EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations further amend the Non-Domestic Rating (Alteration of Lists and Appeals) Regulations 1990 (“the principal Regulations”).

Regulation 3 establishes that the procedure for serving a fresh proposal for the alteration of a local non-domestic rating list where a valuation officer has challenged the validity of a proposal is not available where the original proposal did not comply with the time limits in regulation 9 of the principal Regulations.

By virtue of regulation 16 of the principal Regulations, an alteration of a local non-domestic rating list in relation to a hereditament which is the subject of an outstanding appeal is deemed to give rise to a further appeal. Regulation 4 of these Regulations specifies the circumstances in which no such further appeal will arise.

Regulation 5, by amending regulation 43 of the principal Regulations, removes the restrictions on the descriptions of persons who may inspect the records of decisions kept by valuation and community charge tribunals.
