- (a) details of the basis of the small claim including relevant dates;
- (b) where the small claim arises from the supply of goods or services, details of the nature of the goods or services and the date or dates on or between which they were ordered and supplied;

(7) Service on a defender who is outwith Scotland shall be effected in the manner prescribed by rule 9 of the Summary Cause Rules (citation of or service on persons outside Scotland)(9).

(8) Where service is to be effected by the sheriff clerk under paragraph (7), any cost occasioned thereby shall be borne by the pursuer and no such service shall be instructed by the sheriff clerk until payment of such cost has been made to him by the pursuer.

Service where address of defender is unknown

6.—(1) Where the defender's address is unknown to the pursuer, the sheriff may grant warrant to serve the summons—

(a) by the publication of an advertisement in form 7 in a newspaper circulating in the area of the defender's last known address; or

(b) by displaying on the walls of court a copy of a notice in form 8, and the period of notice, which shall be fixed by the sheriff, shall run from the date of publication of the advertisement or display on the walls of court, as the case may be.

(2) Where service is to be effected under paragraph (1) of this rule, the pursuer shall lodge a service copy of the summons with the sheriff clerk from whom it may be uplifted by the defender.

(b) the pursuer may require the sheriff clerk to supply him with a copy of the summons.

(4) Where service by advertisement is made under paragraph (1)(a) of this rule, a copy of the newspaper containing the advertisement shall be lodged with the sheriff clerk unless advertisement is instructed by the sheriff clerk under paragraph (3) of this rule.

(6) Where service has been made under this rule and thereafter the defender's address becomes known, the sheriff may allow the summons to be amended and, if appropriate, grant warrant for re-service subject to such conditions as he thinks fit.

Return of summons

7.—(1) Where service has been effected other than by the sheriff clerk, the pursuer shall return the summons with a certificate of service to the sheriff clerk on or before the return date, failing which the sheriff may dismiss the small claim.

(2) Where the summons has been served by the sheriff clerk, he shall intimate to the pursuer, forthwith after the return date, whether or not a response to the summons has been tendered by the defender; and such intimation shall be made by the sheriff clerk sending to the pursuer by first class recorded delivery post a copy of form 9 (claim admitted; payment by instalments or lump sum), 10 (no response) or 11 (claim admitted and defender to appear or claim not admitted or jurisdiction challenged), as appropriate.

Response to summons where defender intends to appear

8.—(1) Where the defender intends—

- (a) to challenge the jurisdiction of the court;
- (b) to defend the small claim;
- (c) to dispute the amount of the small claim; or
- (d) to admit the small claim and make oral application for a time to pay direction (including, where appropriate, an application for recall or restriction of an arrestment), he shall intimate his intention to appear by completing the appropriate part of the form of response attached to the service copy summons and shall lodge it with the sheriff clerk on or before the return date.

(2) A defender who intends to defend a small claim and has delivered a form of response to the sheriff clerk may, at any time prior to the date of the preliminary hearing of the small claim, lodge a written note of the defence which he proposes to state at the preliminary hearing.

(3) Where the defender has delivered a written note of his proposed defence to the small claim to the sheriff clerk, the defender shall, at the same time, send a copy of it to the pursuer.

Response to summons where defender does not intend to appear

9. Where the defender admits the small claim and does not intend to appear, he may, where competent, make an application for a time to pay direction (including, where appropriate, an application for recall or restriction of an arrestment) by completing the appropriate part of the form of response attached to the service copy summons and lodge it with the sheriff clerk on or before the return date.

No response by defender

10.—(1) Where a form of response has not been lodged by the defender in accordance with rule 8 or 9 above, the cause shall not be called in court and, if before noon on the day prior to the date for the preliminary hearing, the pursuer, his solicitor or his solicitor's authorised clerk enters a minute in the Book of Small Claims or lodges form 10 with the minute in box 1 or 2 duly signed, or a minute

(2) Where the pursuer does not enter a minute in the Book of Small Claims or lodge form 10 with the minute in box 1 or 2 duly signed, or a minute in form 12 in accordance with paragraph (1) of this rule, the court shall dismiss the small claim.

(3) A decree granted under paragraph (1) of this rule shall be subject to recall in accordance with the provisions of rule 27 below.

(4) The sheriff shall not grant decree under paragraph (1) of this rule unless it is clear from the terms of the summons that a ground of jurisdiction exists.

Consent to application for time to pay direction

11.—(1) Where the defender has delivered a form of response to the sheriff clerk in accordance with rule 9 above making application for a time to pay direction (including, where appropriate, an application for recall or restriction of an arrestment), the pursuer may intimate that he does not object to the application by—

- (a) entering a minute in the Book of Small Claims stating that he does not object to the defender's application and for decree;
- (b) lodging with the sheriff clerk a minute in form 12; or
- (c) lodging with the sheriff clerk form 9 with a minute duly signed, before noon on the day prior to the date for the preliminary hearing.

(2) Where the pursuer intimates under paragraph (1) of this rule that he does not object to the defender's application for a time to pay direction (including, where appropriate, an application for recall or restriction of an arrestment), the sheriff may grant decree on the date for the preliminary hearing and the parties shall not be required to attend and the cause shall not be called, in court.

Preliminary hearing

12.—(1) A preliminary hearing shall be held where—

- (a) the defender has intimated his intention to appear in accordance with rule 8(1) above; or
- (b) the defender has made an application for a time to pay direction (including, where appropriate, an application for recall or restriction of an arrestment) in accordance with rule 9 above which the pursuer does not accept.

(2) The preliminary hearing shall be held seven days after the return date, and may be continued to such other date as the court shall consider appropriate.

(3) The sheriff clerk shall insert in the summons the date for the preliminary hearing.

(4) Where the defender has delivered a form of response to the sheriff clerk in accordance with rule 8(1)(a), (b) or (c) above, he shall attend or be represented at the preliminary hearing and state his defence to the court (which shall be noted by the sheriff on the summons).

(5) Where the defender has delivered a form of response to the sheriff clerk in accordance with rule 8(1)(d) above, he shall attend or be represented at the preliminary hearing and may make oral representations in support of his application.

(6) Where the defender has delivered a form of response to the sheriff clerk in accordance with rule 9 above which the pursuer has not accepted, the sheriff shall make such order on the defender's application as he considers appropriate.

Conduct of preliminary hearing

13.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2) of this rule, where the defender has delivered a form of response to the sheriff clerk in accordance with rule 8(1) above but does not appear and has not stated a defence, decree may be granted against the defender in terms of the summons.

(2) The sheriff shall not grant decree under paragraph (1) of this rule unless it is clear from the terms of the summons that a ground of jurisdiction exists.

(3) Where the pursuer does not appear or is not represented at the preliminary hearing at which the defender is present or represented and if a defence has not been stated, the court shall grant decree absolving the defender.

(4) Where, at the preliminary hearing, the sheriff is satisfied that the small claim is incompetent or that there is a patent defect of jurisdiction, he may grant decree of dismissal in favour of the defender.

(5) At the preliminary hearing, the sheriff shall ascertain from the parties or their representatives what the disputed issues in the small claim are and shall make a note of them on the summons; and it shall thereafter be unnecessary for a party to satisfy the sheriff on any issue which is not noted as a disputed issue.

(6) Where the sheriff is satisfied that the facts are sufficiently admitted, he may decide the small claim on the merits at the preliminary hearing and if appropriate make an award of expenses.

(7) If, at the preliminary hearing or at any subsequent stage of the small claim, a disputed issue noted by the sheriff is the quality or condition of an object, the sheriff may inspect the object in the presence of the parties or their representatives in court or, if it is not practicable to bring the object to court, at the place where the object is located.

(8) The sheriff may, if he considers it appropriate, inspect any place material to the disputed issues in the presence of the parties or their representatives.

(9) The sheriff may, on the joint motion of the parties, if he considers it to be appropriate, remit to any suitable person to report on any matter of fact.

(10) Where a remit is made under paragraph (9) of this rule, the report of such person shall be final and conclusive with respect to the matter of fact which is the subject of the remit.

(11) A remit shall not be made under paragraph (9) of this rule unless parties have previously agreed the basis upon which the fees, if any, of such person shall be met by them.

(12) Where any issue of fact between the parties is still disputed, the sheriff shall appoint a date for a hearing.

Remit between rolls

14.—(1) Where a direction has been made by the sheriff under section 37(2B) of the Sheriff Courts (Scotland) Act 1971⁽¹⁰⁾ that a small claim be treated as a summary cause or as an ordinary cause, the small claim shall be remitted to the summary cause roll or ordinary cause roll, as the case may be, first occurring not sooner than seven days after the date of that direction.

(2) Where a direction has been made under section 37 of the Sheriff Courts (Scotland) Act 1971⁽¹¹⁾ that a summary cause or an ordinary cause be treated as a small claim, the initial writ or summary cause summons, as the case may be, shall be treated as a small claim summons and the cause shall be remitted to the small claim roll occurring not more than seven days after the date of the direction; or, if there is no roll within that period, to the roll first occurring thereafter.

Witnesses

16.—(1) A party to a small claim shall be entitled to give and lead evidence but shall be responsible for securing the attendance of his witnesses at a hearing and shall be personally liable for their expenses (which shall form expenses in the cause only up to the limit prescribed in rule 26 below).

(2) The hearing of a small claim shall not be adjourned solely on account of the failure of a witness to appear unless the sheriff on cause shown so directs.

(3) Evidence by a party or witness shall be given on oath or affirmation.

Productions

17.—(1) A party who intends to found at a hearing (other than a preliminary hearing) upon any documents or articles in his possession, which are reasonably capable of being lodged with the court, shall lodge them with the sheriff clerk together with a list detailing the items no later than seven days before the hearing and shall at the same time send a copy of the list to the other party.

(2) A party litigant shall not borrow a production except with leave of the sheriff and subject to such conditions as the sheriff may impose, but may inspect them within the office of the sheriff clerk during normal business hours, and may obtain copies, where practicable, from the sheriff clerk.

(3) Only documents or articles—

- (a) produced in accordance under paragraph (1) of this rule;
- (b) produced at the preliminary hearing; or
- (c) produced under rule 18 below, may be used or put in evidence, unless with the consent of the parties or the permission of the sheriff.

Recovery of documents

18.—(1) Any party may apply to the sheriff for an order for recovery of such documents, referred to in a list of documents lodged by that party, as the sheriff considers relevant to the disputed issues.

(2) Where an order has been granted under paragraph (1) of this rule, a copy of it may be served by first class recorded delivery post on the person from whom the documents are sought to be recovered together with a certificate in form 13, and the order of the court shall be implemented in the manner and within the time specified in the order.

(3) Where the party in whose favour an order under paragraph (1) of this rule has been granted is not—

- (a) a partnership or body corporate; or
- (b) acting in a representative capacity, and is not represented by a solicitor, service under paragraph (2) of this rule shall be effected by the sheriff clerk posting a copy of the order together with a certificate in form 13 by first class recorded delivery post or, on payment of the fee prescribed by the Secretary of State by order, by sheriff officer.

(4) Documents recovered in response to an order under paragraph (1) of this rule shall be sent to, and retained by, the sheriff clerk who shall, on receiving them, advise the parties that the documents are in his possession and (subject to rule 39 of the Summary Cause Rules (confidentiality)) may be examined within his office during normal business hours.

(5) In the event of a person, from whom documents are sought to be recovered, failing to implement an order of the court in the manner or within the time specified, the party seeking recovery may apply to the sheriff for an order requiring that person to appear before him to explain his failure; and if such person shall fail to appear he may be held in contempt of court.

(6) Documents recovered under this rule may be tendered as evidence at any hearing without further formality, and rule 17(2) above shall apply to such documents.

Hearing

19. Any hearing, including a preliminary hearing, shall be conducted in public in such manner as the sheriff considers best suited to the clarification of the issue before him; and shall, so far as practicable, be conducted in an informal manner.

Noting of evidence

20. The sheriff shall make notes of the evidence at a hearing for his own use and shall retain these notes until after any appeal has been disposed of.

Documents, etc., referred to during hearing

21. Documents or other productions referred to during a hearing, and a report of a person to whom a matter has been remitted, shall be retained in the custody of the sheriff clerk until any appeal has been disposed of.

Abandonment of small claim

22.—(1) At any time prior to decree being pronounced, the pursuer may offer to abandon the small claim.

(2) Where the pursuer offers to abandon, the sheriff clerk shall assess the sum of expenses payable by the pursuer to the defender calculated on such basis as the sheriff may direct (subject to section 36B of the Sheriff Courts (Scotland) Act 1971⁽¹²⁾ and rule 26 below).

(3) The pursuer shall make payment to the defender of the assessed sum of expenses within 14 days of the date of assessment; and the court may thereafter dismiss the claim.

(4) Where the pursuer fails to make payment of the sum of assessed expenses within 14 days of the date of assessment, the court shall absolve the defender with expenses in favour of the defender.

Decree by default and dismissal

23.—(1) Where, after a defence has been stated, a party fails to appear or be represented at any hearing, a special hearing shall be fixed by the court to be held not earlier than 14 days after the date of such failure.

(2) Where a special hearing is fixed by the court under paragraph (1) of this rule, the sheriff clerk shall forthwith—

- (a) intimate the date, time and place of the special hearing to the party who has failed to appear or to be represented;
- (b) advise him of the reason for the special hearing; and
- (c) advise him that decree may be granted against him if—
 - (i) he fails to appear or be represented at the special hearing; or

- (b) fails to show cause at a special hearing for his non-appearance at a prior hearing; or
- (c) fails to appear or be represented at any hearing after a special hearing, decree by default or decree absolving the defender may be granted.

(4) Where, after a defence has been stated, a party fails to implement an order of the court, the sheriff may, after giving him an opportunity to be heard, grant decree by default or absolve the defender.

(5) Where all parties fail to appear or be represented at any hearing, the sheriff shall, unless sufficient reason appears to the contrary, dismiss the small claim.

Application for a time to pay direction in defended small claims

24. A defender in a small claim which proceeds as defended may, where it is competent to do so, make a written or oral application to the court, at any time before decree is granted, for a time to pay direction (including where appropriate, an order recalling or restricting an arrestment).

Decree

25.—(1) The sheriff shall, where practicable, give his decision and a brief statement of his reasons at the conclusion of the hearing of a small claim or reserve judgment.

(2) Where the sheriff reserves judgment, he shall, within 28 days of the hearing give his decision in writing together with a brief note of his reasons; and the sheriff clerk shall forthwith intimate these to the parties.

(3) After giving his judgment, the sheriff shall—

- (a) deal with the question of expenses and, where appropriate, make an award of expenses; and
- (b) grant decree as appropriate.

(4) A decree of the sheriff in a small claim shall be a final decree.

Expenses

26.—(1) Subject to section 36B of the Sheriff Courts (Scotland) Act 1971, where—

- (a) a defender has not stated a defence, or having stated a defence, has not proceeded with it, or having stated and proceeded with a defence, has not acted in good faith as to its merits; or
- (b) a party's conduct in relation to the proceedings or the claim has been unreasonable, rule 88 of the Summary Cause Rules (expenses)(13) shall apply to the determination of expenses in a small claim as it applies to the determination of expenses in a summary cause.

(2) Subject to section 36B of the Sheriff Courts (Scotland) Act 1971, where an appeal has been made to the sheriff principal, rule 88 of the Summary Cause Rules shall apply to the determination of the expenses of the appeal as it applies to the expenses in a summary cause.

(13) Rule 88 of the Summary Cause Rules was amended by S.I. 1980/455

Recall of decree

27.—(1) A pursuer, at any time within 21 days of the grant of decree absolving the defender under rule 13(3) above, may apply for the recall of that decree by lodging with the sheriff clerk a minute for recall of the decree in form 14.

(2) A defender, at any time not later than 14 days after the execution of a charge or execution of arrestment, whichever first occurs, following on the grant of decree in terms of rule 10(1) or 13(1) above, may apply for the recall of that decree by lodging with the sheriff clerk a minute for recall of the decree in form 14.

(3) A party may apply for recall of a decree in the same small claim on one occasion only.

(4) Where the party seeking recall of a decree is not—

(a) a partnership or a body corporate; or

(b) acting in a representative capacity, and is not represented by a solicitor, the sheriff clerk shall assist that party to complete and lodge a minute for recall of the decree.

(5) The party seeking recall of a decree shall lodge with the sheriff clerk the sum of £5, when he lodges the minute.

(6) On the lodging of a minute for recall of a decree, the sheriff clerk shall fix a date, time and place for a hearing of the minute; and a copy of the minute together with a note of the date, time and place of the hearing shall be served upon the other party not less than seven days before the date fixed for the hearing by the party seeking recall.

(7) Where the party seeking recall is not—

(a) a partnership or body corporate; or

(b) acting in a representative capacity,

and is not represented by a solicitor, service of the minute shall be effected by the sheriff clerk either by first class recorded delivery post or, on payment of the fee prescribed by the Secretary of State by order, by sheriff officer.

(8) At a hearing under paragraph (6) of this rule, the sheriff shall recall the decree so far as not implemented; and the small claim shall proceed in all respects as if the hearing were a preliminary hearing.

(9) Unless the sheriff orders that the sum of £5 lodged under paragraph

(5) of this rule be repaid to the party who has minuted for recall of the decree, that sum shall be delivered by the sheriff clerk to the other party.

(10) A minute for recall of a decree, when duly lodged and served in terms of this rule, shall have the effect of preventing any further action being taken by the other party to enforce the decree.

YOUR RESPONSE TO THE SUMMONS

CLAIM ADMITTED—Under the Debtors (Scotland) Act 1987

The Act gives you the right to apply to the court for a “time to pay direction” which is an order saying that you can pay any sum you are ordered to pay to the pursuer either in instalments or by deferred lump sum. A deferred lump sum means that you must pay all the amount at one time within a specified period set by the court.

In addition when making a “time to pay direction” the court may recall or restrict an arrestment made on your property by the pursuer in connection with the action or debt (for example your bank account may have been frozen).

If the court makes a “time to pay direction” a copy of the court order (called an extract decree) will be served on you by the pursuer telling you when payment should start or when it is you have to pay the lump sum.

If the court does not make a “time to pay direction” and makes an order for immediate payment against you, an order to pay (called a charge) may be served on you if you do not pay.
