1989 No. 635

The Electricity at Work Regulations 1989

PART I

INTRODUCTION

Persons on whom duties are imposed by these Regulations

3.—(1) Except where otherwise expressly provided in these Regulations, it shall be the duty of every—

- (a) employer and self-employed person to comply with the provisions of these Regulations in so far as they relate to matters which are within his control; and
  - (b) manager of a mine or quarry (within in either case the meaning of section 180 of the Mines and Quarries Act 1954<sup>(1)</sup>) to ensure that all requirements or prohibitions imposed by or under these Regulations are complied with in so far as they relate to the mine or quarry or part of a quarry of which he is the manager and to matters which are within his control.
- (2) It shall be the duty of every employee while at work—
- (a) to co-operate with his employer so far as is necessary to enable any duty placed on that employer by the provisions of these Regulations to be complied with; and
  - (b) to comply with the provisions of these Regulations in so far as they relate to matters which are within his control.
