(g) and (h).

Relationship with amounts to be disregarded under Schedule 3

41. No part of a student's covenant income or grant income shall be disregarded under paragraph 13 of Schedule 3 and any other income shall be disregarded thereunder only if, and to the extent that, the amount disregarded under regulation 39(2)(b) (calculation of covenant income where a contribution is assessed) or, as the case may be, 40(1)(e) (covenant income where no grant income or no contribution is assessed) is less than £5.

Other amounts to be disregarded

42. For the purposes of ascertaining income other than grant income and covenant income, any amounts intended for any expenditure specified in regulation 38(2) (calculation of grant income), necessary as a result of his attendance on the course shall be disregarded but only if, and to the extent that, the necessary expenditure exceeds or is likely to exceed the amount of the sums disregarded under regulation 38(2), 39(3) or 40(1)(a) or (c) (calculation of grant and covenant income) on like expenditure.

Disregard of contribution and rent

43.—(1) Where the claimant or his partner is a student and the income of one is taken into account for the purposes of assessing a contribution to the student's grant, an amount equal to the contribution shall be disregarded for the purposes of calculating the income of the one liable to make that contribution.

(2) In ascertaining the weekly income of a student during the period of study there shall be disregarded an amount equal to any amount by which his rent is reduced for the purposes of regulation 51(1) of the Housing Benefit (General) Regulations 1987⁽⁵⁵⁾ (eligible rent) or if he has no income or his income is less than the amount to be so disregarded a deduction shall be made from the income of his partner (if any) but only to the extent of the difference.

Income treated as capital

44. Any amount by way of a refund of tax deducted from a student's covenant income shall be treated as capital.

Disregard of changes occurring during summer vacation

45. In calculating a student's income the appropriate authority shall disregard any change in the standard maintenance grant, occurring in the recognised summer vacation appropriate to the student's course, if that vacation does not form part of his period of study from the date on which the change occurred to the end of that vacation.

PART VI

AMOUNT OF BENEFIT

Maximum housing benefit

46.—(1) Except in a case to which paragraph (2) applies the amount of a person's maximum housing benefit shall be—

(a) 80% of his liability for a personal community charge;

or

(b) 80% of his liability for a collective community charge contribution; and shall be calculated on a weekly basis in accordance with regulation 56 (calculation of weekly amounts).

(55) S.I. 1987/1971.

(2) Where a claim for housing benefit is made by or on behalf of a couple or the members of a polygamous marriage, the maximum housing benefit in respect of that couple or those members shall be 80% of the aggregate of the personal community charges or collective community charge contributions for which they are liable, except that where any member of that couple or marriage is a registered student the liability of that member for any such charge or contribution shall be disregarded.

(3) In calculating a person's maximum housing benefit, any reduction to which Schedule 2 paragraph 4A of the 1987 Act⁽⁵⁶⁾ refers shall be disregarded.

Housing benefit taper

47. The prescribed percentage for the purpose of subsection (5) of section 21 of the Act (percentage of excess of income over applicable amount which is deducted from maximum housing benefit) shall be, in calculating the amount of housing benefit, 15%.

Amount of housing benefit for members of a couple

48.—(1) Subject to regulation 50 (amount of housing benefit for partners of registered students) in calculating the amount of housing benefit to which the members of a couple are entitled for any period, paragraphs (2) or (3) shall apply.

(2) Where the members of a couple have no income or their income calculated in accordance with Part IV does not exceed the applicable amount, the housing benefit to which either member is entitled shall be determined by dividing the maximum housing benefit proportionately to each member's liability for a personal community charge or collective community charge contribution for that period.

(3) Where a couple's income calculated in accordance with Part IV exceeds the applicable amount and there is an amount remaining after deducting from the maximum housing benefit the percentage prescribed in regulation 47 (housing benefit taper) of the excess of their income over the applicable amount, then the housing benefit to which either member is entitled shall be determined by dividing the amount remaining proportionately to each member's liability for a personal community charge or collective community charge contribution for that period.

Amount of housing benefit for members of a polygamous marriage

49.—(1) Subject to regulation 50 (amount of housing benefit for partners of registered students), in calculating the amount of housing benefit to which the members of a polygamous marriage are entitled for any period, paragraphs (2) and (3) shall apply.

(2) Where the members of a polygamous marriage have no income or their income calculated in accordance with Part IV does not exceed the applicable amount, the housing benefit to which each member is entitled shall be determined by dividing the maximum housing benefit proportionately to each member's liability for a personal community charge or collective community charge contribution for that period.

(3) Where the income of the members of a polygamous marriage calculated in accordance with Part IV exceeds the applicable amount and there is an amount remaining after deducting from the maximum housing benefit the percentage prescribed in regulation 47 (housing benefit taper) of the excess of their income over the applicable amount, then the housing benefit to which each member is entitled shall be determined by dividing the amount remaining proportionately to each member's liability for a personal community charge or collective community charge contribution for that period.

⁽⁵⁶⁾ Schedule 2, paragraph 4A was inserted in the 1987 Act by the Local Government Finance Act 1988 (c. 41), Schedule 12, paragraph 36(6).

Amount of housing benefit for partners of registered students

50.—(1) The amount of housing benefit to which the partner of a registered student is entitled for any period shall be determined in accordance with the following paragraphs.

(2) Where the members of a couple or of a polygamous marriage have no income, or their income calculated in accordance with Part IV does not exceed their applicable amount,—

- (a) in the case of a couple, the housing benefit to which the partner of the registered student is entitled shall be the maximum housing benefit;
- (b) in the case of a polygamous marriage, the housing benefit to which the members of that marriage, other than the registered student, are entitled shall be determined by dividing the maximum housing benefit proportionately to each member's liability for a personal community charge or collective community charge contributions for that period.

(3) Where the income of a couple or of the members of a polygamous marriage calculated in accordance with Part IV exceeds their applicable amount and there is an amount remaining after deducting from the maximum housing benefit the percentage prescribed in regulation 47 (housing benefit taper) of the excess of their income over the applicable amount,

- (a) in the case of a couple, the housing benefit to which the partner of the registered student is entitled shall be the amount remaining after the deduction has been made;
- (b) in the case of a polygamous marriage, the housing benefit to which the members of that marriage, other than the registered student, are entitled shall be determined by dividing the amount remaining after the deduction has been made, proportionately to each member's liability for a personal community charge or collective community charge contribution for that period.

Minimum housing benefit

51. Housing benefit shall not be payable in respect of any claim where the weekly amount awarded in consequence of that claim would be less than 50 pence.

PART VII

BENEFIT PERIODS, CHANGES OF CIRCUMSTANCES AND CALCULATION OF WEEKLY AMOUNTS

Date on which entitlement is to begin

52.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3) and to regulation 59(15) to (17) (renewal claims) any person by whom or in respect of whom a claim for housing benefit is made and who is otherwise entitled to that benefit shall be so entitled from the benefit week following the date on which that claim is made or is treated as made.

(2) Where a person is otherwise entitled to housing benefit and becomes liable to pay a personal community charge on a day immediately prior to which he was not so liable or was a registered student, he shall be so entitled from the day on which his claim is made or is treated as made.

(3) Where a person who is otherwise entitled to housing benefit becomes liable for a collective community charge contribution in respect of his residence in premises in respect of which the collective community charge is payable, he shall be so entitled from the day on which his claim is made or is treated as made.

Benefit period

53.—(1) Where a person is entitled to housing benefit the appropriate authority shall make an award for a specified period (“the benefit period”) commencing with—

- (a) the first benefit week in respect of which he is so entitled; or if later
- (b) the benefit week in which the claim is received at the designated office.

(2) The benefit period shall be such number of benefit weeks as the appropriate authority shall determine having regard in particular to any relevant circumstances which the appropriate authority reasonably expects may affect entitlement in the future.

(3) Subject to paragraph (4), the benefit period shall not exceed 60 benefit weeks.

(4) Where a claimant either is on income support or, although not in receipt thereof, has included in the calculation of his applicable amount the disability premium, the severe disability premium or the higher pensioner premium, and a claim for a further award of housing benefit has not been made by the last benefit week of his benefit period, the appropriate authority may extend the current benefit period by not more than 4 benefit weeks.

Date on which benefit period is to end

54. The benefit period shall end with the last day of the final week of that period, determined by the appropriate authority in accordance with regulation 53(2) to (4) (benefit period) unless—

- (a) the claimant is a person on income support and he ceases to be so entitled; or
- (b) the appropriate authority determines that some other change of circumstances has occurred which should result in the benefit period ending with an earlier week, when the benefit period shall end with the last day of the final benefit week for which he is entitled to housing benefit.

Date on which change of circumstances is to take effect

55.—(1) Except in cases where regulation 16 (disregard of changes in tax, contributions, etc) applies and subject to paragraphs (2) to (4), a change of circumstances which affects entitlement to, or the amount of, housing benefit (“change of circumstances”), shall take effect from the first day of the benefit week following the date on which the change actually occurs, and where that change is cessation of entitlement to any benefit under the benefit Acts⁽⁵⁷⁾, the date on which the change actually occurs shall be the day immediately following the last day of entitlement to that benefit.

(2) Where the change of circumstances is a change in the amount of a personal community charge of collective community charge contributions payable, it shall take effect from the day on which it actually occurs.

(3) Where the change of circumstances is an amendment to these Regulations, it shall take effect from the date on which the amendment to these Regulations comes into force.

(4) If two or more changes of circumstances occurring in the same benefit week would, but for this paragraph, take effect in different benefit weeks in accordance with paragraphs (1) to (3), they shall take effect from the first day of the benefit week in which they occur unless one of the changes is a change to which paragraphs (2) or (3) above refers, when they shall have effect from the day to which the relevant paragraph refers or, where more than one day is concerned, from the earlier day.

⁽⁵⁷⁾ The benefit Acts are specified in section 84(1) of the Social Security Act 1986 (c. 50).

Calculation of weekly amounts

56.—(1) In calculating the amount of housing benefit to which a person is entitled in respect of any benefit week, the appropriate authority shall take account of any personal community charge or collective community charge contributions for which that person is liable in respect of that week having regard to the manner in which that charge or those contributions are payable.

(2) Any amount determined under these Regulations including any amount to which the members of a couple or of a polygamous marriage may be entitled may, if it is appropriate, be rounded to the nearest whole penny by disregarding any amount less than half a penny and treating any amount of half a penny or more as a whole penny.

Increases of weekly amounts for exceptional circumstances

57. The appropriate authority may modify the provisions of Part VI of these Regulations (amount of benefit) so that, if it considers the circumstances of a person for whom a claim for housing benefit has been made to be exceptional, the amount of housing benefit to be paid in his case may be increased to an extent which does not cause the total housing benefit to be paid to him for any week to exceed his maximum housing benefit for that week.

PART VIII

CLAIMS

Who may claim

58.—(1) In the case of a married or unmarried couple or members of a polygamous marriage a claim shall be made by whichever one of them they agree should so claim or, in default of agreement, by such one of them as the appropriate authority shall determine and such a claim shall be on account of any housing benefit to which both or all of them may be entitled.

(2) Where a person who is liable to make payments in respect of any personal community charge or collective community charge contributions is unable for the time being to act, and—

- (a) his estate is being administered by a curator, judicial factor or other guardian acting or appointed in terms of law; or
- (b) in England and Wales a receiver has been appointed by the Court of Protection with power to claim, or as the case may be, receive benefit on his behalf; or
- (c) in England and Wales an attorney with a general power or a power to claim or as the case may be, receive benefit, has been appointed by that person under the Powers of Attorney Act 1971⁽⁵⁸⁾ or the Enduring Powers of Attorney Act 1985⁽⁵⁹⁾ or otherwise, that curator, judicial factor, other guardian, receiver or attorney, as the case may be, may make a claim on behalf of that person.

(3) Where a person who is liable to make payments in respect of any personal community charge or collective community charge contribution is unable for the time being to act and paragraph (2) does not apply to him, the appropriate authority may, upon written application made to them by a person who, if a natural person, is over the age of 18, appoint that person to exercise on behalf of the person who is unable to act, any right to which that person might be entitled under the Act and to receive and deal on his behalf with any sums payable to him.

(4) Where the appropriate authority has made an appointment under paragraph (3)—

⁽⁵⁸⁾ 1971 c. 27.

⁽⁵⁹⁾ 1985 c. 29.

- (a) it may at any time revoke the appointment;
- (b) the person appointed may resign his office after having given 4 weeks notice in writing to the appropriate authority of his intention to do so;
- (c) any such appointment shall terminate when the appropriate authority is notified of the appointment of a person mentioned in paragraph (2).

(5) Where a person who is liable to make payments in respect of any personal community charge or collective community charge contributions is for the time being unable to act and the Secretary of State has appointed a person to act on his behalf for the purposes of the Act, the appropriate authority may if that person so requests in writing, treat him as if he had been appointed by them under paragraph (3).

(6) Anything required by these Regulations to be done by or to any person who is for the time being unable to act may be done by or to the person mentioned in paragraph (2) above or by or to the person appointed or treated as appointed under this regulation and the receipt of any such person so appointed shall be a good discharge to the appropriate authority for any sum paid.

Time and manner in which claims are to be made

59.—(1) Every claim shall be in writing and made on a properly completed form approved for the purpose by the appropriate authority or in such written form as the appropriate authority may accept as sufficient in the circumstances of any particular case or class of cases and be accompanied by or supplemented by such certificates, documents, information and evidence as are required in accordance with regulation 61(1) (evidence and information).

(2) Initial claims for housing benefit under these Regulations may be made at any time from 23rd November 1988.

(3) The forms approved for the purpose of claiming shall be provided free of charge by the appropriate authority or such persons as they may authorise or appoint for the purpose.

(4) Each appropriate authority shall notify the Secretary of State of the address to which claims delivered or sent to the appropriate social security office are to be forwarded.

(5) Where a claimant for housing benefit acquires a partner or his existing partner changes in the course of a benefit period, a claim for benefit on behalf of the new partner may be made by the claimant giving notice of the change of circumstances at either of the offices referred to in paragraph (6)(b).

(6) A claim—

- (a) may be sent or delivered to the appropriate social security office where the claimant or his partner is also claiming income support;
- (b) where it has not been sent or delivered to the appropriate social security office, shall be sent or delivered to the designated office;
- (c) sent or delivered to the appropriate social security office shall be forwarded to the appropriate authority within two working days of the date of either the date of determination of the claim for income support or the receipt of the claim at the appropriate social security office, whichever is the later, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter.

(7) Subject to paragraphs (13) and (14), the date on which a claim is made shall be—

- (a) in a case where an award of income support has been made to the claimant or his partner and the claim is made within 4 weeks of the date on which the claim for that income support was received at the appropriate social security office, the first day of entitlement to that income support;

- (b) in a case where the claimant or his partner claimed income support but there is no entitlement to income support, the date on which the claim for housing benefit is received at the appropriate social security office or the designated office whichever is the earlier;
 - (c) in a case where paragraph (4) applies, the date on which the notification of the change of circumstance is received by either the appropriate social security office or by the designated office;
 - (d) in any other case, the date on which the claim is received at the designated office.
- (8) Where a claim received at the designated office has not been made in the manner prescribed in paragraph (1), that claim is for the purposes of these Regulations defective.
- (9) Where a claim is defective because—
- (a) it was made on the form approved for the purpose but that form is not accepted by the appropriate authority as being in a written form sufficient in the circumstances of the case, or
 - (b) it was made in writing but not on the form approved for the purpose and the appropriate authority does not accept the claim as being in a written form which is sufficient in the circumstances of the case,
- the appropriate authority may, in a case to which sub-paragraph (a) applies, refer the defective claim to the claimant or, in a case to which sub-paragraph (b) applies, supply the claimant with the approved form.
- (10) The appropriate authority shall treat a defective claim as if it had been made in the first instance where the approved form referred or sent to the claimant in accordance with paragraph (8) is received at the designated office properly completed within 4 weeks of it having been referred or sent to him, or such longer period as the appropriate authority may consider reasonable.
- (11) A claim which is made on an approved form for the time being is, for the purposes of this regulation, properly completed if completed in accordance with the instructions on the form.
- (12) Where, exceptionally, a levying authority has not determined its personal community charge by the beginning of the financial year, if a claim for housing benefit is properly made or treated as properly made and—
- (a) the date on which the claim is made or treated as made is in the period from the 1st April of the current year and ending 4 weeks after the date on which the authority sets or determines the charge; and
 - (b) if the charge had been determined, the claimant would have been entitled to housing benefit either from—
 - (i) the benefit week in which the 1st April of the current year fell, or
 - (ii) a benefit week falling after the date specified in head (i) but before the claim was made,
- the appropriate authority shall treat the claim as made in the benefit week immediately preceding the benefit week in which such entitlement would have commenced.
- (13) Except in cases to which paragraph (14) refers, where the claimant is not entitled to housing benefit in the benefit week immediately following the date of his claim but the appropriate authority is of the opinion that unless there is a change of circumstances he will be entitled to housing benefit for a period beginning not later than the thirteenth benefit week following the date on which the claim is made, the appropriate authority may treat the claim as made on a date in the benefit week immediately preceding the first benefit week of that period of entitlement and award benefit accordingly.

(14) Where a claim for housing benefit is received by the appropriate social security office or by the designated office on a date prior to 1st April 1989, paragraphs (6) and (12) of this regulation shall not apply in respect of that claim and the claim shall be treated as made on 1st April 1989.

(15) A person to whom housing benefit has been granted, or the partner of such a person, may make a claim to the appropriate authority for a further grant of that benefit to take effect immediately after the end of his current benefit period not more than 13 weeks before the end of that period.

(16) A person may make a further claim not more than 4 weeks after the end of his benefit period or the benefit period of his partner or former partner for a further grant of such benefit to take effect immediately after the end of that benefit period.

(17) The appropriate authority shall invite a person to whom housing benefit has been granted to make a claim for a further grant of that benefit where either—

- (a) the benefit period ended in circumstances to which regulation 54(a) refers (end of entitlement to income support); or
- (b) the benefit period is for a period exceeding 16 weeks and is due to end within 8 weeks in accordance with regulation 53(2) to (4) (benefit period) and no such claim has been received in accordance with paragraph (15), and any claim received following that invitation, if made within 4 weeks of the end of the current benefit period, shall have effect immediately after the end of that benefit period in accordance with paragraph (15) or, as the case may be, paragraph (16).

(18) Where the claimant makes a claim in respect of any period before the date on which that claim was, or was treated as, made and he proves that there was good cause for his failure to make that claim throughout the period between any date in that earlier period and the date on which the claim was or was treated as made, his claim shall, subject to section 165A of the Social Security Act(60) (52 week limit on entitlement before the date of claim), be treated as made on the first day of that earlier period from which he can prove good cause.

Circumstances in which claims need not be made

60. An appropriate authority may modify the provisions of regulation 59 (time and manner in which claims are to be made) so that, notwithstanding that a person has not made a claim for housing benefit in accordance with that regulation, where—

- (a) at any time in the period from 23rd November 1988 to 31st March 1989 that person is in receipt of housing benefit in the form of a rate rebate, rent rebate or rent allowance, and
- (b) the appropriate authority consider that they have sufficient information to determine whether he and any partner he may have will be entitled to housing benefit in the form of a community charge rebate from 1st April 1989, he shall be treated as having made a claim for community charge rebate in respect of himself and any such partner for a period beginning on that date.

Evidence and information

61.—(1) A person who makes a claim shall furnish such certificates, documents, information and evidence in connection with the claim, or any question arising out of it, as may be reasonably required by the appropriate authority in order to determine that person's entitlement to housing benefit, and shall do so within 4 weeks of being required to do so or such longer period as the appropriate authority may consider reasonable; but nothing in this regulation shall require a person to furnish any certificates, documents, information or evidence relating to a payment which is disregarded under

(60) Section 165A was substituted by paragraph 87 of Schedule 10 to the Social Security Act 1986 (c. 50) and is applied to housing benefit by paragraph 48 of Schedule 10 to that Act.

paragraph 34 of Schedule 3 or paragraph 23 of Schedule 4 (payments made under the Macfarlane Trust or the Independent Living Fund).

- (2) Where a request is made under paragraph (1), the appropriate authority shall—
- (a) inform the claimant of his duty under regulation 63 (duty to notify change of circumstances) to notify the designated office of any change of circumstances; and
 - (b) without prejudice to the extent of the duty owed under regulation 63, indicate to him either orally or by notice or by reference to some other document available to him on application and without charge, the kind of change of circumstances which is to be notified.

Amendment and withdrawal of claim

62.—(1) A person who has made a claim may amend it at any time before a determination has been made on it, by a notice in writing delivered or sent to the designated office and any claim so amended shall be treated as if it had been amended in the first instance.

(2) A person who has made a claim may withdraw it at any time before a determination has been made on it, by notice to the designated office, and any such notice of withdrawal shall have effect when it is received.

Duty to notify changes of circumstances

63.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), if at any time between the making of a claim and its determination, or during the benefit period, there is a change of circumstances which the claimant or his partner, or any person by whom or on whose behalf sums payable by way of housing benefit are receivable, might reasonably be expected to know might affect the claimant's or partner's right to the amount of or the receipt of housing benefit, that person shall be under a duty to notify that change of circumstances by giving notice in writing to the designated office.

- (2) The duty imposed on a person by paragraph (1) does not extend to notifying changes—
- (a) in the amount of a personal community charge payable to a levying authority;
 - (b) in the age of the claimant or that of any member of his family;
 - (c) in these Regulations; or
 - (d) in the case of a claimant on income support, changes in any circumstances which affect the amount of income support but not the amount of housing benefit to which he is entitled, other than the cessation of that entitlement to income support.

(3) Notwithstanding paragraph (2)(b) or (d) a claimant shall be required by paragraph (1) to notify the designated office of any change in the composition of his family arising from the fact that a person who was a member of his family is now no longer such a person because he ceases to be a child or young person.

PART IX

DETERMINATION OF QUESTIONS

Who is to make a determination

64.—(1) Unless provided otherwise by these Regulations, any matter required to be determined under these Regulations shall be determined in the first instance by the appropriate authority.

- (2) An authority shall be under no duty to determine a claim—

- (a) where the claim has not been made in accordance with regulation 59(1) (time and manner in which claims are to be made) or treated as so made by virtue of regulation 59(10);
 - (b) where the claimant has failed to satisfy the provisions of regulation 61 (evidence and information);
 - (c) where the claim has been or is treated as withdrawn under regulation 62 (amendment and withdrawal of claim);
 - (d) made more than 13 benefit weeks prior to the expiry of the claimant's current benefit period.
- (3) Every claim shall be determined by the appropriate authority within 14 days of the provisions of regulations 61 and 62 being satisfied or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter.

Notification of determinations

65. An authority shall notify in writing any person affected by a determination made by it under these Regulations—

- (a) in the case of a determination on a claim, forthwith or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter;
- (b) in any other case, within 14 days of that determination or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, and every notification shall include a statement as to the matters set out in Schedule 5.

Time and manner of making notifications, requests or representations

66.—(1) Any notice or other document that is to be given or sent to an authority shall be deemed to have been given or sent on the day it is received at the designated office.

(2) Any notice or other document that is to be given or sent by an authority to any person shall be deemed to have been given or sent if sent by post to that person's last known or notified address, on the date it was posted.

(3) The times specified by regulations 67(2) (review of determinations), 68 (requests for statement of reasons) and 69 (further review of determinations) for making a request for a statement or representations may be extended for special reasons, by the appropriate authority or where relevant a Review Board, even though the time specified may have already expired.

(4) Any application for an extension of time shall be in writing, shall be sent or delivered to the designated office and shall be determined by the appropriate authority or where relevant decided by a Review Board.

(5) There shall be no review or further review of a determination or decision of a Review Board under paragraph (3) or (4).

Review of determinations

67.—(1) Any determination or decision of a Review Board may be reviewed at any time by the appropriate authority if—

- (a) there has been any relevant change of circumstances since the determination or decision was made; or
- (b) the authority is satisfied and, in the case of a decision, satisfied by fresh evidence, that the determination or decision was made in ignorance of, or was based on a mistake as to, some material fact; or

- (c) except in the case of a decision made by a Review Board, it is satisfied that that decision was based on a mistake as to the law.
- (2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1), if a person makes written representations to an authority concerning a determination which it makes in relation to him within 6 weeks of the date of notification to him of the determination, the authority shall review the determination in the light of those representations.
- (3) Subject to paragraph (4), where a determination is revised on review, the determination as revised shall have effect—
- (a) in a case to which paragraph (1)(a) applies, from the date on which the relevant change of circumstances is to have effect, in accordance with regulation 55 (date on which change of circumstances is to take effect);
 - (b) in a case to which paragraph (1)(b) or (c) or (2) applies, in place of the original determination;
 - (c) in the case of a determination under regulation 59(18) (time and manner in which claims are to be made), not to allow a claim to be treated as made on a date earlier than it was made, which is revised in favour of the claimant, from the date on which in accordance with regulation 59(18) that claim is treated as made.
- (4) For the purposes of calculating the period of 6 weeks mentioned in paragraph (2) no account shall be taken of any period beginning with the receipt by an authority of a request for a statement under regulation 68 (requests for statement of reasons) and ending with the provision to that person of that statement.
- (5) Except as provided by paragraph (3)(c) a determination or decision shall not be revised upon review so as to make housing benefit payable or to increase the amount of benefit payable in respect of any period which is more than 52 weeks before—
- (a) where written representations were made in accordance with paragraph (2), the date on which those written representations were made; or
 - (b) in any other case, the date on which the determination was revised.
- (6) Regulations 65 to 68 shall apply to the revision of any determination as they apply to a determination.

Requests for statement of reasons

68.—(1) A person to whom an authority sends or delivers a notification of determination may request in writing the authority to provide a written statement setting out the reasons as to its determination of any matter set out in the notice.

(2) The written statement referred to in paragraph (1) shall be sent to the person requesting it within 14 days or as soon as is reasonably practicable thereafter.

Further review of determinations

69.—(1) A person who has made representations under regulation 67(2) (review of determinations) may give or send to the appropriate authority written notice requesting a further review of the determination within 4 weeks of the date on which the determination on those representations was sent to him.

(2) The notice given under paragraph (1) shall set out the grounds on which a further review is requested.

(3) The further review shall be conducted by a Review Board appointed by the appropriate authority and constituted in accordance with Schedule 6.

(4) An authority may provide a Review Board appointed by it with such officers and such accommodation, services and other facilities as appear to the authority to be necessary or expedient for the proper performance of the functions of the Review Board.

Procedure on further review

70.—(1) Within 6 weeks of receipt by an authority of a notice under regulation 69(1) (further review of determinations) requesting a further review or, if that is not reasonably practicable as soon as possible thereafter, the Review Board shall hold an oral hearing in order to conduct a further review.

(2) Subject to the provisions of these Regulations—

- (a) the procedure in connection with a further review shall be such as the Chairman of the Review Board shall determine;
- (b) any person affected may make representations in writing in connection with the further review and such representations shall be considered by the Review Board;
- (c) at the hearing any person affected has the right—
 - (i) to be heard, and may be accompanied and may be represented by another person whether that person is professionally qualified or not, and for the purposes of the proceedings at the hearing any representative shall have the rights and powers to which any person affected is entitled under these Regulations,
 - (ii) to call persons to give evidence, and
 - (iii) to put questions to any person who gives evidence;
- (d) the Review Board may call for, receive or hear representations and evidence from any person present as it considers appropriate.

(3) Reasonable notice (being not less than 10 days beginning on the day on which notice is given and ending on the day before the hearing of the further review) of the time and place of the oral hearing before the Review Board shall be given to any person affected, and if such notice has not been given the hearing may proceed only with the consent of every person affected or his representative.

(4) If any person affected should fail to appear at the hearing, notice having been given to him in accordance with paragraph (3) the Review Board may, having regard to all the circumstances including any explanations offered for the absence, proceed with the hearing notwithstanding his absence, or give such directions with a view to the conduct of the further review as it may think proper.

(5) Any person affected to whom notice has been given under paragraph (3) may apply in writing to the Chairman requesting a postponement of the hearing or withdrawing his application for a further review at any time before the decision on further review is given and either before or after the hearing has begun, and the Chairman may grant or refuse the application as he thinks fit.

(6) A hearing may be adjourned by the Review Board at any time during the hearing on the application of any person affected or of its own motion, and, if a hearing is adjourned part heard and after the adjournment the Review Board is differently constituted, otherwise than through the operation on that occasion of paragraph (7), the proceedings shall be by way of a complete rehearing of the case.

(7) Any hearing may, with the consent of every person affected or his representative but not otherwise, be proceeded with in the absence of any member of the Review Board provided that at least two members are present and one member present is or acts as the Chairman of the Board.

(8) The decision of the majority of the Review Board shall be the decision of the Board, and where the Board consists of an even number, the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

(9) An authority may pay travelling expenses in respect of attendance at the hearing to any person affected and to one other person representing or accompanying him at the hearing.

Decisions upon further review

71.—(1) Upon further review the Review Board shall decide whether to confirm or revise the determination of the appropriate authority and, where the determination has been reviewed and revised under regulation 67 (review of determinations), it shall decide whether to confirm or revise the determination so revised.

(2) In reaching its decision the Review Board shall apply the provisions of these Regulations as though any duty imposed on, or power of discretion conferred on, an authority were imposed or conferred upon the Review Board.

(3) In its application to a decision of a Review Board, the 52 week period referred to in regulation 67(5) (review of determinations) shall be calculated from the date that the appropriate authority either confirmed or revised its determination on review.

(4) The Chairman of the Review Board shall—

- (a) record in writing all its decisions; and
- (b) include in the record of every decision a statement of the reasons for such decisions and of its findings on questions of fact material thereto.

(5) Within 7 days of the Review Board's decision or, if that is not reasonably practicable, as soon as possible thereafter, a copy of the record of that decision made in accordance with this regulation shall be given or sent to every person affected.

Effect of revising a decision

72. Where a Review Board has decided that a determination or, as the case may be, a revised determination of an authority shall be revised, the authority shall alter its determination or, as the case may be, revised determination in accordance with that decision with effect from the date of determination or, as the case may be, revised determination.

Correction of accidental errors in determinations and decisions

73.—(1) Subject to regulation 75 (provisions common to regulations 73 and 74), accidental errors in any determination or record of a decision may at any time be corrected by the determining authority who gave the determination or decision or by an authority of like status.

(2) A correction to a determination or to the record of a decision shall be deemed to be part of that determination or of that record and written notice of it shall be given as soon as practicable to any person affected.

Setting aside of determinations and decisions on certain grounds

74.—(1) Subject to regulation 75 (provisions common to regulations 73 and 74), on an application made by any person affected by the determination or decision, a determination or decision may be set aside by the determining authority which gave the determination or decision or by an authority of like status, in a case where it appears just to set the determination or decision aside on the ground that—

- (a) a document relating to the matters relevant to the determination or decision was not sent to, or was not received at an appropriate time by, any person affected by the determination or decision, his representative, or the determining authority which gave the determination or decision; or

(b) in the case of a hearing before the Review Board, any person affected or his representative was not present; or

(c) the interests of justice so require.

(2) An application under this regulation shall be made in writing and sent or delivered to the determining authority which gave the determination or decision, within 13 weeks of the day on which notice of that determination or decision was given.

(3) Where an application to set aside a decision of the Review Board is entertained under paragraph (1), any person affected shall be sent a copy of the application and shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity of making representations on it before the application is determined.

(4) Notice in writing of a determination or decision on an application to set aside a determination or decision shall be given to any person affected, as soon as may be practicable, and the notice shall contain a statement giving reasons for the determination or decision.

(5) For the purposes of determining under these Regulations an application to set aside a determination or decision there shall be disregarded regulation 66(2) (time and manner of making notifications, requests or representations) and any provision in any enactment or instrument to the effect that any notice or document required or authorised to be given or sent to any person shall be deemed to have been given or sent if it was sent by post to that person's last known or notified address.

Provisions common to regulations 73 and 74

75.—(1) In regulation 73 and 74—

“authority of like status” means a Review Board of different composition to that giving the decision where it is inexpedient for that same Review Board to correct or set aside its decision.

“determining authority” means an appropriate authority or a Review Board.

(2) In calculating the time specified in regulations 67(2) (review of determinations), 69(1) (further review of determinations), and 74(2) (setting aside of determinations and decisions on certain grounds) there shall be disregarded any day before the day on which notice was given of a correction to a determination or to the record of a decision under regulation 73 (correction of accidental errors in determinations and decisions) or a refusal to make such a correction, or on which notice is given of a determination or decision that a determination or decision shall not be set aside following an application made under regulation 74, as the case may be.

(3) There shall be no review or further review of a correction made under regulation 73 or a refusal to make such a correction or against a determination or decision given under regulation 74.

PART X

PAYMENTS

Time and manner of payment of housing benefit in respect of personal community charges

76.—(1) Subject to regulations 79, 80 and 81 (withholding of benefit, payments on death and offsetting) and paragraphs (2) and (3), where a person is entitled to housing benefit in respect of his liability for a personal community charge, the appropriate authority may discharge his entitlement to that benefit by reducing, so far as possible, the amount of the personal community charge for which he is liable or may pay to him the amount of the benefit to which he is entitled, within 14 days of the receipt of the claim at the designated office or, if that is not practicable, as soon as possible thereafter.

(2) Where the amount of housing benefit to which a person is entitled exceeds his liability for any personal community charge, the appropriate authority may, so far as possible, reduce the next and any subsequent charges for which he is liable by the amount of the benefit in respect of which his entitlement remains undischarged, until that entitlement is fully discharged.

(3) Where a person is no longer liable to an authority for personal community charges and he has paid the charge or charges in respect of which he is entitled to housing benefit, the authority shall pay the outstanding benefit to him within 14 days of it being determined that benefit is due or, if that is not practicable, as soon as possible thereafter.

(4) The appropriate authority, in any case to which this regulation applies, shall notify the person to whom housing benefit is due of the amount of that benefit and the amount of any reduction made in his liability for a personal community charge or in the liability of any partner of his.

Time and manner of payment of housing benefit in respect of collective community charge contributions

77.—(1) Subject to regulations 79, 80 and 81 (withholding of benefit, payments on death and offsetting), the appropriate authority shall pay housing benefit to which a person is entitled on account of his liability to pay any collective community charge contribution under section 11(11) of the 1987 Act, at such time and in such manner as is appropriate having regard to—

- (a) the times at which and the frequency with which a person's liability to pay a collective community charge contribution arises; and
- (b) the reasonable needs and convenience of the person entitled thereto.

(2) Payments of housing benefit under paragraph (1) may take the form of vouchers issued by the appropriate authority which vouchers shall state—

- (a) the name of the person entitled to the benefit;
- (b) the address of the premises in respect of which the collective community charge is payable;
- (c) the daily amount of benefit to which he is entitled;
- (d) the day or days in respect of which benefit has been awarded.

(3) Any voucher paid in accordance with paragraph (1) on account of a person's entitlement to housing benefit, may be paid by that person to the charge payer to whom the contribution is due, in reduction of the liability for the contribution concerned.

(4) Except in cases to which regulations 79, 80 and 81 apply, the first payment of housing benefit in respect of collective community charge contributions shall be made within 7 days of the receipt of a claim at the designated office or, if that is not reasonably practicable, as soon as possible thereafter.

Person to whom benefit is to be paid

78.—(1) Subject to regulation 80 (payment on death) and paragraph (2), payment of any housing benefit to which a person is entitled shall be made to that person.

(2) Where a person other than a person who is entitled to a housing benefit made the claim and that first person is a person referred to in regulation 58(2), (3) or (5) (persons appointed to act for a person unable to act), benefit may be paid to that person.

(3) Where payments of housing benefit to which a person is entitled take the form of vouchers in accordance with regulation 77(2) (time and manner of payment of housing benefit in respect of collective community charge contributions), the appropriate authority, where—

- (a) that person remains liable for a collective community charge contribution in respect of his residence in premises for which a collective community charge is payable;
- (b) his residence in that premises has ceased; and
- (c) the authority considers it impracticable to pay the voucher to the person concerned, may pay the outstanding benefit to the person to whom the relevant contribution is owed in such manner as they may decide.

Withholding of benefit

79.—(1) Where it appears to an authority that a question has arisen in relation to a person's entitlement to housing benefit or to payment of that benefit, it may withhold payment of the benefit in whole or in part pending the determination of that question on review under regulation 67.

(2) Where it appears to an authority that a question has arisen whether any amount paid to a person by way of, or in connection with a claim for housing benefit, is recoverable under section 29 of the Act or Part XI of these Regulations (overpayments), it may withhold any payment of arrears of benefit to that person, in whole or in part, pending the determination of that question.

(3) Upon determination of a question to which paragraph (1) or (2) refers, any benefit withheld under those paragraphs shall be paid within 14 days except to the extent that there was no entitlement to that benefit or a recoverable overpayment remains unrecovered from the person from whom benefit was withheld.

Payment on death of the person entitled

80.—(1) Where the person entitled to a housing benefit has died the appropriate authority shall make payment either to his personal representative or, where there is none, his next of kin if aged 16 or over.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1), "next of kin" means in Scotland the person entitled to the moveable estate on intestacy and in England and Wales the persons who would take beneficially on an intestacy.

(3) A payment under paragraph (1) may not be made unless the personal representative or the next of kin, as the case may be, makes written application for the payment of any sum of benefit to which the deceased was entitled, and such written application is sent to or delivered to the appropriate authority at its designated office within 12 months of the deceased's death or such longer period as the authority may allow in any particular case.

(4) The authority may dispense with strict proof of title of any person claiming under paragraph (3) and the receipt of such a person shall be a good discharge to the authority for any sum so paid.

Offsetting

81.—(1) Where a person has been paid a sum of housing benefit under a determination which is subsequently revised upon review or further review, any sum paid in respect of a period covered by the subsequent determination shall be offset against arrears of entitlement under the subsequent determination except to the extent that the sum exceeds the arrears and shall be treated as properly paid on account of them.

(2) No amount may be offset under paragraph (1) which has been determined to be a recoverable overpayment under regulation 83 (recoverable overpayments).

PART XI

OVERPAYMENTS

Meaning of overpayment

82. In this Part “overpayment” means any amount which has been paid by way of housing benefit and to which there was no entitlement under these Regulations (whether on initial determination or as subsequently revised on review or further review).

Recoverable overpayments

83.—(1) Any overpayment, except one to which paragraph (2) applies, shall be recoverable.

(2) This paragraph applies to an overpayment caused by an official error where the claimant or a person acting on his behalf or any other person to whom the payment is made could not, at the time of receipt of the payment, reasonably have been expected to realise that it was an overpayment.

(3) In paragraph (2), “overpayment caused by official error” means an overpayment caused by a mistake made or something done or omitted to be done by the appropriate authority or by an officer or person acting for that authority or by an officer of the Department of Social Security or the Department of Employment acting as such where the claimant, a person acting on his behalf or any other person to whom the payment is made did not cause or materially contribute to that mistake, act or omission.

Person by whom recovery may be made

84. The authority which paid the recoverable overpayment may recover it.

Person from whom recovery may be sought

85.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2) a recoverable overpayment shall be recoverable from either—

- (a) where the overpayment was in consequence of a misrepresentation or failure to disclose a material fact (in either case whether fraudulent or otherwise) by or on behalf of the claimant or any other person to whom a payment of housing benefit may be made, the person who misrepresented or failed to disclose that material fact; or
- (b) in any other case, the claimant or the person to whom the overpayment was made.

(2) Where a recoverable overpayment is made to a claimant who has one or more partners, recovery of the overpayment may be made by deduction from any housing benefit payable to a partner, provided that the claimant and that partner were members of the same household both at the time of the overpayment and when the deduction is made.

Methods of recovery

86. Without prejudice to any other method of recovery, an authority may recover any recoverable overpayments from any person referred to in regulation 85 by deduction from any housing benefit to which that person is entitled, or where it is unable to do so, may request the Secretary of State to recover the overpayment from the benefits prescribed in regulation 89, in accordance with the provisions of that regulation.

Diminution of capital

87.—(1) Where in the case of a recoverable overpayment, in consequence of a misrepresentation or failure to disclose a material fact (in either case whether fraudulent or otherwise) as to a person’s capital, or an error, other than one to which regulation 83(2) (effect of official error) refers, as to the amount of a person's capital, the overpayment was in respect of a period ("the overpayment period") of more than 13 benefit weeks, the appropriate authority shall, for the purpose only of calculating the amount of that overpayment—

- (a) at the end of the first 13 benefit weeks of the overpayment period, treat the amount of that capital as having been reduced by the amount of housing benefit overpaid during those 13 weeks;
- (b) at the end of each subsequent period of 13 benefit weeks, if any, of the overpayment period, treat the amount of that capital as having been further reduced by the amount of housing benefit overpaid during the immediately preceding 13 benefit weeks.

(2) Capital shall not be treated as reduced over any period other than 13 benefit weeks or in any circumstances other than those for which paragraph (1) provides.

Sums to be deducted in calculating recoverable overpayments

88. In calculating the amount of a recoverable overpayment, the appropriate authority—

- (a) if it determines that a lesser amount was properly payable in respect of the whole or part of the overpayment period, shall deduct that amount; or
- (b) may deduct so much of any payment of personal community charge or collective community charge contribution in respect of the overpayment period which exceeds the amount, if any, which the claimant was liable to pay for that period under the original erroneous determination.

Recovery of overpayments from prescribed benefits

89.—(1) For the purposes of section 29(7) of the Act (recovery of overpaid housing benefit by deduction from other benefits), the benefits prescribed by this regulation are—

- (a) any benefit under the Social Security Act, except those specified in paragraph (2);
- (b) income support or family credit under Part II of the Act;
- (c) any benefit payable under the legislation of any member State, other than the United Kingdom, concerning the branches of social security mentioned in Article 4(1) of Regulation (EEC) No. 1408/71⁽⁶¹⁾ on the application of social security schemes to employed persons, to self-employed persons and to members of their families moving within the Community, whether or not the benefit has been acquired by virtue of the provisions of that Regulation.

(2) Benefits excepted from paragraph (1)(a) are guardian's allowance and attendance allowance in respect of a child under section 35(1) to (4) of the Social Security Act⁽⁶²⁾ as modified by regulation 6 of the Social Security (Attendance Allowance) (No. 2) Regulations 1975⁽⁶³⁾.

(3) Where the Secretary of State is satisfied that—

- (a) a recoverable overpayment of housing benefit has been made, in consequence of a misrepresentation of or failure to disclose a material fact (in either case whether fraudulent
