1991 No. 106

The Sealink (Transfer of Fishbourne Terminal) Harbour Revision Order 1991

Charges

8.—(1) On and after the day of transfer the Company shall in the exercise of statutory powers and duties at the transferred harbour, have power to make such reasonable charges for its services and facilities as it thinks fit.

(2) This article does not apply in relation to—

(a) ship, passenger and goods dues; or

(b) charges ascribable to the running of a ferry service in or from a harbour;

and does not authorise the making or any charge in a case where an enactment relating to the transferred harbour expressly provides for freedom from charges or otherwise prohibits the making of any charge.

(3) The provisions of sections 27 to 32 and 34 to 48 of the Harbours, Docks and Piers Clauses Act 1847<sup>(1)</sup> (which provide for various matters connected with liabilities for and collection of the rates to be taken by undertakers) as incorporated with or applied by any enactment relating to the transferred harbour apply to charges under this article as if they were rates payable under that enactment.
