

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order prescribes the colleges of further education to be transferred from the management of education authorities to individual boards of management on 1st April 1993. It also prescribes 1st September 1992 as the date on which the transitional period (during which college councils will have certain additional powers) begins for college councils of colleges of further education so transferred and makes consequential amendments to subordinate legislation.
