The Occupational and Personal Pension Schemes
(Consequential Amendments) Regulations 1994

Made	- - - -	12th April 1994
Laid before Parliament		21st April 1994
Coming into force	- -	12th May 1994

The Secretary of State for Social Security in exercise of the powers conferred upon him by the provisions specified in Schedule 1 to these Regulations, and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, after consultation with the Council on Tribunals as required by section 8(1) of the Tribunals and Inquiries Act 1992⁽¹⁾ and section 185(8) of the Pension Schemes Act 1993⁽²⁾, not being required to refer the proposals in respect of these Regulations to the Social Security Advisory Committee or the Occupational Pensions Board because this instrument contains only regulations made consequential upon the Pension Schemes Act 1993 and the Pension Schemes (Northern Ireland) Act 1993⁽³⁾ and is made before the end of the period of 6 months beginning with the coming into force of those enactments⁽⁴⁾, hereby makes the following Regulations—

Citation and commencement

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Occupational and Personal Pension Schemes (Consequential Amendments) Regulations 1994.

(2) These Regulations come into force on 12th May 1994.

Amendments consequential on the Pension Schemes Act 1993 and the Pension Schemes (Northern Ireland) Act 1993

2. The Regulations mentioned in Schedule 2 to these Regulations shall have effect with the amendments specified in that Schedule (which substitute references to provisions of the Pension Schemes Act 1993 and the Pension Schemes (Northern Ireland) Act 1993 for references to the corresponding provisions repealed by those Acts and make other amendments consequential on the passing of the Pension Schemes Act 1993).

(1) 1992 c. 53.

(2) 1993 c. 48.

(3) 1993 c. 49.

(4) See section 185(6) of the Pension Schemes Act 1993 (c. 48), and section 173(5)(b) of the Social Security Administration Act 1992 (c. 5).

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations are made under the Pension Schemes Act 1993 and are made before the end of the period of 6 months beginning with the coming into force of that Act and the Pension Schemes (Northern Ireland) Act 1993.

The Pension Schemes Act 1993 consolidated and repealed the majority of the existing statutory provisions relating to occupational and personal pension schemes (with the exception of provisions relating to taxation). The provisions so consolidated (“the repealed provisions”) included provisions conferring powers to make regulations, which have been exercised by the making of a large number of Regulations (“the existing Regulations”). The existing Regulations continue to have effect, by virtue of section 17(2)(b) of the Interpretation Act 1978, despite the repeal of the provisions conferring the power to make them.

The Pension Schemes (Northern Ireland) Act 1993 made similar provisions in relation to Northern Ireland.

These Regulations substitute for references in the existing Regulations to the repealed provisions references to the corresponding provisions of the Pension Schemes Act 1993 and the Pension Schemes (Northern Ireland) Act 1993. They also make necessary changes to the existing Regulations where the existing Regulations operate by making detailed modifications of text of the repealed provisions which has not survived in the same form in the Pension Schemes Act 1993. In neither case, however, has any alteration of substance been made.

Schedule 2 to these Regulations contains the necessary amendments of the existing Regulations.

These Regulations are consequential upon the coming into force of the Pension Schemes Act 1993 and the Pension Schemes (Northern Ireland) Act 1993 and are made before the end of the period of 6 months beginning with the commencement of those Acts and therefore, under section 173 of the Social Security Administration Act 1992, no proposals to make them have been submitted to the Occupational Pensions Board or the Social Security Advisory Committee.

The Regulations do not impose any costs on business.
