1990 No. 796

EDUCATION, ENGLAND AND WALES

The Education (Designated Institutions) (Amendment) Order 1990

Made	- - - -	2nd April 1990
Laid before Parliament		2nd April 1990
Coming into force	- -	4th April 1990

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 129(1) of the Education Reform Act 1988 (“the Act”)(1) the Secretary of State for Education and Science hereby makes the following Order:

1. This Order may be cited as the Education (Designated Institutions) (Amendment) Order 1990 and shall come into force on 4th April 1990.

2. The Education (Designated Institutions) Order 1989(2) is hereby amended by the deletion from Part 2 of the Schedule thereto of the institution named the College of St Paul and St Mary and the insertion in that Part, at the appropriate place in alphabetical order, of the institution named Cheltenham and Gloucester College of Higher Education incorporating the College of St Paul and St Mary (being an institution appearing to the Secretary of State to fall within subsection (2) of section 129 of the Act).

2nd April 1990

John MacGregor
Secretary of State for Education and Science

(1) 1988 c. 40.

(2) S.I. 1989/282, amended by S.I. 1989/2055.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order amends as from 4th April 1990 the Education (Designated Institutions) Order 1989 by removing the College of St Paul and St Mary (Cheltenham) from the list of institutions in that Order designated as eligible to receive funds from the Polytechnics and Colleges Funding Council and adding the Cheltenham and Gloucester College of Higher Education incorporating the College of St Paul and St Mary.

The amendment is required in consequence of the merger of the College of St Paul and St Mary on 4th April 1990 with the Gloucestershire College of Arts and Technology (Higher Education) to form a new institution called the Cheltenham and Gloucester College of Higher Education incorporating the College of St Paul and St Mary.
