5.—(1) The Secretary of State may cause a pre-inquiry meeting to be held if it appears to him desirable and where he does so the following provisions apply.

(2) The Secretary of State shall serve with the relevant notice a notification of his intention to cause a pre-inquiry meeting to be held and a statement of the matters which appear to him to be likely to be relevant to his consideration of the application in question; and where another Minister of the Crown or a government department has expressed in writing to the Secretary of State a view that the application should not be granted either wholly or in part, or should be granted only subject to conditions, the Secretary of State shall set this out in his statement and shall supply a copy of the statement to the Minister or government department concerned.

(3) The applicant shall cause to be published in a newspaper circulating in the locality in which the land is situated a notice of the Secretary of State's intention to cause a pre-inquiry meeting to be held and of the statement served in accordance with paragraph (2).

(4) The notice published pursuant to paragraph (3) shall refer to and include the text of any statement served in accordance with paragraph (2).

(7) The pre-inquiry meeting or, where there is more than one, the first meeting, shall be held not later than 16 weeks after the relevant date.

(8) The Secretary of State shall give not less than 21 days' written notice of the pre-inquiry meeting to the relevant planning authority, the applicant, any person known at the date of the notice to be a person entitled to appear at the inquiry and any other person whose presence at the pre-inquiry meeting seems to him to be desirable; and he may require the applicant to take, in relation to notification of the pre-inquiry meeting, one or more steps which he may under rule 10 require him to take in relation to notification of the inquiry.

(9) The inspector shall preside at the pre-inquiry meeting and shall determine the matters to be discussed and the procedure to be followed, and he may require any person present at the meeting who, in his opinion, is behaving in a disruptive manner to leave it and he may refuse to permit that person to return or to attend any further pre-inquiry meeting, or may permit him to return or to attend only on such conditions as he may specify.

Service of statement of case, etc.

6.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (5) and (7), each of—

- (a) the applicant;
- (b) the relevant planning authority, and
- (c) any person who, having notified the Secretary of State of his intention or wish to appear at the inquiry, has been required in writing by the Secretary of State to comply with the requirements of this paragraph,

(6) Any person serving a statement of case on the Secretary of State shall serve with it a copy of any document, or of the relevant part of any document, referred to in it.

(7) Where the Secretary of State considers it expedient, having regard to the number of qualifying objectors and the length of a statement of case, he may authorise any person required to serve a statement of case under paragraph (1)(c) to serve it only on the applicant, the relevant planning authority and himself; and where the Secretary of State so authorises he shall make arrangements for notice to be given to the other parties referred to in paragraph (1)(c), stating the times and places at which they may examine the statement of case and, where practicable, take copies of it.

(8) Where, in the case of an application under section 36 the Secretary of State has not given notice under rule 5(2) of his intention to cause a pre-inquiry meeting to be held, he shall not later than 12 weeks after the relevant date serve a written statement of the matters referred to in that paragraph on the applicant, the relevant planning authority and any person from whom he has required a statement of case under paragraph (1)(c).

Inspector's power to hold pre-inquiry meetings

- (8) Any notice of the inquiry published, served, posted or affixed pursuant to paragraph (6) or (7) shall specify the date and time of the inquiry and the full address of where it is to be held, and shall clearly identify the land.

- (3) Any person entitled or permitted to appear may do so on his own behalf or be represented by counsel, solicitor or any other person.
- (4) An inspector may allow one or more persons to appear for the benefit of some or all of any persons having a similar interest in the matter under inquiry.

Representatives of government departments at inquiry

- 12.—(1) Where another Minister of the Crown or any government department has expressed a view such as is mentioned in rule 5(2) and the Secretary of State has included its terms in a statement served in accordance with that rule or rule 6(8), a representative of the government department concerned shall be made available to attend the inquiry.
- (2) A person attending an inquiry as a representative in pursuance of this rule shall state the reasons for the expression of view in question and shall give evidence and be subject to cross-examination to the same extent as any other witness.
- (3) Nothing in paragraph (2) shall require a representative of a government department to answer any question which in the opinion of the inspector is directed to the merits of government policy.

Statements of evidence

- 13.—(1) A person entitled to appear at an inquiry who proposes to give, or to call another person to give, evidence at the inquiry by reading a written statement shall send a copy of the statement to the inspector and shall, if so required by the inspector, supply a written summary of that evidence.

- (4) Where the inspector has required a written summary of evidence in accordance with paragraph (1), the person giving that evidence at the inquiry shall do so by reading the written summary alone, unless permitted by the inspector to do otherwise.
- (5) Any person required by this rule to send a statement of evidence to any other person shall send with the statement copies of all documents or parts of documents referred to therein and not previously supplied under rule 6(6).

Procedure at inquiry

14.—(1) Except as otherwise provided in these rules, the inspector shall determine the procedure at the inquiry,

(2) Unless in any particular case the inspector with the consent of the applicant otherwise determines, the applicant shall begin and shall have the right of final reply; and other persons entitled or permitted to appear shall be heard in such order as the inspector may determine.

(3) A person entitled to appear at an inquiry shall be entitled to call evidence and the applicant and the relevant planning authority shall be entitled to cross-examine any person giving evidence, but, subject to paragraphs (2) and (4) to (6), the calling of evidence and the cross-examination of persons giving evidenceshall otherwise be at the inspector's discretion.

(4) The inspector may refuse to permit—

- (a) the giving or production of evidence;
- (b) the cross-examination of persons giving evidence; or
- (c) the presentation of any other matter, which he considers to be irrelevant or repetitious; but where he so refuses to permit the giving of oral evidence, the person wishing to give the evidence may submit to him any written evidence or other matter in writing before the close of the inquiry.

(5) Where a person gives evidence at an inquiry by reading a summary of his evidence in accordance with rule 13(4), the statement of evidence referred to in rule 13(1) shall, unless the person required to supply the summary notifies the inspector that he now wishes to rely on the contents of that summary only, be treated as tendered in evidence, and the person whose evidence the statement contains shall then be subject to cross-examination on it to the same extent as if it were evidence he had given orally.

(6) The inspector shall not require or permit the giving or production of any evidence, whether written or oral, which he considers would be contrary to the public interest; but, save as aforesaid, the inspector may direct that documents tendered in evidence may be inspected by any person entitled or permitted to appear at the inquiry.

(7) The inspector may direct that facilities shall be afforded to any person appearing at an inquiry to take or obtain copies of documentary evidence open to public inspection.

(8) The inspector may require any person appearing or present at an inquiry who, in his opinion, is behaving in a disruptive manner to leave it and may refuse to permit that person to return, or may permit him to return only on such conditions as he may specify; but any such person may submit to him any written evidence or other matter in writing before the close of the inquiry.

(9) The inspector may allow any person to alter or add to a statement of case served under rule 6 so far as may be necessary for the purposes of the inquiry; but he shall (if necessary by adjourning the inquiry) give every other person entitled to appear who is appearing at the inquiry an adequate opportunity of considering any fresh matter or document.

(10) The inspector may proceed with an inquiry in the absence of any person entitled to appear at it.

(11) The inspector may take into account any written representation or evidence or any other document received by him from any person before an inquiry opens or during the inquiry provided he discloses it at the inquiry.

(12) The inspector may from time to time adjourn an inquiry and, if the date, time and place of the adjourned inquiry are announced at the inquiry before the adjournment, no further notice shall be required.

Site inspections

15.—(1) The inspector may make an unaccompanied inspection of the land before or during an inquiry without giving notice of his intention to the persons entitled to appear at the inquiry.

(2) The inspector may, during an inquiry or after its close, inspect the land in the company of the applicant, the relevant planning authority and, subject to paragraph (3), any qualifying objector; and he shall make such an inspection if so requested by the applicant or the relevant planning authority before or during an inquiry.

(3) Where the inspector inspects the land after the close of an inquiry, a qualifying objector shall only be entitled to accompany him on that inspection if that objector appeared at the inquiry.

(4) In all cases where the inspector intends to make an inspection of the kind referred to in paragraph (2) he shall announce during the inquiry the date and time at which he proposes to make it.

(5) The inspector shall not be bound to defer an inspection of the kind referred to in paragraph (2) where any person mentioned in that paragraph is not present at the time appointed.

Procedure after inquiry

16.—(1) After the close of an inquiry, the inspector shall make a report in writing to the Secretary of State which shall include his conclusions and recommendations or his reasons for not making any recommendation.

(2) Where an assessor has been appointed, he may, after the close of the inquiry, make a report in writing to the inspector in respect of the matters on which he was appointed to advise.

(3) Where an assessor makes a report in accordance with paragraph (2), the inspector shall append it to his own report and shall state in his own report how far he agrees or disagrees with the assessor's report and, where he disagrees with the assessor, his reasons for that disagreement.

(4) If, after the close of an inquiry, the Secretary of State—

(a) differs from the inspector on any matter of fact mentioned in, or appearing to him to be material to, a conclusion reached by the inspector; or

(b) takes into consideration any new evidence or new matter of fact (not being a matter of government policy), and is by reason thereof disposed to disagree with a recommendation made by the inspector he shall not come to a decision which is at variance with that recommendation without first notifying the persons entitled to appear at the inquiry who appeared at it of his disagreement and the reasons for it; and affording to them an opportunity of making written representations to him within 21 days of the date of notification, or (if the Secretary of State has taken into consideration any new evidence or new matter of fact, not being a matter of government policy) an opportunity of asking within that period for the re-opening of the inquiry.

(5) The Secretary of State may, as he thinks fit, cause an inquiry to be re-opened to afford an opportunity for persons to be heard on such matters relating to an application as he may specify, and he shall do so if asked to do so by the applicant or the relevant planning authority pursuant to paragraph (4) and in the circumstances and within the period mentioned in that paragraph; and where an inquiry is re-opened (whether by the same or a different inspector) —

(a) the Secretary of State shall send to the persons entitled to appear at the inquiry who appeared at it a written statement of the matters specified pursuant to paragraph (5); and

(b) rules 10(3) to 10(8) shall apply as if the references to an inquiry were references to a re-opened inquiry.

Notification of decision

17.—(1) The Secretary of State shall notify his decision on an application and his reasons for it in writing to all persons entitled to appear at the inquiry who did appear at it and to any other person who, having appeared at the inquiry, has asked to be notified of the decision.

(2) Where a copy of the inspector's report is not sent with the notification of the decision, the notification shall be accompanied by a statement of his conclusions and of any recommendations made by him; and if a person entitled to be notified of the decision has not received a copy of that report, he shall be supplied with a copy of it on written application made to the Secretary of State within 4 weeks from the date of the decision.

(3) In this rule "report" includes any assessor's report appended to the inspector's report but does not include any other documents so appended; but any person who has received a copy of the report may apply to the Secretary of State in writing, within 6 weeks of the date of the Secretary of State's decision, for an opportunity of inspecting any such documents and the Secretary of State shall afford him that opportunity.

Procedure following quashing of decision

18.—(1) Where a decision of the Secretary of State on an application in respect of which an inquiry has been held is quashed in proceedings before any court, the Secretary of State—

- (a) shall send to the persons entitled to appear at the inquiry who appeared at it a written statement of the matters which appear to him to be relevant to his further consideration of the application; and
- (b) shall afford to those persons an opportunity of making, within 21 days of the date of such written statement, written representations to him in respect of such matters or of asking for the re-opening of the inquiry; and
- (c) may, as he thinks fit, cause the inquiry to be re-opened (whether by the same or a different inspector), and, if he does so, rules 10(3) to 10(8) shall apply as if the references to an inquiry were references to a re-opened inquiry.

Allowing further time

19. The Secretary of State may at any time in any particular case allow further time for the taking of any step which is required or enabled to be done by virtue of these rules, and references in these rules to a day by which or a period within which any step is required or enabled to be taken shall be construed accordingly.

Service of notices

20. Notices or documents required or authorised to be served or sent under any of the provisions of these rules may be sent by post.

Revocation, transitional and savings

21.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), the Electricity Generating Stations and Overhead Lines (Inquiries Procedure) Rules 1987(6) ("the 1987 Rules") are hereby revoked.

(2) The 1987 Rules shall continue to apply to any inquiry which commenced before the date on which these rules come into force, and for the purposes of this rule an inquiry shall be taken to have commenced on the day on which the Secretary of State issued the relevant notice under the 1987 Rules of his intention to cause the inquiry to be held.
