1990 No. 1020

The Public Service Vehicles (Conduct of Drivers, Inspectors, Conductors and Passengers) Regulations 1990

PART II

Interpretation

- 3.—(1) In this Part of the Regulations unless the context otherwise requires—
- “the 1981 Act” means the Public Passenger Vehicles Act 1981;
  - “the 1985 Act” means the Transport Act 1985;
  - “licence” means a licence to drive a vehicle granted under section 22 of the 1981 Act;
  - “ticket” means a document which, in accordance with the terms and conditions under which it has been issued, constitutes a valid authority to travel on a vehicle;
  - “vehicle” means any vehicle used as a public service vehicle as defined in the 1981 Act but excluding any vehicle used under a permit granted by virtue of section 19 of the 1985 Act.
- (2) For the purposes of this Part of the Regulations, a sum payable by a passenger on the vehicle shall not be regarded as a fare unless—
- (a) it is computed in accordance with a fare table available on the vehicle; and
  - (b) the fare table contains sufficient information to enable the passenger to ascertain the fare for his journey or the manner in which it is computed.
- (3) In this Part of the Regulations, in relation to a vehicle—
- “conductor” means a person, not being the driver, who is authorised by the operator to act as a conductor on the vehicle, but does not include an inspector; and
  - “driver” means a person who is the holder of a licence and who is for the time being responsible for driving the vehicle.
- (4) In this Part of the Regulations, any reference to a numbered regulation is a reference to the regulation bearing that number in this Part of the Regulations.
- (5) In this Part of the Regulations, any reference to a numbered or lettered paragraph or sub-paragraph is a reference to the paragraph or sub-paragraph bearing that number or letter in the regulation or (in the case of a sub-paragraph) paragraph in which the reference appears.

The conduct of drivers, inspectors and conductors

- 4.—(1) A driver shall not, when a vehicle is in motion, hold a microphone or any attachment thereto unless it is necessary for him, either in an emergency or on grounds of safety, to speak into the microphone.
- (2) Subject to paragraph (3), a driver shall not, when a vehicle is in motion, speak to any person either directly or by means of a microphone.
- (3) Nothing in paragraph (2) shall prevent—

- (a) the driver of a vehicle from—
    - (i) speaking in circumstances when he is obliged to do so by reason of an emergency or on grounds of safety; or
    - (ii) speaking to a relevant person in relation to the operation of the vehicle provided that he can do so without being distracted from his driving of the vehicle; and
  - (b) the driver of a vehicle which is being used to provide a relevant service from making short statements from time to time limited to indicating the location of the vehicle or operational matters provided that he can do so without being distracted from his driving of the vehicle.
- (4) In this regulation—
- (a) “relevant person” is a person fulfilling one of the following descriptions—
    - (i) an employee of the operator;
    - (ii) when the operator is a firm, a partner of the firm;
    - (iii) if the operator is an individual, that individual; or
    - (iv) if the operator is a company, a director; and
  - (b) “relevant service” is a service for the carriage of passengers for hire or reward at separate fares which is neither—
    - (i) an excursion or tour within the meaning of section 137(1) of the 1985 Act; nor
    - (ii) a service the primary purpose of which is sightseeing, not falling within sub-paragraph (i).

5.—(1) A driver and a conductor shall take all reasonable precautions to ensure the safety of passengers who are on, or who are entering or leaving, the vehicle.

(2) A driver, inspector and conductor shall take all reasonable steps to ensure that the provisions of these Regulations relating to the conduct of passengers are complied with.

- (3) A driver, inspector or conductor—
- (a) shall, if so requested by a constable or other person having reasonable cause, give his name, the person by whom he is employed and, in the case of a driver, particulars of the licence by virtue of which he drives the vehicle; and
  - (b) shall not smoke in or on a vehicle except in one of the circumstances specified in paragraph (4).
- (4) The circumstances referred to in paragraph (3)(b) are that—
- (a) the vehicle is not available for the carriage of passengers and the person concerned is in or on any part of the vehicle where smoking by passengers is not prohibited by regulation 6(1)(d); or
  - (b) the vehicle is hired as a whole and the person concerned has the permission of the operator and the hirer.

(5) A driver shall, when picking up or setting down passengers, stop the vehicle as close as is reasonably practicable to the left or near side of the road.

(6) A conductor shall not, while the vehicle is in motion and without reasonable cause, distract the driver’s attention or obstruct his vision.

The conduct of passengers

- 6.—(1) No passenger on a vehicle shall—

- (a) where the vehicle has a door which passengers are by a notice informed is for a particular purpose, use that door for any other purpose, unless otherwise directed or authorised by a driver, inspector or conductor;
  - (b) put at risk or unreasonably impede or cause discomfort to any person travelling on or entering or leaving the vehicle, or a driver, inspector, conductor or employee of the operator when doing his work on the vehicle;
  - (c) throw or trail any article from the vehicle;
  - (d) smoke or carry lighted tobacco or light a match or a cigarette lighter in or on any part of the vehicle where passengers are by a notice informed that smoking is prohibited, unless the vehicle has been hired as a whole and both the operator and the hirer have given their permission to the contrary;
  - (e) except with the permission of the operator, distribute any paper or other article for the purpose of giving or seeking information about or comment upon any matter;
  - (f) except with the permission of the operator, sell or offer for sale any article;
  - (g) speak to the driver unless—
    - (i) in an emergency or on grounds of safety; or
    - (ii) it is to give directions as to the stopping of the vehicle;
  - (h) without reasonable cause distract the driver's attention, obstruct his vision or give any signal which might reasonably be interpreted by the driver as a signal—
    - (i) to stop the vehicle in an emergency; or
    - (ii) to start the vehicle;
  - (j) travel on any part of the vehicle which is not provided for the carriage of passengers;
  - (k) remain on the vehicle, when directed to leave by the driver, inspector or conductor on the following grounds—
    - (i) that his remaining would result in the number of passengers exceeding the maximum seating capacity or the maximum standing capacity marked on the vehicle in accordance with the Public Service Vehicles (Carrying Capacity) Regulations 1984<sup>(1)</sup>;
    - (ii) that he has been causing a nuisance; or
    - (iii) that his condition is such as would be likely to cause offence to a reasonable passenger or that the condition of his clothing is such that his remaining would be reasonably expected to soil the fittings of the vehicle or the clothing of other passengers;
  - (l) play or operate any musical instrument or sound reproducing equipment to the annoyance of any person on the vehicle or in a manner which is likely to cause annoyance to any person on the vehicle; or (m) intentionally interfere with any equipment with which the vehicle is fitted.
- (2) Subject to paragraph (3), a passenger on a vehicle who has with him any article or substance mentioned in paragraph (4) or any animal—
- (a) if directed by the driver, inspector or conductor to put it in a particular place on the vehicle, shall put it where directed; and
  - (b) if requested to move it from the vehicle by the driver, inspector or conductor, shall remove it.

(1) S.I. 1984/1406.

(3) Paragraph (2)(b) shall not apply to the bearer of a card issued by the Guide Dogs for the Blind Association who has with him a guide dog unless—

- (a) the vehicle is—
    - (i) a double-decked vehicle; or
    - (ii) a single-decked vehicle of which the overall length is 8.5 metres or more; and there are already two or more dogs on board; or
  - (b) the vehicle is a single-decked vehicle of which the overall length is less than 8.5 metres and there is already one dog or more than one dog on board.
- (4) The article or substance referred to in paragraph (2) is—
- (a) any bulky or cumbersome article;
  - (b) any article or substance which causes or is likely to cause annoyance to any person on the vehicle; or
  - (c) any article or substance which would be reasonably expected to constitute—
    - (i) a risk of injury to any person on the vehicle; or
    - (ii) a risk of damage to the property of any person on the vehicle or to the vehicle.

(5) In this regulation, “double-decked vehicle”, “single-decked vehicle” and “overall length” have the meanings given by the Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986(2).

7.—(1) No passenger on a vehicle being used for the carriage of passengers at separate fares shall use any ticket which has—

- (a) been altered or defaced;
- (b) been issued for use by another person on terms that it is not transferable; or
- (c) expired.

(2) Save as provided in paragraph (3), every passenger on a vehicle being used for the carriage of passengers at separate fares shall—

- (a) declare, if so requested by the driver, inspector or conductor, the journey which he intends to take, is taking or has taken in the vehicle;
- (b) where the vehicle is being operated by the driver without a conductor—
  - (i) save as provided in (ii) below, immediately on boarding the vehicle, pay the fare for the journey he intends to take to the driver or, where appropriate, by inserting in any fare-collection equipment provided on the vehicle the money or token required to pay that fare; or
  - (ii) if otherwise directed by the driver, an inspector or a notice displayed on the vehicle, shall pay the fare for his journey in accordance with the direction;
- (c) where the vehicle is being operated by the driver with a conductor, pay the fare for the journey which he intends to take, is taking, or has taken in the vehicle to the conductor immediately on being requested to do so by the conductor or an inspector;
- (d) accept and retain for the rest of his journey any ticket which is provided on payment of a fare in accordance with sub-paragraph (b) or (c);
- (e) produce during his journey any ticket which has been issued to him either under sub-paragraph (d) or before he started his journey for inspection by the driver, inspector or conductor on being requested to do so by the driver, inspector or conductor; and
- (f) as soon as he has completed the journey for which he has a ticket, either—

- (i) leave the vehicle; or
- (ii) pay the fare for any further journey which he intends to take on the vehicle.

(3) Paragraph (2)(b) and (c) do not apply to a passenger who has with him a ticket which was issued to him before his journey in respect of that journey, provided he complies with all such directions in relation to the ticket as may be—

- (a) printed on the ticket;
- (b) displayed on the vehicle; or
- (c) given by the driver, inspector or conductor.

(4) Any passenger who—

- (a) fails to comply with paragraph 2(b) or (c); or
- (b) does not have with him a ticket which was issued to him before his journey in respect of that journey; shall pay the fare for his journey to the driver, inspector or conductor on request and in any case before he leaves the vehicle unless otherwise agreed by the driver, inspector or conductor.

(5) Any passenger on a vehicle being used for the carriage of passengers at separate fares who has with him a ticket which he is not entitled to retain for any reason including—

- (a) the alteration or defacement of the ticket;
- (b) the fact that the ticket, having been issued for use by another person, was not transferable to him;
- (c) the expiry of the ticket; or
- (d) a mistake in consequence of which the ticket was issued;

shall surrender the ticket to a driver, inspector or conductor on being required to do so.

8.—(1) Any passenger on a vehicle who is reasonably suspected by the driver, inspector or conductor of the vehicle of contravening any provision of these Regulations shall give his name and address to the driver, inspector or conductor on demand.

(2) Any passenger on a vehicle who contravenes any provision of these Regulations may be removed from the vehicle by the driver, inspector or conductor of the vehicle or, on the request of the driver, inspector or conductor, by a police constable.

9. In its application to Scotland, regulation 8(1) shall have effect as if after the word “address” there were inserted the words “to a police constable or”.
